MEN ACCEPT OFFER

Street Railway Employees to Receive Increase of Five Cents an Hour

The 800 employees of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Co. by secret ballot last Saturday accepted the offer of the Company of a raise of 5 cents an hour and all danger of an other strike or a long-drawn-out arbitration case, was thereby averted.

The old agreement with the men expired June 30, and the men who have been receiving 45, 50 and 55 cents an hour demanded 75, 80 and 85 cents.

The following statement from Mr. Pitt F. Drew, president of the company, tells the story of the raise.

Mr. Drew said:

I am very glad to learn that the men have voted to accept the increase offered by the company.

I have always had a strong conviction that the great majority of the men on our system are intelligent, level-headed and reasonable. Men ready to do what they believe to be right and fair when they are in possession of all the facts. For this reason I refused to make an offer to their committee unless they would send an accountant to examine our books and report the facts to the men.

The accountant was sent and examined our financial condition. I then made an offer which was submitted to the men at their meeting on Thursday night. At the same time they had the report of their accountant. I understand that there was full and frank discussion and that each man was given a ballot to mark when he had given the matter full consideration. The voting took place on Saturday by secret ballot. The result is very gratifying because it justifies my faith in the men.

The cost to the company is more than should be paid from a business standpoint and I believe the men realized it. On the other hand, they no doubt felt that they too were making a sacrifice. It is this spirit of fairness and co-operation on the part of the men that gives me courage.

We have been passing through very hard times for the management and for the men, to say nothing of the patient and unfortunate stockholder. I hope that the tide has turned and that the combined efforts of management and men will eventually enable us to put our property in good condition and give the public the service they desire. The men agreed with me that it would be unfortunate to have a raise in fares and certainly no general increase will be asked for until we have made every reasonable effort to work the proposition out on the present basis.

It would not be just to speak of the difficulties which the management and men are having without expressing appreciation for the spirit shown by the public in paying the ten-cent fare without a single complaint so far as I have been able to learn.

Mr. W. C. Deutsche Cleared of Charge of Falsifying Questionnaire

The many friends of Mr. William C. Deutsche will be pleased to learn that he has been acquitted and fully exonerated from the charges brought against him by the Department of Justice relative to making false statements in his questionnaire in order to obtain deferred classification. The hearing was held before United States Commissioner Hayes in the Federal Building, Boston. After listening to the evidence brought by the government, the Commissioner closed the hearing and discharged the defendant, stating that the evidence was insufficient. The Commissioner in commenting upon the case stated that he did not feel that he could go behind the ruling of the local draft board. Among the witnesses who appeared for Mr. Deutsche were Judge W. F. Bacon, of the local draft board, Mr. Frank T. Benner of Newtonville, associate legal adviser of the board and

NO ACTION TAKEN

By Aldermen on Two-Platoon, Policeman's Day Off and Laborer's Holidays

There was another long-drawn-out session of the aldermen on Monday night, lasting until most midnight and interrupted with the usual recess for committee meetings.

President Harriman presided until the recess and Vice President Fornall after reassembling. Aldermen Madden, Pratt and Blake were absent.

There was the usual grist of hearings. Those on petitions of the Edison Co. for ownership of poles on Auburn street and for underground conduits in Needham street were unopposed and were granted. No one appeared on the matter of a sewer taking in Upland road, Waban. Mr. S. P. Brown opposed Edison poles on Winthrop street, and residents of Madison road appeared in favor of its acceptance by the city.

THE DUTY OF A BANK

The first duty of a bank is to safeguard the money placed in its keeping, and this duty is not consistent with high interest rates. Practically all the largest and strongest banks in Boston and its vicinity pay not over 4 1/2 per cent. No Newton bank has paid over 4 1/2 per cent. The measure of a bank can be gauged by its directors and officers. Read these names and draw your own conclusions.

CO-OPERATIVE BANKING

CO-OPERATIVE BANKS

An Address By W. N. Swain, President Mass. Co-operative Bank League

There are two things which stand out most prominently in the newspapers—first the habit of thrift, and second, the housing situation.

Unless the people are taught to save money in a systematic way, the great majority take no thought for the morrow and are simply content to receive money and spend it without saving. This condition has always existed and has been more notably developed during the recent World War.

While the habit of thrift and saving has been developed through the necessity of financing the World War and supplying our government with money for it, as reflected in the sale of Liberty Bonds, War Saving Stamps and Thrift Stamps, since the signing of the armistice, the habit of thrift has been in a great measure lost to sight in the desire to spend money and enjoy every so-called luxury that is obtainable with money.

The greatest agency in the development of thrift to my mind is through the compulsory savings habit, required in the co-operative bank. Statistics prepared by the large life insurance companies for use by their solicitors proves that from 55 to 90 per cent of all people who live to be 65 years of age, are dependent upon someone else, in whole or in part, for their support.

Reasons for saving money: Why should one desire to save money? The obvious answer is: Because money is essential to comfort. All material things that we have or enjoy in life are obtained only by money or its equivalent. If we want food, business, clothing, shelter, pleasure, society, if we wish to aid in charitable work, to relieve the distress of individuals, to educate and be educated, to be comfortable in old age, and finally to have our body properly interred at our death, we must have money, provided we wish to maintain our self respect and be active factors in the business of living.

Out of many good reasons which have been presented from time to time showing why people should become members of the co-operative banks and save their money in them, the following six reasons are presented as covering the most important experiences in life and the results which must come if people when these six conditions arise, are protected and insured against trouble by having a snug sum of money saved in the co-operative bank:

Sickness and Loss of Position

Sickness and loss of position may come at any time. What would happen if your income should suddenly stop? Be prepared for emergencies. There is no better friend in time of need than money in the co-operative bank.

Opportunities

A savings account may be the means of completing your education or enabling you to start in business. Success depends largely upon the readiness with which we accept our opportunities. One feature of the co-operative bank is the opportunity which it gives to accumulate money through the persistent, systematic saving of small accounts.

Marriage

Have you a co-operative bank account with which to start housekeeping? The happiness and contentment that comes only through a certainty of the future is the healthy and permanent kind. A savings account starts you on that road. You cannot be your best self or enjoy life when cramped with poverty.

A Home

Nothing gives a man or woman, young or old, more pleasure and enjoyment than to own his or her home. Rent is an endless drain on your income—there is an end to paying for a home, and ease and comfort wait there. The co-operative bank has helped many either to build or buy their homes. It can help you.

The Child's Future

A co-operative bank account opened when your children are young will provide for their education. An excellent means of providing your son and daughter with a start in life, when they reach majority, is to place one share to their credit in a co-operative bank on every birthday. Such amounts will grow as the child grows and each dollar so invested will mean $200 accumulated in twelve and one-half years.

Old Age

At least 85 out of every 100 people, 65 years of age, are partially or wholly dependent upon their relatives or charity for their support. Save in a co-operative bank for the sixty-fifth anniversary of your birth. Do not forget that before many years your physical and mental powers will wane. Save before you reach the zenith of your earning power. Begin immediately and be systematic, otherwise the chances are very remote that you will ever accumulate any property. The habit of persistent and systematic saving can only come through paying one or more dollars each month in a co-operative bank.

"Steady savers are sound sleepers. No greater sense of security nor surer source of contentment exists than the knowledge that you have a little barricade of money built up between you and a possible time of trouble."

Stop and consider that if you save for 12½ years in a co-operative bank: $1 a month will accumulate $200; $5 a month will accumulate 1000; $10 a month will accumulate 2000; $25 a month will accumulate 5000; $40 a month will accumulate 8000.

This is secured as follows:—$1 deposited for 150 months (12½ years) amounts to $150, dividends $50. $5 deposited for 150 months amounts to $750, dividends $250; $10 for 150 months amounts to $1500, dividends $500; $25 for 150 months amounts to $3750, dividends $1250; $40 for 150 months amounts to $6000, dividends $2000.

"It Takes Cents to Make Dollars and Sense to Save Dollars"

From the facts above stated, showing how few people who reach the age of 65 years are independent and able to care for themselves for the balance of their lives, it is wrong to suppose that the co-operative bank is the poor man's and woman's bank. The co-operative bank is THE PEOPLE'S BANK and should be used as freely for investment and borrowing purposes by people of good financial standing, as by those of moderate means.

The newspapers to-day are full of alluring advertisements intending to attract the surplus funds of the people. Many of these advertisements with their investments behind them will not stand the test of a proper audit. It is unfortunate that so few of our co-operative banks advertise. To my mind they owe a moral duty to give information to the public in advertising in the daily papers, showing where the people can make a sure investment of their surplus money.

The co-operative banks should be able to draw the people's money to them and prevent so large an investment in foolish luxuries. Who heard of the sale of silk shirts before the Great War? Just think of a man buying silk shirts at prices that have been as high as $16 and joking over the transaction as though it was something wonderful! When you read in the newspapers the advertisements by great department stores, "Buy your furs now and pay for them in the fall," we are simply moving over a quicksand which when we step upon it will pull us down into misery and bankruptcy.

WILLIAM N. SWAIN
President Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League

and if not, seek the bank that does. Many of the co-operative banks deduct a portion of the profits credited in case you withdraw your funds before the shares mature or reach a certain age.

Second—The bank you become a member of can give you better profits and give the public better service if shares are issued by the bank four times a year, which the law allows.

Third—Ask the treasurer if you buy some shares and they are allowed to mature—that is to be worth $200 on each share at the expiration of a period of 12 years—if you can leave your matured share or shares in the bank as a continuing investment, also, after August 1, 1920, under the provisions of Chapter 429 of the Acts of the Massachusetts Legislature, 1920, the co-operative banks may issue in the name of one person, from 1 to 10 paid-up shares of stock, each share being worth $200.

Join a co-operative bank that intends to take advantage of this new law. The reasons for some of these statements will appear in the second portion of this article, under the heading of the housing problem.

If you join a co-operative bank, try to become associated with one near where you live, unless it is in a large city, then acquaint yourself with the laws and methods of operation of the bank, take an active part in selling its shares and interest your neighbors and friends to become home owners and purchase their shares and funds from the co-operative bank.

Save now, save regularly, save in a co-operative bank.

Of equal publicity and with more necessity, the housing problem claims front page attention in every newspaper, not only in Massachusetts, but elsewhere with the "League of Nations" and the doings of the National Conventions of the great political parties.

From statistics prepared by K. V. Haymaker, former financial advisor, United States Housing Corporation, U. S. Department of Labor, as set out in his lecture at the University of Cincinnati, January 15, 1920, the fol-

Every time you save ten cents, by multiplying by ten you get one dollar and that will give you the money to buy one share and pay the first monthly payment in a co-operative bank.

More Reasons for Saving

The habit of saving acquired through the compulsory monthly plan in the co-operative bank gives to the worker the funds with which to meet an opportunity which often is presented by the employer to become financially interested in his business.

In joining a co-operative bank, I would advise that you ascertain if the bank you are going to join does the following three things:

First—Pays you all the profits that are credited to your shares as the profits are declared from time to time,

The following problems must be met and solved RIGHT by you if you intend to be a good American---

Sickness and Loss of Position—One or both may come at any time. 98% of all who work are only two weeks away from outside help if the pay envelope stops.

Opportunities—A savings account may be the means of completing your education or enable you to start or buy into a business.

Marriage—Is what all honorable men and women should look forward to. Do not start by furnishing your home on the installment plan.

A Home—A study of the present housing conditions must convince you that a home of your own is the only way to prevent NOTICES TO QUIT. Rent receipts represent only a temporary shelter.

The Child's Future—Help your children to the right education and then make them be self-sustaining.

Old Age—Eighty-five out of every one hundred people sixty-five years of age are partially or totally dependent upon their relatives or charity for their support.

ties of the country, and the millions represented in the new industries, and we are very apt to forget that for every million dollars invested in new and expanding industries, three or four million dollars should be invested in providing adequate housing for the workmen which the industry employs.

There are in the United States at the present time, Building and Loan Associations (which are known as co-operative banks in Massachusetts), numbering over 8,000 societies with an active membership of about 4,500,000 and assets of over $2,000,000,000, with annual receipts exceeding $1,300,000,000, and through these associations, for many years in the past and probably for many years to come, the principal supply for home mortgages is available.

They are as before quoted the people's banks, financed by, directed by and controlled by the people. These banks must go back to the people with annual reports each year, showing the work that has been accomplished and if the people who control them are not satisfied with the management, it can easily be changed.

In Massachusetts the average co-operative bank mortgage is $2000, but the average mortgage is about $5000.

It is estimated that we will need in Massachusetts each year for the coming five years, houses or apartments totaling 40,000. This is a conservative estimate. It will require $200,000,000 of mortgage money to finance them.

As the co-operative bank can loan not exceeding 30 per cent of the value placed upon the home as a loan, it requires 20 per cent more money to be supplied by the owner, or through some other source in part by a second mortgage.

The problem that now faces the co-operative bank is to find this large sum of money each year to finance these 40,000 homes. Its revenue is made up entirely from the dollar each month paid in on each share, the additional funds that can be retained with shares matured, and which formerly were paid out to the investor at maturity, and the further new law for the issuance of paid up shares.

The income of the co-operative banks in Massachusetts for the year ending October 31, 1919, is estimated at about $75,000,000 and the disbursements from this income for mortgage investments as estimated was $35,000,000, so on that basis it requires almost six times as much money to satisfactorily cover the demands of the man or woman who desires to own a home as is available through the co-operative banks.

We Owe a Duty to Make America Safe for Democracy

It is estimated that from 30 to 40 per cent of the population of this country live in their own homes. If we are going to make America safe for democracy the people must be homeowners and not home-renters, and the home-renter is going to turn to the co-operative bank, the savings bank and the trust company, or the individual lender, for his money and is going to expect an affirmative answer to the following:

If I can finance 20 to 25 per cent of the cost of a home, I am entitled to have the balance of the money supplied by some one who wants to make me a good American citizen.

Briefly, to my mind, the following four lines define the co-operative bank:

The members save money together. They lend their money to one another.

They divide their profits with one another.

They work together to help one another.

The co-operative banks are located in most of the cities and towns in Massachusetts. They number two hundred and have assets exceeding $175,000,000 and practically all their assets are invested in first mortgages on improved real estate in the communities in which they do business. They are conducted in a most economical way; they pay on an average 5½ per cent dividends to their depositors; they are obliged to establish a surplus and guarantee fund from which fund any losses resulting from unfortunate investments are paid.

Massachusetts Co-operative League

The Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League is a voluntary association of representatives from about three-fourths of the two hundred co-operative banks now doing business in Massachusetts. It meets annually at some city previously selected, has papers read by bank officers on subjects of interest to the officers and directors, elects officers who conduct its affairs for the coming year, and generally speaking is a helpful and encouraging convention, has a banquet, good time and an increase of acquaintance between the officers of the various banks in the state.

During the past year a new policy has been adopted of holding county or district conventions. Ten of these were held at which were present almost 1000 directors and vital subjects were discussed by the President of the State League with the directors, and a new alignment and an increased interest has resulted therefrom.

The annual meeting will be held in Springfield, Mass., Friday and Saturday, October 1 and 2, 1920, and it is expected it will be the largest convention ever held by the League.

There are at present two hundred co-operative banks in Massachusetts with an estimated membership of almost 285,000, and total assets exceeding $170,000,000, and the demand for money for home mortgages shown by filed applications in the various banks amounts to over $15,000,000 and this amount has covered anticipated receipts for the next three months. If the general public, appreciating the necessity for homes for stabilizing America and making it safe for democracy, will buy running shares in our co-operative banks will purchase matured shares which are shares that have matured after twelve years of steady monthly payments, and will buy the new paid-up stock certificates which are now on sale at the banks, and will in every way possible get money into the co-operative bank treasuries, the co-operative banks can do their share in supplying the funds for home mortgages.

Every $2000 paid into a co-operative bank supplies the funds for one more home mortgage. These banks are supervised by the commissioner of banks at the State House the same as the savings bank and any money invested in them is absolutely safe.

PIGRAMS OF ERNEST G. ADAMS, THE ROOSEVELT OF RELIGION

"Most religion is based upon the principle of safety first. We dole out church support exactly on the same principle that we figure out how much insurance we have got to pay to save our home in case of fire."

"Religion and patriotism are pretty much the same thing, in this country at least, when we consider the principles for which the Declaration of Independence stands."

"Religion is loyalty and responsibility to God. If a man has that spirit every day in the week he has religion. We need responsibility to God today, not worry about the hereafter."

"Everybody seems to be out today to make a killing with no real thought of what it will lead to; no thought of what the effect will be on future generations."

"No political, social or economic experiments are needed today to solve the world's troubles. What the world needs is an abiding faith in the brotherhood of man. This is the Unitarian religion."

"My attitude toward churches is this: I am for churches, I think they are the greatest influence for building up this country that ever could be. I never go by a church without wanting to stop and salute."

"The first group of Christians were laymen. We are laymen. We have got to put the trick over."

"We laymen have sat back and left our religion in our wives' names."

"Grand Old Party."

The term "Grand Old Man" was applied to Mr. Gladstone in 1882, and is accredited to John Bright, who used it in a speech that year in Northampton, England. In America the phrase was appropriated and changed by members of the Republican party, who affectionately called it the "Grand Old Party." This at once became a news-slogan and in the headlines was shorted to "G. O. P."

GLORIOUS IMAGE OF BUDDHA

Idol in the "Lama City" Is Worshiped
by Devotees With Almost Insane Devotion.

An 80-foot wooden image of Buddha standing on a golden lotus flower within a sacred temple in "The Lama City," reserved for residences of Mongolian priests, is worshiped with all the insane devotion possible by the Mongolians. The great figure is heavily gilded, incrusted with precious stones, and draped with silken cloths.

When the temple is opened to the faithful of the city of Urga a priest at the entrance gives each person a few drops of holy water from a filthy jug, and the people, silent with awe, bathe their faces with the fluid and prostrate themselves before the statue, whose head is lost in the shadows of the temple roof. They kiss its silken draperies, soiled by the lips of thousands, and each one gathers a handful of sacred dirt from the temple floor.

From niches in the wall hundreds of tiny Buddhas gaze impassively on the worshiping Mongols. The scene of worship is described by Roy Chapman Andrews in Harper's Magazine as one "intoxicating in its barbaric splendor." The chorus of prayers which rise and fall in a meaningless half wild chant are broken by the clash of cymbals and the boom of snakeskin drums, and one is fully able to understand the religious fanaticism of the East when the people are seen at prayer in one of these temples.

MANY FORMS OF EARLY FLAGS

Various Types Were Used Before the
was Adopted.

According to the Smithsonian Institution there were many forms of early flags, especially colonial types, used by the individual colonies and militia regiments, before the flag of the United States was established by the continental congress June 14, 1777, the anniversary of which date is now celebrated as flag day. This act required that the flag of the United States be of 13 horizontal stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union be 13 white stars on a blue field, representing a new constellation.

One of the first occasions for public display of the Stars and Stripes is said to have been August 6, 1777, when the new flag was hoisted over the troops at Fort Schuyler, Rome, N. Y. John Paul Jones is said to have been the first to fly the Stars and Stripes over the high seas on the Ranger in November, 1777.

From the time of the Revolution the Stars and Stripes in the flag have varied. There were 13 stars during the Revolution, 15 in the war of 1812, 29 in the Mexican war, 33 to 35 in the Civil war, 45 in the Spanish war and 48 today. The stripes were changed first from 13 to 15 and then back again to 13. Our national flag is among the oldest flags of the nations, being older than the present British jack, the French tricolor and the flag of Spain.

The Painter's Dog.
Mrs. Ritchie, the daughter of William Makepeace Thackeray, the English novelist, writes of visits when she was a child to Sir Edwin Landseer, the animal painter. She says Sir Edwin was delightful company and that he told the children many stories of animals as he stood painting at his huge canvases. "I remember," she says, "his telling us an anecdote of one of his dogs. He was in the habit of taking him out every day when his work was over. The dog used to wait patiently all day long while Sir Edwin was painting, but he used to come and lie down at his feet and look up in his face toward five o'clock, and on one occasion finding that no notice was taken of his hints he trotted into the hall and came back with the painter's hat, which he laid at his feet."

Friendship Reaches Far.
Friendship is an elastic word, rather. It may be stretched to almost any length and it can be contracted until it is unbelievably short and small, says Margaret E. Sangster, in Christian Herald. Like any rubber band, friendship can, of course, be stretched too far—stretched to the breaking point. But it's very hard to stretch the best sort of friendship so far.

Friendship may be the most elastic thing in the world. Some people do not realize the fact, but it can: It can be made to stretch past ambition, and around pride, and over personal vanities. It can be made to lighten the darkest pathway, to smooth out the roughest road. It can change almost unchangeable circumstances—it can break almost unbreakable troubles. It can be, after all, one of the most beautiful things in the world.

In the Spring.
When the society bug starts working young men are prone to lose sleep. That was my trouble one night when, after having taken a fair maiden home from a dance, I headed toward the garage. A long freight train crawling along blocked me at the first crossing, and I settled back to wait for it to snake itself by. The next thing I remember was a heavy hand pawing my shoulder. I started up in alarm, to find no trace of the train, the sun pushing up in the east, and the milkman grinning at me from the running board. I paid him a dollar hush money, but it did little good, for my engine had been running all the time, and it was too good a story to keep.—Exchange.

MRS. WILLIAM LODGE

With gratitude and loving remembrance the Newton Ladies Home Circle acknowledge the most generous bequest from one of our most loved early Presidents, Mrs. Lodge. She was a most loyal and generous friend, known best to the earlier members, for whom and with whom she was ever ready to give of her best. Lending her talents to entertain, opening her home for our merry makings and working, and responding to every call with time and funds, she endeared herself to us all. And we lay this little tribute of love on memory's shrine. This legacy she leaves us to be used in the good work which she and her husband have always shared. Many a burden will be lightened, many a life cheered as it is judiciously used.

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed.

Whose deeds both great and small Are Close knit strands in an unbroken thread

Where love ennobles all.

The world may sound no trumpet, Ring no bells, The Book of Life the shining record tells."

Walback Tower, Portsmouth, N. H., was built in 1812 by Colonel Walback. Within is a rude pinte-stone on which a thirty-two pounder could be swung.

WALBACK TOWER is only one of many points of interest with which the tourist is favored in and near Portsmouth, N. H. There, as in almost every city, town and village in New England and New York, Socony service insures an ample supply of Socony products.

An absolutely clean, efficient gasoline can be made only by the most up-to-date refining and testing methods. Every step in the manufacture of Socony gasoline—from the crude oil pipeline to the tank of an authorized Socony dealer—is checked up by the highest standard of quality. Buy gasoline as you do tires—on a basis of serviceability. Socony users receive clean-hitting, full-mileage power from every drop of gasoline that goes into their tanks. It vaporizes easily and assures a quick start every time—that is why they buy it, regularly.

Look for the red, white and blue Socony sign.

A noon wedding last Saturday which brought together a large company of relatives and friends at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, was that of Miss Leonie Addie Smith and Harry Elwell of South Weymouth, for whom the ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, the rector of the parish. Miss Smith is the niece of John H. Johnson, and has made her home with him at 71 Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill. NO ACTION TAKEN also sent in the recommendation of the City Engineer that the street railway tracks in Walnut street be moved to the centre of the recent widening, and the claim of S. A. Linnekin for damages done by blasting on Eliot avenue.

The Street Commissioner reported completion of the work on Ardmore road and Ardmore terrace at a cost of $2,410.57.

Petitions of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Pine street, of the Edison Co. for attachments on Mill street of R. M. Bernard for second-hand license at 731 Washington street and of Grace Whittier, Carlton road, John E. Cormey, Mayflower road, Michael Roche, Gardner street, Margaret V. Boyhan, Bennington street, Harriet B. McGuire, Newtonville avenue, Clara E. Brown, Watertown street, George H. Fernald, Walnut street, and W. J. Phelps, Ballard street, for private garages were granted. Petitions were also received for a sewer in Raeburn terrace, sewer in Commonwealth avenue, for the laying out of Eastbourne road, and for private garages by Harry Greenwood, Commonwealth avenue, and L. A. Andrews, Chestnut street. Dennis Kelly also notified the city that he rejected the award given him for land taken for Carlton road.

On recommendation of committees, these permits to sell gasoline were granted: Newton Tire & Vule. Co., 554 Commonwealth avenue; A. D. Gentile, 305 Watertown street. John A. Waldo, of Hobart road, was granted permit to keep gasoline, Robert Curran was granted permit to enlarge his garage on Church street. R. W. Lavers was granted permit for private garage on Washburn street; Institution avenue was ordered widened at Beacon street; a sewer was ordered in Williston road; the Mayor granted authority to sell land owned by city on Jerome park and Adams avenue; Neil McIntosh granted a right of way over pumping-station land, and hearings were ordered on new sidewalks on Algonquin road; a sewer in Prospect place and in Raeburn terrace. Leave to withdraw was granted on the proposed widening of Maple street, on petition for sewer in Bowdoin street, and on laying out of Washburn street.

Betterment assessments were levied on the construction of Eden avenue and Windermere road and on sidewalk construction on Wolcott street, Windermere road and Playstead road.

Aldermen Goodwin, McAuslan and Young were appointed a committee to perambulate the boundary line between Newton and Watertown.

$10,000 more Street Improvement bonds were authorized.

The matter of sewer in Milton street was referred to the next city government.

Soldiers' relief was granted to Mrs. Catherine Daly and Helen L. Buchanan.

A proposed sewer and drain in Woodward street to cost $55,000 was reported by the Public Works Committee and referred to the Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee did a land office business in reporting no action necessary to many city employees. The first covered the petition of the city laborers that they should not be required to work on holidays but should be paid for the same. The committee's report was based on the opinion of the city solicitor that this matter was wholly an executive function and lay in the discretion of the mayor.

The second report was on the request of the policemen that they be allowed one day off in eight instead of one day off in 15 as at present. Here again the city solicitor had ruled that no matter what action was taken by the aldermen the subject would appear on the ballot at the state election for a referendum by the people, and the committee believed that no action should be taken by the board under such circumstances.

The third report on the establishment of the two platoon system in the Fire Department aroused considerable debate. Alderman Allen said that as the matter had been rejected last year by the people by a vote of about 2 to 1, and in view of the large increase in taxes of the present year, the Finance Committee believed that the board would be subject to considerable criticism if it took favorable action, and inasmuch as the firman had petitions already signed to place it on the ballot again this fall, it was thought best to let the people settle the matter. Alderman Hollis said he had reluctantly changed his mind in regard to this matter having been at first strongly opposed to it, but had been convinced that the two platoon system worked for more efficient service.

He questioned the figures given by the Chief that it would require 34 more men at an expense running from $45,000 the first year to $60,000 the fifth year, and believed far less men would be needed. Remarks were also made by Alderman Young, McAuslan, Goodwin, Whidden and Phipps. A motion to refer the matter back to the committee was defeated 6 to 11. Alderman McAuslan, Young, Hickey, Cook, Goodwin and Hollis voting in the affirmative and the Finance report was then accepted.

Adjourned at 11. 20.

EDITORIAL

The failure of the aldermen to grant the strong demand of the firemen for the establishment of the two platoon system, means that this question will once more appear on the ballot for a referendum to the voters of the city. The editor is in a peculiar position on this question, as he has for some years believed strongly in the justice of the measure, but has always believed it was a question to be determined by the city government and not a matter for referendum. With the aldermen declining to take action in the face of the adverse vote of last year, there is nothing else remaining but another referendum to the people. It is also a matter of regret that the measure should be agitated again at the same time as the tremendous increase in the tax rate, and while we do not believe it will cost anywhere near the figures stated by the Chief of Department, there is no doubt but what it will add from $25,000 to $30,000 to the expenses of the city if approved by the people. To sum it all up—the measure is an act of justice and fairness to the men, the aldermen are wise in "passing the buck" to the people and it is too bad it comes at this particular time.

Recent events in banking circles in Boston should make all of us stop and carefully consider the banking institutions we are using, their stability, their record for "Safety First" and the standard of their investments.

To supplement this inquiry we are running this week an appeal for saving by the co-operative plan which we trust will be read by every one in the city. The co-operative plan with its system of monthly payments, backed by fines, encourages thrift as no other system will do. With habits of thrift once formed, the accumulation of a substantial bank account is only a matter of time.

It is rather strange to see some members of the city government in favor of granting the one day off in eight to the policemen and against the two platoon system for the firemen. Both measures are fair and right and the sooner we get the protectors of lives and property in this city on the same basis of pay and hours of work the sooner we will have a contented and more efficient force of firemen and policemen.

The increase of nearly 200 pupils in our schools this fall only increases the present problem of how to properly house them. As we have remarked before steps should be taken at once towards increasing our school accommodations, for it will take fully a year to build the kind of school house we should erect and we need at least two new buildings right now.

FOUNTAIN REMOVAL

Newton Highlands Residents Heard by Aldermen

At the hearing on removal of the fountain, corner Walnut and Forest streets, Newton Highlands, before the aldermen Monday night there was an interesting discussion.

Mr. Edwin S. Drowne, President of the Newton Highlands Improvement Association, spoke in favor of having the fountain removed—stating that this matter had been taken up by the Association for a number of years, and the sentiment has been in every case that the fountain is of no further use and is not ornamental and should be removed. Personally he thought that there was no beauty to the fountain and it was often covered with mud and leaves.

Mr. Metcalf W. Melcher also spoke in favor of the removal of the fountain, stating that he was present at the meeting referred to and the vote was unmistakable.

Dr. F. E. Withee spoke in opposition to the removal of the fountain, and said that he believed that the Improvement Association is a very fine organization, but none of these men had anything to do with putting this fountain in, most of them having moved to the Highlands since that time. He said that Mr. Tarbell had the cast made for the fountain and at that time it was considered very beautiful. He spoke of the new fountain recently put in at the corner of Valentine and Chestnut streets, West Newton, which the Water Commissioner said was a beautiful thing—but he believed that styles changed in these things as in everything.

He presented a petition in opposition to the removal of the fountain signed by everyone within 500 feet of the fountain.

He said that he had lived there 23 years and had not seen an accident but he believed it rather an isle of safety—but said that side of the fountain there is a pole which was very dangerous where there would be a serious accident some time.

Replying to Alderman Clement, Dr. Withee said that it was a fact that children do play at the base of this fountain with their boats.

S. Arthur Thompson of Walnut street said that his residence was within 50 feet of the fountain, and he objected to the removal. He said that there had never been an accident there, and he thought of it as an oasis of safety for people in crossing from one side of Walnut street to the other at the Episcopal Church. He said that the children do play there but are harmless. As far as the mud and leaves are concerned, he doubted whether the statement was made after careful observation, as there is very little mud at the bottom of the fountain. He spoke of the petition presented by Dr. Withee, showing that most of the people in the vicinity were opposed to this removal. He believed that the meeting at which the vote was taken was a farce.

Replying to Alderman Clement, Mr. Thompson said that he was Secretary of the Newton Highlands Association at the time the vote was taken and read the communication which was sent by him to the city officials, but said that he sent it and wrote it simply as a vote of the Executive Committee.

Mrs. Thompson also spoke in favor of retaining the fountain, believing that it is ornamental and it is very pleasing to them to sit upon their porch and listen to the spray—and this was one of the reasons why they bought their house.

Mr. Chan W. Hawkes, Saxon road, said that he lived some distance from the fountain, but wished to say that he did not believe that the meeting of the Association was a farce by any means, as there were several other things considered at that time and there were between 100 to 150 people present. He believed that people who live anywhere in Newton Highlands should be interested in all of the interests in that community, and he believed that in view of the vote of the Association that the fountain should come down.

Donald D. McKay said that he had only moved to Newton Highlands 5 years ago and lived a considerable distance from the fountain, but he said that when the fountain is spraying there is mud in the street and when not spraying, it is not pretty. He agreed with Mr. Drowne and Mr. Hawkes as to the seriousness of the meeting at which the vote was taken.

J. Weston Allen said that he had no intention of speaking at this hearing, because personally he lives at some distance from the fountain, although he was born and brought up almost a stone's throw from the fountain. He said that before the fountain was put in, it was a dirty square, and when the fountain was built it was a great improvement, and also it was safer because it divided traffic, and he believed that the need in that respect is greater now on account of automobiles. He believed that the objection was because it had not been kept up.

CHEAPER - BETTER MOTORING

This subject has a human appeal. Where and how can I find it is the motorist's query.

Ten years of motor and battery experience has enabled A. F. Carver & Co. of 871 Washington St., Newtonville to give you substantial assistance in the economical operation of your car. Excellent suggestions are made in their little circular entitled "To Make Motoring Better and Cheaper." They will send this to you gratis.

The starting battery is a very vital part of your car. This you do not realize until it is forced on you by its failure to start your motor off with a snap. In winter this is especially trying.

For security the average battery should be inspected every two weeks. This will be done for you, without charge, regardless of make of battery by A. F. Carver & Co.

You are urged to be present when this is done for should it be necessary to open up your battery you will be able to see its condition and personally understand the need of any repairs which they recommend.

If the condition of your battery will not permit of repairs, which you can judge, a new battery must be installed.

A. F. Carver & Co. strongly recommend the "Electrolyte" battery. This is a battery without separators which are responsible for 95% of all battery troubles. It is a battery with the distress parts left out and it will turn your motor over with a whizz when no other battery will move it.

The "Electrolyte" battery carries a positive free replacement or repair guarantee of eighteen months. No other battery is so guaranteed.

Carver's service car will call at your home, if you so desire, get your battery and install a temporary one without inconvenience to you. Telephone, Newton North 969.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Fall work of the Girl Scouts is beginning, and within the next few weeks all the Troop meetings will be in full swing. Troop 3 was the first Troop to start. On Friday the 24th, nine of the Newton Centre Senior Scouts with their Captain, Miss Priscilla Ordway, started out for a happy week-end. They were the fortunate possessors for two whole days of a camp and a tiny island all their own on Lake Nagog. Two days is not very long, but it is long enough for everyone to try her hand at cooking, long enough for a hike, a wonderful swim, an al-fresco dinner, long enough for moonlight sings on the water and nights spent under the trees, long enough to earn the boatswain merit badge, and one scout even found time to injure her ankle. Of course a first-aid kit traveled with the party and the girls were grateful for their knowledge of first aid which they put to practical use, and everyone of them lived up to the law of usefulness while the little invalid herself lived up to the law of cheerfulness. It was a wonderful two days and will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to go.

Troop 5, the West Newton Troop, held its first meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 28th. Forty scouts, 5 candidates, and 3 officers were present. After the regular opening a business meeting was held, and Scout Alice Phelps was elected Troop Secretary. The Troop voted to give $50 of the money made at the Minstrel Show last Spring to the Camp Fund. The election of non-commissioned officers followed, each patrol electing its own Patrol Leader and Corporal. The Patrol Leaders elected for this year are Scouts Dorothy Bates, Theodora Albrecht, Katherine Rice, Celia Rogers, Darthe Bryant, and Katherine Bolster. Corporals, Barbara Chalmers, Minola Moulton, Katherine Woods, Ethel Laughlin, Eleanor Macomber and Margaret Blunt. At the close of the meeting the dolls which some of the Scouts have been dressing during the summer were on exhibition. These dolls are going to the Belgian Congo next month with a Missionary, and 13 little girls who have never seen a doll will be happy little mothers. These Dolls can be seen at the Troop meeting next Tuesday.

Don't worry over trifles. If you must worry, pick out something worth while, then get busy.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Once again the Club Editor extends greeting to the clubs and the club women of the Newtons and cordially solicits their co-operation for another season—the sixteenth of this department. Items for the column should be mailed to the Editor, Miss Grace M. Burt, 94 Charlesbank road, Newton, to be received Wednesday afternoon of the week of publication, or by special arrangement may be telephoned that evening. The telephone number has been changed and is now Newton North 1370-M. To be helpful to the clubs is the Club Editor's motto and to succeed implies a willingness on the part of the clubs to do their share toward sending in accurate information while it is yet "news." Accounts of meetings which have passed should contain something further than a repetition of the advance notice. Changes of policy, gifts to or participation in philanthropic work, are especially desired. These show that the club is alive to the needs of the hour and are much more valuable information than reports of speeches although a striking sentence or two of what a speaker has said is more interesting reading than merely the fact that the club met and so-and-so was the speaker of the day. With these points in mind the club correspondents will find their tasks simple and the results will amply repay them for their pains. The Club Editor is always glad to talk with any of the correspondents about anything relating to their work which may be helpful to them.

This year of nineteen hundred and twenty will go down in history as a notable one,—the one in which the women of the United States were enfranchised. Now that suffrage is an accomplished fact it remains for the women to show that they are worthy of the responsibility which has been placed upon them. That they will show themselves so and will use the newly acquired power conscientiously has always been the conviction of the Club Editor. Now that the question is settled it is well to remember several things: First and foremost, the debt women owe to the pioneers, to Susan B. Anthony, to Lucy Stone, to Mary A. Livermore, to Julia Ward Howe; to realize how the opportunities were gradually opened to women and the part that other women, all down the years, have played in making possible the things which women of to-day enjoy; then another thing, it must be remembered that as an issue suffrage is dead; that the terms, "suffragist" and "anti" are now obsolete. Now is the time to put aside former differences of opinion and buckle on the harness and pull together for the common good, not of women, merely, but of the country and of the world as a whole. The results so far are surely bearing out the highest hopes of those who have been actively striving for this freedom.

Remember that October 13 is the last day for registering.

lands will hold its first meeting of the season Tuesday, Oct. 5th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Congregational Church. The subject for the afternoon is "The Tide Over League and School of Applied Art," and Miss Mary Irving Husted, of New York, who founded the Tide Over League in Boston is to be the speaker.

The lecture will be followed by a social hour and tea.

In the 1920-1921 Year Books of the Auburndale Woman's Club which were recently distributed by the faithful Junior members, a well-balanced and attractive program promises a season well worth while. For the first meeting a Chrysanthemum Tea is scheduled. The program committee tell us that "pleasure not profit, will be the main object of this meeting, and special arrangements are being made by the visiting committee for a getting-acquainted, leisurely, sit-down tea." There is to be an unhurried reception to new members, and opportunity for old friends to get in touch after the long summer. "To promote united thought and action for service in the community" according to our motto, we should welcome every opportunity for knowing each other better. Throughout the afternoon there will be music by the Salandri Trio, and reports of the Biennial will give us first-hand impressions of the sessions at Des Moines.

This meeting will be held in the Methodist Church on Wednesday, October 13. Note the change of day.

On Monday of this week the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. opened its season at the home of the president, Mrs. S. D. Whittemore of Lincoln street. Current events and current fiction were discussed as well as matters of business. There was the usual social hour with refreshments. The next meeting occurs on Oct. 11.

The Newton Ladies' Home Circle will hold their first fall meeting on Thursday, October 7th in G. A. R. hall, Newtonville. The President, Mrs. Brown wishes to greet all the members.

New England Conference

How many club women could tell off-hand what the New England Conference is? How many have known that this body has been in existence some ten or more years or that any club woman was welcome to attend the sessions? It is safe to assume that all or at least most of the questions would receive a reply in the negative. The Conference was organized through the suggestion of Miss George A. Bacon during her administration of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. Primarily, it was merely a conference of the officers and of the chairmen of the departments of the State Federations which had problems in common with a view to working more effectively through unified action, than if each acted alone. Annual meetings have been held in the various states since that time. The 1920 session was held in conjunction with the Annual Field Meeting of the New Hampshire State Federation at the Profile House last week.

The joint convention was attended by some two hundred club women with representatives from each of the New England States, though, of course, the majority came from the hostess state, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, the newly elected president of the General Federation, was the guest of honor and made an inspiring address on the first evening, in which under the title, "Our America," she summed up some of the achievements, as well as some of the plans of the larger organization. The keynote of her address was, perhaps, the significant statement, "If we had lived on Americanism, we wouldn't need to be teaching Americanization to-day."

Former Governor Bass of New Hampshire, in an address on "Woman's Part in the Government," gave helpful suggestions as to matters where woman's help will be of great value—in the field of education, in the care of the health, in public institutions, supervision of women and children in industry, through the juvenile courts and the general sanitary oversight of the community. Above all don't allow issues to be made the plaything or the football of the parties; get the political parties to adopt platforms that mean something. The clubs, he thought, may be made the agencies for non-partisan discussion of public questions. He gave sound advice on the matter of voting and begged his audience to remember that the vote is a sacred trust to be used for the common good.

Lady Anne Azagpian, an Armenian, who had nursed in the Great War, gave a stirring, eloquent and heart-rending address on "Armenia," in which she interwove the story of Armenia and an account of her own sufferings in her plea for her beloved country.

CITY'S GLORY LONG DEPARTED

Petra, Once Great Trade Center, is Now Place Utterly Without Human Inhabitants.

In A. D. 106 one of Trajan's generals conquered Petra, the ancient city of the Nabataeans in Arabia, and created the Roman province of Arabia Petraea, but the city continued to flourish as a trade center under the strong peace of Rome, writes Lowell Thomas in Asia magazine. In those days Petra was the focusing point on the caravan routes from the interior of Arabia, Persia and India to Egypt, Palestine and Syria. It was a great safe deposit of fabulous wealth, fortified by towering cliffs. When Roman power waned, the Romanized Nabataeans were unable to withstand the desert hordes. The caravan trade was diverted through other channels and Petra declined in importance.

A little more than a century ago, John Lewis Burckhardt, a Swiss traveler, who had heard rumors of a great city of rock lying far out on the fringe of the Arabian desert, penetrated the gorge and found once more this wonderful old city of Petra, which had not been mentioned in any literary record since A. D. 536.

In the century or more since Burckhardt wrote of his discovery of the rock city in a letter from Cairo, only a few explorers and archeologists from the west have visited Petra. The journey is so long and arduous and the danger of violence from Bedouin nomads so great that not many have had the time or zeal to attempt it. The Lion and the Lizard kept the court where Jamsheed gloried and drank deep until Thomas Lawrence brought his fighting Bedouins into this city of tombs and empty palaces.

CHILD WHO CAUSED A WAR

British Girl Only Six Years of Age Was the Innocent Center of Trouble in Assam.

The discovery that Mary Winchester, who when only six years of age was the cause of the Lushais war, is still alive, has aroused the greatest interest.

She was abducted by the natives of northern Assam, and when the fighting was over it was found that the chiefs of the Lushais had almost defeated her, and they pleaded with the British officers to be allowed to keep her to become the head of the tribe. Mary's father was a native of Elgin, and belonged to one of the leading county families in Morayshire. When the story of the Lushai outrage reached Elgin it caused great consternation, and the M. P. for Moray and Nairn raised the matter in the house of commons and took it further—even to Queen Victoria herself. So it came about that the punitive force was sent against the Lushais. On receipt of the news that Mary Winchester had been rescued and was alive and well, Elgin gave itself up to a riot of rejoicing, and later still, on her arrival at her grandparents' home, the whole town made holiday to welcome her.

Prior to traveling north Mary had the honor of being received by Queen Victoria. The little maid, despite the fact that she had changed her native dress for European attire, was then and for some considerable time afterward of a dark almond color whenever her skin had been exposed to the tropical sun of Assam.

Constituents of Manna.

The belief that it has discovered one of the constituents of the manna of the Bible is agitating the United States federal bureau of chemistry. It has found and secured several pounds of melezitose, a form of sugar extremely valuable in scientific experimentation, and hardly more plentiful than radium. Melezitose is the original honey dew. It gets its name from the French word melez, which means larch tree. It seems that bees and peculiar summer weather in central Pennsylvania recently conspired to lay up a lot of this unusual saccharine substance in numerous hives, where it crystallized and dealt death and destruction to many bees when they tried to live on it. It was found to have been too rich for their digestion and that they literally starved to death.

Man Leads in Endurance. Man is a truly wonderful animal. Although the majority of the human race ruin their strength and constitutions by unwise eating and drinking, by lack of fresh air, and by unnecessary exposure to all sorts of infection, yet, even so, man can more than hold his own with the brute creation. Not, of course, in muscular strength. A tiger with one paw or his paw can reduce a human skull to pulp; a hare can run two yards to a man's one. It is in endurance that man beats the lower races. For a short distance a racehorse can gallop nearly 35 miles an hour, but in a 500-mile race a trained man will easily beat any horse that ever lived.

Remarkable Animal. One of the strangest animals known is the platypus, a creature inhabiting the river banks of Australia and Tasmania. It resembles both an animal and a bird in that its body and tail are like those of a beaver, while its web feet and bill remind one of a duck. It has teeth for chewing its food, but it has no external ear, although its hearing is acute. It lays eggs like a turtle, but suckles its young. A specimen of the animal has been placed on exhibition in the National museum, Washington.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

Technical Books

Recent additions of new books include a good number of useful technical volumes, among them more of the series of Pitman's common commodities and industries. "Aluminum: its manufacture, manipulation and marketing," by George Mortimer, gives an analysis of the processes through which aluminum passes in its metamorphosis from "common field mud" to the light, silvery metal familiar to the reader. There are chapters included on working with aluminum for such as desire general working knowledge of the metal.

RFA-M84

Another in this series is Benjamin White's "Silver, its intimate association with the daily life of man." Possibly there is no commodity the career of which possesses so romantic an interest as that of silver. The book describes its creation, its derivation from the earth, its cleansing from impurities, and its manipulation into articles of utility and beauty. In order to present a general idea of the processes by which crude ore from a mine (the plant of which is equipped with the most modern appliances produced by science) is unloaded of its silver contents, Mr. M. F. Fairlie, manager of the works of the Cobalt Reduction Co., Ltd., in Ontario, has supplied the interesting details. There are charts showing the world's silver production from 1493 to 1918, also the world production for 1916 by countries.

RFS-W58

In the same series is William Gamble's book "Photography," written in a popular manner to give an outline of photography operations for readers who wish to acquire knowledge of a subject simply for the sake of knowing in a general way "How it's done." Detailed technicalities are left out, making the book interesting as well as useful. Some of the chapter headings are: Discovery of photography; The camera and lens; Development; Printing processes; Enlarging, copying, and lantern-slide making; Colour processes; scientific applications of photography; cinema-photography; Industrial applications of photography; Photography in warfare.

WR-G14

"Acids, alkalies and salts," by G. H. J. Adlam, another of this Pitman series, puts emphasis on the commercial and domestic importance of the substances dealt with. There are chapters on sulphuric acid and sulphates, nitric acid and nitrates, the halogen acids, carbonic acid and carbonates, phosphoric, boric and silicic acids, organic acids, mild alkalies, caustic alkalies, electrolytic methods.

RZC-A23

C. W. W. Tisdale writes one of these short manuals on "Butter and Cheese." It is a description of the production of butter and cheese in modern practice. This text is devoted to the fundamentals of the bricklaying trade. Its purpose is to present such information as will help to make a bricklayer an intelligent mechanic and a good citizen, as well as to furnish him with an outline of the subjects essential for skill in his trade. A book serviceable not only to the boys learning the trade but to others who have not yet entered a trade and wish to know something about it. At the end of the book is a glossary of the technical terms used in dairying on up-to-date lines.

RNE-T52

In connection with these books of useful arts might be mentioned a practical book on bricklaying by S. Grimshaw entitled, "Bricklaying in modern practice." This text is devoted to the fundamentals of the bricklaying trade. Its purpose is to present such information as will help to make a bricklayer an intelligent mechanic and a good citizen, as well as to furnish him with an outline of the subjects essential for skill in his trade.

GRATEFUL PATIENTS HELP HOSPITAL

The "G. P.s," as grateful patients of the Newton Hospital are called, are to have the opportunity to give material evidence of their gratitude, as the Newton Hospital Aid Association is to devote one section of the October All-Newton rummage sale, for the benefit of the hospital, to articles contributed by those who have been patients there.

As the hospital in the years of its existence has treated many hundreds, it is hoped that the "G. P." section of the sale will be one of the best.

Plans for the rummage sale are being completed rapidly and at a recent meeting of the committee in charge it was decided to hold a tea for the benefit of the sale on Wednesday, Oct. 17. The tea, under the direction of Mrs. George W. St. Amant of Auburndale, is to be expressly for the workers and the members and directors of the Hospital Aid Association, and to cover expenses there will be a nominal charge. Any information in regard to the sale may be had by writing to Mrs. J. N. Lovell, 257 Otis street, West Newton, or by telephoning to her at Newton West 520.

WHEN LAWS WERE CRUEL

Barbarous Death or Life Imprisonment the Portion of Thinkers in the Sixteenth Century.

They had a rough and ready way of dealing with spiritualists in the sixteenth century. An act was passed on the statute book in the reign of Queen Mary which made it a capital offense for many persons "to propose to hold communications with the dead," and later the penalty for such an offense was made burning at the stake.

In 1520 a man named Edward Barber, who lived at Ongar in Essex, was ordered by a local magistrate to be put in the stocks for three days, and subsequently to stand for trial for pretending that he had received messages from a dead person, and "for telling divers persons that he had done so."

This luckless spiritualist, however, was never sent for trial, as on the last night of his confinement in the stocks he was burned to death by some of the villagers.

In the reign of Queen Anne a man named Prothero was sentenced to imprisonment for life for writing a pamphlet proving that communication with the dead was possible; and even so late as the reign of George I there are records of severe punishments being inflicted on people who professed that they had received messages from the dead.

In the reign of James I a Dutch merchant named Kolep, living in London, was sent to the Tower for alleging that during a bad illness he had actually died and that his soul had passed for two hours in the world beyond, when it returned to his body.

Kolep was deprived of his property and was sentenced to imprisonment for life. He escaped from prison, however, and managed to make his way back to his native country, where he afterwards published a book giving the experiences of his visit to the world beyond the grave.—Stray Stories.

RULED BY TREATY POWERS

Shanghai Only Great City in the World That Is Under That Form of Control.

Shanghai is an international city—the only international city in the world. It is controlled and governed by the treaty powers, which include all the principal powers that have established treaty relations with China, except France, which has its own territory or concession adjoining the international settlement. In such a community unique solutions have to be found for unique problems, and no problem has been more difficult than that of the administration of justice.

For the foreign resident it is a simple matter, writes Nathaniel Peffer in Asia magazine. He is subject only to the laws of his own country, because of the privilege of extra-territoriality which China conceded to foreign powers some 70 years ago, when she was forced to concede so much else, including parts of her territory. Thus, for the American, there is an American district attorney to administer American law, just as in New York, Chicago, San Francisco or Joplin. As for the British, Russian, Japanese or Italian, even if no special court has been established for him, there is at least a consular court. The result is, of course, that your neighbor can do things with impunity that would net you $25 and costs, or vice versa.

"Satan Finds Some Mischief Still!"

The mischief of water is not that it does not run, but that, not running, it corrupts, and, corrupting, breeds poisonous miasma, so that they who live in the neighborhood inhale disease at every breath. The mischief of indolence is not that it neglects the use of powers and the improvement of the opportunities of life, but that it breeds morbid conditions in every part of the soul. An indolent man is like an unoccupied dwelling. Scoundrels sometimes burrow in it. Thieves and evil characters make it their haunt; or, if they do not, it is full of vermin. A house that is used does not breed moths half so fast as a house that, having the beginnings of them, stands empty. Woe be to them, who take an old house, and carry their goods into it! A lazy man is an old house full of moths in every part.

Origin of "Dutch."

The word "Dutch" is derived from the German "deutsch," meaning German and the original meaning in English was German, Teutonic, except in local, careless or slang usage. The German language is classified into high and low German, the low being spoken by the people of the Netherlands, formerly designated as the low Dutch language. Gradually the usage has changed until in modern times it has reference only to the inhabitants of the Netherlands, their language, etc. Thus Dutch furniture signifies a style developed in Holland in the seventeenth century.

Wonders of a New York Church.

Saves One Half Your Time In Cooking

The Gold Medal Glenwood doubles cooking capacity, and promotes cooking efficiency to the highest degree.

There are two separate ovens—one for coal and one for gas. Both ovens may be used at one time—or either may be used singly. In addition to the two baking ovens, there is a gas broiler oven. There is room on the coal and gas sections, at the top, for NINE large utensils.

While bread is being baked in the coal oven, pastry may be baked in the gas oven, meat may be broiled in the broiling oven, and cereals and vegetables may be cooked on the top.

Where did you ever hear of greater capacity?

The Gold Medal Glenwood is efficient every day in the year. In the Winter, the coal section not only looks after the cooking, but it helps warm the kitchen. In the Summer, the gas section takes care of the cooking and keeps the kitchen cool.

from his list each week, to supplement the reading from his own library. He also says, "Bring me any of the good magazines, Century, Harper's, Scribner's or the Atlantic, but don't bring me, I know the editor," and he is overheard to exclaim: "O! —" not that he lacked the money, but because he did not have the "chang," as Tim records on his memorandum pad.

A guest sitting on the veranda of one firm house, noticing the truck, with its books and magazines being delivered and returned, called me back for an explanation. "See here, do you bring books and then later take them away?" When the idea was explained to him he remarked: "Well, it's news to me. What next? I never heard of such a library. They don't do that where my farm is."

A physician, not practising for a number of years, reported the benefit derived from the up-to-date medical books in the library's collection, and his return to the profession.

At another house the farmer's children are taught in vacation time by the mother, who utilizes the help offered by the library. Here, also a student from "Boston Tech," returning to the farm for his vacation days, finds "the library's technical books a great help."

One appreciative reader pleaded that the third volume of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic" be left another week. "My, but that's a great book, and a great treat after havin' all day."

The farmers are not the only ones who appreciate this service. The more prosperous on the large estates are quite as isolated and the library finds the servants most appreciative readers.

Mr. Sheridan is also the possessor of the Croix de Guerre and six citations.

A Thousand Million Service Demands

Every year the people of New England ask us over a billion times to serve them.

The service may be the daily handling of 3,000,000 local calls, installing or moving a telephone, repairing a telephone line, making out half a million subscribers' bills or setting up a telephone circuit hundreds of miles long.

Our business is one of infinite detail. There is no other like it. The opportunities to render you service are almost numberless.

For nearly forty years we have been engaged in this business of serving you. During this time there have been great improvements in the science of telephony, our army of employees has increased from a few hundred to over 15,000 and our subscribers have passed well beyond the half million mark.

While we have been developing our business, telephone users have been learning that the human element is a vital factor and that co-operation helps us to maintain good service.

We want you to know that we appreciate your helpfulness and goodwill.

SPLENDID WORK DONE

By Newton Hospital Social Service League
During Last Two Years.

The first meeting of the season of the Newton Hospital Social Service League took place at the New Church on Monday afternoon.

Miss Miller, the social worker of the League, gave a very illuminating account of the splendid work that has been done by the League in connection with the Newton Hospital during the past two years.

She paid a beautiful tribute to the Newton Hospital and its spirit towards its patients, saying that in the two and a half years in which she has been connected with the hospital she had heard only one complaint and that was when, owing to war conditions, there was a shortage of nurses.

That there is a great and growing need of social work in this country is proved by the fact that there are today 10,000 social workers in the United States. The social work of the League is seven years old.

Miss Miller gave as a definition of a social worker one who assisted the physician to complete his diagnosis and treatment. She went on to show how the social worker acts as an interpreter, to the individual of the work of the doctors and nurses, and to the doctors and nurses of the individual and his problems.

During the last two years she said 421 families had been helped through the League and 549 individuals. Also 1600 visits and over 1,000 interviews had been held.

Among the needs which are immediately pressing she stated a convalescent ward, a ward for children, a place for chronic cases, and a nutrition clinic.

Following Miss Miller, Miss Bragg spoke on "Health Work in the Schools." She told of a French woman who had been sent to America to study what America was doing through the public schools to build up and maintain the health of her children. This woman told how she had gone from Boston to San Francisco and from North to South, but had

BOY SCOUTS

Open the Season with New Executive Secretary

Scouting has won. For the last ten years the Boy Scout Movement of America has been in the trial stage. The American Public, that great and impersonal judge of a movement has decided in its favor. The Great War gave the opportunity and the Scouts of America accepted the privilege of service, and with unstinted sacrifice proved to America, and to the world, that boyhood had just as much to offer the nation as could be offered upon a nation's altar by men and women. For this reason alone, and there are many others, the Movement of the Boy Scouts of America has become recognized, and has been acknowledged to be one of the leading agencies, if not the leading agency for the upbuilding of Character, and for the Training of Citizenship. "Be Prepared" and "Do a Good Turn Daily" are the keynotes of the movement.

The Boy Scouts of Newton, Needham, and Wellesley, are on the jump. Great enthusiasm is being shown as the Troops begin their Fall and Winter work and study. It is no easy task to be a Scout. Only those boys who are anxious to be of service to their country, and are willing to Make

OPEN MEETING

Of Woman's Association of Central Church, Newtonville

The Woman's Association of Central Church held its opening meeting at the church on Wednesday. A sale of aprons, fruit, vegetables, etc., preceded the attractive luncheon.

After the luncheon, the president, Miss Abbie Miller, called for the reports of the secretary and treasurer. Following the business meeting, she introduced the first speaker, Miss Louise Sherman, who has recently returned from the Near East Expedition.

She touched upon the difficulties of landing at Bayreuth owing to the lack of proper landing facilities, and went on to tell of the varied character of the work of the committee of the Near East. This work included hospitals, orphanages, and industrial plants according to the needs of the different localities.

One orphanage established by the Turks contained 667 children whose parents they had killed, and whom they were seeking to convert into Moslems. On Oct. 3rd the Turks were driven out of this orphanage by the English.

Miss Sherman's special work was the charge of orphanages in and near Tripoli. Among the difficulties which she had to meet was the antagonism

Observed by Claflin Guard Veteran Association with Banquet at Brae Burn Club.

The annual meetings of the Claflin Guard Veteran Association are always interesting, but the one held Wednesday evening at the Brae Burn Club set a higher standard than ever before. It was the 25th anniversary of the Association and the 50th anniversary of the organization of the Claflin Guards, and was made a special occasion in consequence.

There was a large attendance and the chief guest was Lieut. Governor Channing H. Cox, with Mayor Childs and Rev. J. Edgar Park, the other speakers. Hon. Henry E. Bothfeld presided both at the dinner and at the business meeting which preceded.

Gov. Cox came late and made only a brief stay on account of other engagements. He paid a few compliments to the veterans present, stating that they were proud of what they used to be and were an inspiration for better things today. This was a period of uncertainty, he declared, people are exploring a new realm.

Programs of business concerns have to be abandoned or radically changed. It is hard to lay down a policy which will not be changed. But with all this uncertainty there is no substitute for the old things like thrift, economy, character and integrity. We should keep our heads cool, our feet on the ground and cling to the old fashioned virtues. He urged the men to glory in their traditions, in their service to the Commonwealth, and to keep that spirit alive.

An interesting feature of the dinner was the presentation of the colors. Mr. Ralph T. Laffle wore the picturesque grey uniform with bear skin hat which was the distinctive badge of the Claflin Guards forty years ago and carried the flag which was presented to the Claflin Guards by the ladies of that time. Mr. John L. Farwell wore the white uniform with red trimmings and carried the Fifth Regiment state flag in use when the Company was commanded by Capt. John A. Kenrick. These tattered and venerable flags were received with full honors as the orchestra played the national hymn.

Mr. Bothfeld made a brief address saying in part that while the Association held many pleasant meetings he doubted if it had done its full duty and that the members should inculcate the spirit of service among the present generation.

A silent tribute was paid to the members of the association who had died, after which Mr. F. G. L. Henderson read the roster of the original Company organized in 1870, captained by Isaac F. Kingsbury, four of the men whose names were read, being present. Major Fred P. Barnes, Robert C. Brigham, Wendell W. Patten and Walter H. Stearns. He also read the roster of the reorganized company of 1881, five of the members being present, William E. Glover, F. L. G. Henderson, Henry E. Bothfeld, John L. Farwell and Martin C. Laffle.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Roger Wolcott School

Several of the girls of the eighth grade cooking class prepared the teachers' luncheon on Wednesday. Instead of a luncheon it turned out to be a several-course dinner, from tomato bisque to demi-tasse coffee. All of the girls took part in the planning, preparation, and serving of the dinner. Elizabeth Parker, Rosemary Wyman, Frances Kahle, Phyllis Cotton, Hilda Piser, and Miriam Lockwood formed the group and were highly praised and keenly thanked by all the teachers. Mr. Hassler Capron, our new playground supervisor, was an invited guest.

The Roger Wolcott first team lost in a plucky fight with the Hyde football eleven. The Hyde team scored six touchdowns and held us without scoring. The Wolcott eleven was admittedly outclassed but was roundly praised for its gameness by spectators throughout the game.

The Class of 1920 challenged the present girls' nine to a series of baseball, the best two out of three being the winners. Games Monday and Wednesday afternoons at the close of school with the result strongly in favor of the 1920 team.

The seventh and eighth grade history classes have made an exceptionally fine collection of Indian curios and pictures for the study of our early American inhabitants. John Meissner has a fine collection of arrow, spear, and arrow heads; Frances Kahle, a set of beautifully colored pictures; Elizabeth Parker, a miniature totem pole; Mary Tilton, a horse-hair woven head band; and Saville Davis, a beautifully beaded wampum belt.

Stearns

Plans for the dancing party to be conducted by the Boys' Club were discussed at the meeting Thursday evening.

The eighth grade plans the first trip of its "Industrial Trip Series" for Friday afternoon. The class will visit the Edison Light Co. at South Boston.

A pupil in the Home Repair course has mended some cooking utensils in the cook room, thereby saving the expense of new and somewhat costly dishes.

Joseph Doucette finished the reseating of a dining-room chair this week, while at the same time he supervised the caning of several others.

Albert Greaves of Grade 7 is engaged in making two folding tables for the use of the primary grade children.

Stearns School

The pupils of Grades VII are very enthusiastic over their speech campaign which is directed by Miss Edgington, teacher of English.

Papers and magazines are being collected to help raise money for the Belgian boy we are supporting. Some pupils prefer to give money.

During the month of September the average attendance at the Nutrition Clinic at Stearns School Center was sixteen. Keen interest is taken by the children in individual reports, weights, and health charts.

On October 5th, the Girls' Club invited the Mothers' Club to its meeting. Mrs. Horace Kidger of Newtonville spoke on politics. Two solos were given by Miss Natali. There was also club singing followed by dancing. Punch and cookies were served.

Cladlin School

The Seventh and Eighth Grade girls have organized two baseball teams, one known as "The Red Bands," the other as "The Blue Bands."

Milk lunches are proving very successful this year. Our milk order for the present week is 270 quarts which is an increase of 20 quarts over last week.

The pupils of Grade Eight are much interested in the making of poems, posters, and stories showing the value of good health, and "Health" work in the schools.

Miss Locke of Grade IV has been absent nearly all of the week because of illness.

A new and very interesting set of books entitled, "The American Educator," has been placed at the disposal of the pupils of Grade VIII for a few weeks.

The lower grades are taking advantage of the pleasant weather by taking frequent walks in the interest of "Nature Study."

Lasell

The Lasell Orchestra is opening its work with great enthusiasm. Some eighteen were present at the weekly meeting on Tuesday night. This band of local musicians is favored by having as their orchestra leader, Mr. Charles E. Griffith, Jr., of the Silver Burdett Company.

A party of infant girls had their first glimpse of the sea at Swampscott on Monday.

STEVENS—GUSTIN

Miss Helen Louise Gustin and Dr. Harold W. Stevens of Playstead road, West Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens of Saco, Me., were married in Grace Church Saturday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. H. Scovell of Park street, Newton. Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. Miss Ann Gustin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Margaret Gustin, another sister, and Mrs. Ernest Linderholm were bridesmaid and maid of honor respectively. Ruth Lewis was flower girl.

Mr. Arthur Wilkinson of Easton, Pa., was the best man and the ushers included Mr. Edwin M. Noyes of Duxbury, Mr. William Capen of New York, Dr. John Taylor of Cambridge and Dr. George Bigelow of Boston.

The bride was in white satin and silver brocade and wore the conventional orange blossoms with her tulle veil.

The maid of honor was in turquoise georgette and brocaded velvet, with hat with velvet crown and silver lace brim and carried ophelia roses. The bridesmaids were in orchid georgette and taffeta, with velvet hats and silver brims and carried ophelia roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride, 231 Park street, the house being beautifully decorated with pink roses and gladiolas.

The bride is of the class of 1914, Radcliffe, and the groom is a graduate of Bates College and of Harvard Medical School.

Dr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside at 89 Playstead road, West Medford.

INFANTRY COMPANY FAVORED

At the invitation of Mayor Childs a score of gentlemen interested in military matters met at City Hall last week Thursday evening to discuss the advisability of forming a militia company in this city. Capt. H. D. Cormerais urged the formation of an infantry company to be a part of the Ninth Regiment, and Col. Osborne and Major Fred P. Barnes favored the formation of a company of engineers.

It was brought out that in case an infantry company was formed it would become a part of the Ninth Regiment and would not be Company C as that Regiment already has a Company C.

Mayor Childs was requested to write the Adjutant General and Col. Foley of the Ninth Regiment in regard to the feasibility of an infantry company in this city.

The English club met for the first time on Friday, October the first. Officers were chosen for the coming year. Helen Booth was elected president; Miriam White, vice-president, and Roger Cummings, secretary and treasurer. The club is under the supervision of Miss Richardson and Mr. Underwood. On Friday the members will journey to Lexington, visiting the John Hancock House and the Monroe Tavern. Miss Batchelor of Lexington will have charge of the party while in the historic town.

Editor-in-Chief Reginald Capon, and Business Manager Osborne are heading the campaign for subscriptions for the Review. The staff seeks to have 900 on the subscription lists, and promises a more interesting publication than ever.

The candidates for offices of the senior class were nominated on Monday, Oct. 4th. The results of the election were published on Wednesday as follows: Frederick Blodgett, President; Ann Bruner, Vice-President; Beatrice Lane, Secretary; Warren Hill, Treasurer.

The Boys' Debating Club has already had its first meeting and preparations for a strenuous season are under way. Mr. Lane, the new English instructor, will supervise the club and coach the members in the art of debating. Mr. Lane was an able speaker while at college and was a member of his college debating team. Debates with Brookline, Everett, and Boston Latin have already been arranged.

Bigelow School

The Upper Grade girls are taking their recesses in the Playground. This does not, however, include the Captain Ball teams. Their games are still played on the school grounds, although it is hoped that a suitable field in the Playground will soon be laid out for their use.

The mid-morning lunch, consisting of milk and crackers, is proving to be very successful. It is, as yet, in the experimental stage, for this is its first week here. Of the total number of pupils enrolled, 43 per cent are taking lunches this week. The proportion of children doing this is very much larger in the lower grades. At the Underwood School, the lunch is very popular. There are 147 pupils enrolled and 108 have been served this week.

It is especially desired that those children who are under weight shall avail themselves of this opportunity. At the present time the lunch is served in the classroom, to avoid confusion; but as soon as possible, it will be served out of doors, when the weather is suitable.

The Bigelow boys started their football season by decisively beating the Alumni 12-0. Their first school game is with the Mason School on the Burr grounds. A warm contest is expected.

NEWTON WELFARE BUREAU

The directors met on Wednesday afternoon and considered several important matters.

Easy street's sunny side isn't paved with good intentions.

GROSS—PALMER

Miss Mary Bradford Palmer, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin S. Palmer, of 294 Chestnut street, West Newton, was married late on Monday afternoon to Mr. Robert Ellsworth Gross, also of West Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haven Gross. Miss Palmer is a graduate of the Winsor School, class of 1918, and Mr. Gross is a Harvard man, class of 1919.

The wedding took place in the Second Congregational Church in West Newton. The officiating minister was Rev. J. Edgar Park. Decorations of white chrysanthemums and lilies, combined with masses of Southern smilax, were used effectively in the church, in honor of the occasion. William Lester Bates presided at the organ.

Miss Palmer was surrounded by a notable group of bridal attendants, including, as maid of honor, Miss Mary Forbes Atkinson of Brookline, and as bridesmaids, Miss Anne R. Bowen and Miss Dorothy Thorndike, both of Boston; Miss Anita Lee, of Jamaica Plain; Miss Mary Proctor, of Chestnut Hill; Miss Elizabeth Bright, of Cambridge; Miss Ruth Nelson, of West Newton, and Miss Valeria A. Knapp, of New York.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white chiffon velvet made with a full court train and trimmed with old rose point lace which long has been treasured as a family heirloom. Her veil of tulle was fastened in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her attendants were gowned alike in lilac satin, trimmed with lace and feathers of the same color and they all wore hats of maline with ostrich feathers in orchid shades. They carried bouquets of orchids and jasmine.

Mr. Courtlandt S. Gross attended his brother, as best man, and the other men in the bridal party, serving as ushers, were Messrs. George Cabot Lee, Jr., Henry K. White, Jr., and Edward L. Bigelow, all of Boston; Henry R. Atkinson and J. Gardiner Coolidge, 2d, both of Brookline; Robert Proctor, of Chestnut Hill; Herbert G. Fales, of West Newton, and Alexander H. Bright of Cambridge, with George C. Barclay and Fifield Workum, both of whom are from New York, making a group of ten.

Following the ceremony was a reception at the church, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Mr. Gross took his bride abroad for a wedding journey and they will spend the next few months in England. On their return they will live in West Newton.

Making Statements and Proving Them*THE E. & R. DYEING AND CLEANSING CO. MAKES CLEAR WHAT IS MEANT BY "BETTER METHODS"

A short time ago someone said to us, "You make statements about better methods, but just what do you mean? Please define your statement."

So we will define "better methods" publicly so that all may read.

First: We dry-cleanse with warm naptha—This is a better method than the old, cold method, because it cleanses more readily and thoroughly, and in less time.

Second: We cleanse, re-tint, and re-dress colored gloves—this is a "better method" because it removes all the dirt and restores the natural oil of the leather and makes the gloves look and fit like new gloves.

Third: We remove all buttons before dry-cleansing; true, it makes us more work, but it is a "better method" than the old way, because we do not crack or break the buttons or destroy their luster.

Fourth: In dyeing many delicate fancy shades on silk or cotton we use Prussian Dyes, which allow us to dye the goods in cold water. This prevents shrinking and also does not destroy the new appearance of the garments, which is a "better method" than the hot dye bath.

Fifth: In dyeing women's suits and coats we prevent saggy linings; we also prevent suits and coats from becoming harsh or hard, which are "better methods" than the old way of returning them with the linings out of place and the material showing the effects of dyeing.

These are only a few of the reasons which permit us to advertise "better methods."

TRULL—PRATT

One of the most attractive weddings of the season took place at the First Unitarian Church, West Newton, on Monday evening when Miss Mabel Stewart Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart Pratt of Highland St., was married to Mr. Clifford Trull, son of Mrs. S. Franksford Trull of Brockton, Mass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, and the music was played by Mr. William Lester Bates.

The groom is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of '18, and during the war served with the 91st Aero Squadron.

The bride wore her sister's wedding gown of white satin trimmed with Princess lace, with a full court train.

Her bridal veil of tulle was caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and sweet peas.

The matron of honor was Miss Davis M. DeBard of Campello, a sister of the bride, and the flower girl was Elizabeth Frances DeBard, her niece, who carried a basket of sweetheart roses, while Davis Stuart DeBard was ring bearer. The matron of honor wore Nile green embroidered crepe de chine and silver lace and carried Ward roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Fairbrother and Miss Dorothy H. Puffer both of West Newton, wore gowns of pale pink satin trimmed with silver lace, and carried Ophelia roses.

The ushers were Mr. Lucius Gale Pratt of Winchester, Mr. A. Stuart Pratt Jr., of West Newton, Mr. Davis M. DeBard of Campello, Mr. A. Scudder Moore of Brockton, Mr. Robert J. Hunter of Medford, and Mr. Walter G. Small of Brockton.

A reception followed at the Pratt residence Mr. and Mrs. Trull being assisted in receiving their friends by Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart Pratt, Mrs. S. Franksford Trull and Miss Bertha P. Trull. The house was beautifully decorated with Southern smilax palms, ferns, crysanthemums and roses.

After a wedding trip to the White Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Trull will live in Brockton.

PEARSON—JAMES

Mr. Arthur Emmons Pearson, son of Mr. William Henry Pearson, was married last Saturday at noon in St. Thomas's Church, New York city to Miss Mildred Eloise James, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. James of New York. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Ernest M. Steres, D. D., rector of St. Thomas's Church, and the organist was Mr. T. Tertius Noble of St. Thomas's Church.

The bride is an accomplished musician and linguist, and the groom is First Vice President of the Valley Forge Historical Society, and interested in the Washington Memorial Chapel. He established the perpetual series of unification addresses the first of which was given last year in the ballroom of the Copley Plaza.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Plaza Hotel, the members of the two families only being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will be at home after November 1st, at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston.

(Farmington, Minn., Tribune)

Trying to get out a newsy paper with nothing happening to tell about is hard luck and nothing else. No storms, no wrecks, no weddings—no nothing that makes news. One young lady who was going to be operated on, promised to linger along until just before we went to press so we could have a "scoop" on her demise—if luck went against her. She hasn't even gone to the hospital yet. We heard of a big robbery and hold-up with all its trimmings, and it proved to be a water haul. Small child hit by auto—it wasn't even scratched. Woman had been thrashed by her husband—he hadn't been home for a week. Cyclone stood with its tongue hanging out for thirty minutes, Sunday, and nothing to tell about that. We had prepared a long article on the drought and along came a refreshing rain and spoiled it all. We can't tell of it, if it doesn't happen.

NEWTON HOSPITAL SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

found nothing that she could carry back. Everywhere she had found doctors and teachers giving health talks, but the children more or less apathetic and doing nothing.

At last she came to Newton, and, to quote her own words, "Here I have found what France sent me to find. Here, I have found teachers caring about the health of their children and children caring about their own health and that of their classmates."

Miss Bragg went on to show how great a change has come over the school recently. Whereas, formerly, the teacher pushed the child her eye on the goal of mental attainments, now, she is realizing the supreme importance of the health of the child, and is learning not to expect the highest attainments from the undernourished and underfed child.

A second remarkable change is the change in the attitude of the child itself. He is becoming interested, often for the first time, in his own welfare and in that of his classmates. Posters, pageants, plays, rhymes, etc., have played their part in this change. When an underfed child is now brought to the attention of the class, the class itself volunteers the information as to how he may be helped.

The introduction of milk into the morning lunch is having a tremendous educational value. All of the children, not alone a favored few, are learning to drink milk. Moreover, they are forming health habits, at an age when habit forming is of supreme importance.

The speaker concluded with the inspiring thought that the ultimate aim of all of this campaign is to make more perfect vessels for the increased spirit and power of the generation which is to come.

Tea and a social hour followed the speaking. The meeting was very well attended. The members of the League are planning an All-Newton Bridge, the proceeds of which are to help them carry on their splendid work.

N. H. S. FOOTBALL

The school team has played one game in its formal schedule winning easily from Needham High last Friday afternoon on Clafin Field by a score of 51 to 0.

Newton scored twice in the first period, the first touchdown coming shortly after Bob Garrity recovered a Needham High fumble on the 35-yard line. It only took a few plays to make the second touchdown.

One of the feature plays was a forward pass, Bob Garrity from the 16-yard line. The latter caught the ball and went over for the fourth touchdown in the second period. In the third period, Newton High did not score, Needham presenting a much stiffer defense.

The locals, however, advanced the ball to the two-yard line at the close of the period and it required only one play in the fourth to tally. Newton High sent many substitutes into the game.

On Tuesday the team went to Franklin and defeated Dean Academy by a score of 21 to 9.

Newton had to travel to make all three touchdowns. Its first came in the opening period, when Bob Garrity shot a forward to Herbert Garrity, which the latter ran back 35 yards for a count.

The second touchdown was the outcome of a fumble by Dean on the 45-yard line in the second period. Blodgett of Newton grabbed the ball in the air and ran it back for a score.

The second-string Dean quarter aided Newton to score its final touchdown. Sent into the game on the fourth down, with eight yards to go, he was instructed to kick, but instead called for a line play and lost the ball. Newton, after getting the leather, tried a forward pass to Herbert Garrity, which was successful. All three goals were kicked.

The game between the second team of Newton High and Country Day School on Saturday was won by the latter, 6 to 0, though both teams were on the point of scoring several times. Coach Dickinson came to the field to match his second string work in a real game. He sent many untried men into the game. The game was not on the schedule as a regular event and will have no bearing on the standing of either team in their leagues.

TATTOO MARKS

Although tattoo marks are generally asserted to be indelible if produced by the insertion of carbonaceous matter, it is said they will disappear if first well rubbed with a salve of pure acetic acid and lard, then with a solution of potash, and finally with hydrochloric acid. It would be advisable to consult a skin specialist.

HIGHLAND GLEE CLUB

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

The Highland Glee Club of Newton held its first meeting of the season, Monday, October 4th, 1920. A large majority of the active members were present and much business of importance was transacted.

A new director, Mr. A. Vincent Bennett, was unanimously elected and will take charge of the Club at its first rehearsal, Oct. 18th. Mr. Bennett is a native of Des Moines, Iowa, but has recently located in Boston. Since returning from service overseas, where he had much experience in conducting male chorus singing, he has become associated with Dr. Archibald Davidson in conducting the Harvard Glee Club.

The Club plans to enlarge its services to the community. In addition to the Christmas carols sung early on Christmas morning in different sections of Newton, plans are being made for concert appearances of the Club in the several sections of the city.

The Club is starting its thirteenth season under unusually favorable conditions, and judging by the degree of enthusiasm expressed at its first meeting, it expects to have, from a musical standpoint, the best season of its career.

WORLD-WIDE PROHIBITION COMING

Come and hear him discuss the subject and tell how AMERICA LEADS THE WAY.

We hope the thousands of new voters in this city and the older voters as well will not let a single issue determine how they shall vote for president. There are too many important issues at stake this year to allow such a theoretical matter as the League of Nations for instance to settle the question. There is the railroad question, affecting the cost of every article carried as freight as well as the traveling public. The treatment of labor and capital is of great importance as it affects every industry, the amount and cost of production in every factory and coal mine in the country and thereby effects every household either and sometimes both in matters of income and outgo. The sugar question also looms large and the continuance of the present Democratic administration may mean, another large increase in the cost of sugar. There is also the matter of reforms in the income tax laws to relieve business men of the tremendous amount of detail in making reports to the national government.

All these questions have a direct bearing on our national life and are far more important than the mere details of Mr. Wilson's League of Nations, or some other kind of a League of Nation. We all are in favor of some League of Nations, but many of us are strongly opposed to the Wilson League of Nations. Why then, in the face of these other more important matters, allow our judgment to be swayed by what is virtually a difference in methods and not of principle.

With over five thousand women already registered as voters, let us urge each one of them to make a study of the method of voting, as well as the various candidates for whom they intend to vote. We shall publish a statement of the method of voting in our issue before the election and trust it will be given careful attention.

We have heard some inquiry in regard to splitting the ticket for president and vice-president, such as Harding and Roosevelt or Cox and Coolidge. This is an impossibility as the voter does not ballot directly for these two officers, but expresses his or her choice for presidential electors and as these electors are pledged to the ticket as a whole, the individual voter has no option except as to the ticket as a whole.

—o—

We trust the voters of this city will not confuse the two Jacksons who are candidates for state treasurer at the coming election. The candidacy of George H. Jackson for this office is clearly intended to confuse the electorate and to obtain votes meant for James Jackson, the former treasurer of the Red Cross. Make no mistake when you mark your ballot and see that you vote for the Jackson who has the word Republican after his name.—James Jackson.

—o—

The state wide referendum on the bill to define intoxicating liquors as 2.75% alcoholic content, is another attempt to deceive the voters. For, whether the state votes Yes or No, it will make no difference in the national law, establishing the standard as $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1%, and the national law supersedes all state laws with which it comes in contact. If any change is desired in this law, it must be done by Congress and not by state action.

between the Kurdish and the Armenian children. Another, was the natural lack of responsibility on the part of the Syrians.

The speaker also spoke of the great difficulty of learning the Arabic language, where the spoken and the written words for common objects are entirely different.

As to the educational problems Christian children in Syria have no opportunity to obtain an education outside of the mission school and orphans. These institutions are accordingly greatly crowded.

Speaking of the political situation Miss Sherman said that the war was by no means over in this part of the world, that the people do not recognize the French claim to the region, and that, in consequence, the whole region is in a very unstable condition, less stable than when the English were in control.

Following Miss Sherman, Mrs. William E. Strong gave a delightfully humorous account of her experiences abroad during the summer in connection with the Geneva Conference which she attended with her husband.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY FORMED

Twenty-seven women, at the request of Commander Weeks of the Newton Post of the American Legion, met Tuesday night in the Legion rooms in West Newton for the purpose of forming an Auxiliary to the Newton Post.

Commander Weeks, who took temporary charge of the meeting, spoke at some length on the purpose of the Auxiliary, and stated that one was of utmost importance to every Post in the country. He urged the women present to take an active interest in the project, and to encourage other women in the city who were eligible to join to enroll at once, and assist in giving the unit a good start.

At the present time, he pointed out only mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of members of the Legion, or similar relatives to any man or woman who died in the service, were admitted to membership. This list may in the future be extended, but for present only these relatives can enroll.

Members of the executive committee of the post were also present and a half dozen members of the post brought with them their mothers and other relatives who were eligible to join. The ladies took a keen interest in the proceedings, despite the lack of enthusiasm of the Legioners themselves.

Mrs. Henry D. Cormerais was elected temporary president, and Miss Evelyn Cunningham, acting secretary. Committees were appointed to obtain members.

—The Annual Children's Party at the Methodist Church on Thursday af-ternoon was an unusually attractive one. The little play, "Mother Goose's Thanksgiving" was well done and at-tractively costumed. The children of the 4th grade of the Williams School took part. Great credit is due to Mrs. Fiske who trained them in their parts. The program also included the "Song of the Rose," by Esther Johnson, dances by Zita Crandell, "The Hay-maker's Song," by eight little children of the 4th grade, and "Yankee Division March," by Florence Doucet. During the march each child received a cap. Refreshments concluded the afternoon.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, the newly elected president of the General Federation, made a fine impression upon the women who attended the recent New Hampshire Federation meeting at the Profile House. Her address showed a broad outlook upon life, deepened by a spiritual insight, all of which is much needed in these critical times. It is, of course, a matter of regret to Massachusetts women that one of their number could not have been elected as leader for this great women's organization, especially as their candidate, Miss Georgia A. Bacon, also possesses many qualities required for the successful management of the Federation. Massachusetts women are, however, good losers and now that the question of leadership is settled, they will show themselves wholly loyal to the administration selected at Des Moines.

The General Federation has reorganized its departments of work so as to include in a somewhat more logical way the newer phases of club work. Instead of the eleven departments, six new ones have been created with the former ones included as sub-committees under them. The divisions are as follows: Department of Fine Arts, including art, literature and music; Applied Education, with education, library extension, thrift, home economics, conservation; American Citizenship, with Americanization, civics and the like; Public Welfare, including child welfare, public health, etc.; Legislation; Press and Publicity.

Remember that opportunity to register closes on October 13. No thoughtful woman will fail to enroll herself, for her opinion as expressed by her vote is as important as it ever was before. A saying of Mary Lyon's near the close of her life may well be pondered upon by women who may feel that it makes little difference whether or not they themselves take the trouble to assume the new responsibilities: "There is nothing in the universe that I fear, but that I shall not know all my duty or shall fail to do it."

Local Announcements

Mrs. Hiram A. Miller of Erie avenue will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. next Monday afternoon. Miss Anna Thompson will be in charge of the program.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands will open its season on October 11 at the home of Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett of Jackson street, Newton Centre. The club is to take a journey to Norway during the winter and the first afternoon will be a "Luncheon on Shipboard, with Steamer Letters," under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Wehrer.

Should old acquaintance be forgot? or new acquaintance neglected? The program committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club says "No," and that there may be time for genuine sociability at the first meeting, the program has been made very short, mainly a report of the Biennial at Des Moines by the club delegate. The business meeting will be called at 2:30 as usual, followed by the Chrysanthemum Tea from 3:15 on. Working with the program committee, the visiting, hospitality, and art committees are planning to make the occasion a "real party," the art committee being responsible for the decorations. Throughout the afternoon there will be good music by the Salandri Trio of Boston. It is hoped that every member of the club will be present at this opening meeting, which will be held in the Methodist Church on Wednesday, October 13. Note the change of day.

The Newton Community Club opens the season with a social meeting on Thursday, Oct. 14, at the Hunnewell Clubhouse. There will be brief reminiscences of the Biennial and of the State Federation annual meeting. Elizabeth Lawton, one of the club members, will give Spanish dances with piano and violin accompaniment. A large part of the time will be given up to sociability and to further this feature the members are requested to wear their visiting cards. Tea will be served by the Social committee.

The club calendar announces many interesting meetings for the coming season, among the speakers may be mentioned Dr. George H. Blakeslee, whose class in current history was so greatly enjoyed last year, Miss Amy M. Sacker, Mr. S. K. Ratcliffe of England, Miss Helen Louise Johnson, an authority upon questions of Home Economics, Dr. Bruno Roselli, Mr. Alfred E. Stearns, headmaster of Phillips Andover Academy and Mr. Philip W. Ayers. Several classes are being organized. That in Citizenship will open on Oct. 22, when Mrs. Claude U. Gilson will be the speaker. This class will continue on successive Fridays. Mrs. Grace M. Poole, first vice-president of the State Federation, has been secured to lead the class in Current Events, which will meet on the first Thursday afternoon of the month beginning in November. No additional fee will be charged for this class. Two other classes, one in Parliamentary Law under the leadership of Mrs. Elector M. Sherman and one in Art under Mrs. Cyrus Dallin, will start early in January. The Class in Conservation of Natural Resources will continue its work and there will be a Bird Class in the Spring. Six lessons in "Clothing Efficiency" are announced by the Home Economics committee to be given in January.

Local Happenings

On Monday evening of this week the Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls opened its year with an informal reception at the home of their president, Mrs. Ernest Cobb. A program of vocal and instrumental music was much enjoyed, the artists being Miss M. F. Moroney of New York, Miss Ruth Marsters of Waltham, cellist and Mrs. Valette Thelen, a club member. Miss Marjorie Sumpter of the Curry School of Expression gave several dialect readings. Refreshments were served by the social committee, Mrs. Herbert S. Rogers, chairman.

The members of the Christian Era Study Club listened with great interest to the account of the Biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs as given at their meeting on Monday afternoon by the president, Miss Ella B. Smith. The papers on Jamestown and Capt. John Smith were also much enjoyed. The club is to present several of Shakespeare's plays during the winter, "Twelfth Night," being the first on the list.

Mrs. Ernest F. Lovejoy of Lenox street, entertained the first meeting of the Newton Mothers' Club at her home on Tuesday. Mrs. J. E. Park, Mrs. E. B. Rice, Mrs. F. A. Ladd together with Mrs. Lovejoy were the hostesses for the day. After a brief business meeting with Mrs. Joseph N. Lovell, the new president in the chair, Mrs. Dallas Lore Sharp gave a most inspiring lecture upon, "The By-Product of Reading Aloud," which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present. The customary social hour with refreshments closed a delightful afternoon.

The Auburndale Review Club met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur C. Farley. Mrs. Nathan Dennett was chairman for the morning and presented a Historical Sketch, in which she outlined the growth of America from Pilgrim times down to 1800. Mrs. Arthur Farley discussed the early prose writings bringing them to 1850, while Mrs. W. J. Spaulding took the poetry considering the various writers to the time of Bryant. Mrs. Arthur Francis Farley contributed three vocal selections, which were much appreciated. The whole made a full and most interesting program.

On Tuesday afternoon at the Congregational Church the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands opened its sea-

MANY ABLE TO HEAR COLORS

According to Investigator, the Gift Is Not Uncommon—Possessed by One Person in Eight.

Color hearing, or chromaesthesia, the constant association of colors with words, letters, musical notes and noises, is inherent, the New Orleans Times-Picayune says, in one of every eight persons.

A few years ago a noted physician told his audience that the day was not far distant when sound would be seen and color heard, and time has confirmed his statement. It seems incredible that a beam of light can produce sound, yet it has been accomplished by throwing a ray of sunlight through lens on a glass vessel containing lampblack, or colored silk or worsted, or any similar substance. A disk having slits or openings cut in it is made to revolve swiftly in the beam of light so as to "cut it up" into alternate flashes of light and shadow. When the ear is placed to the glass vessel the sensitive ear can distinguish strange, faint sounds as long as the flashing beam falls upon the vessel.

A still more extraordinary effect is produced when the beam of sunlight is first made to pass through a prism, so as to produce what is known as the solar spectrum. The disk is turned so that the colored light of the rainbow passes through it and is alternately interrupted and transmitted by it. Now, if the ear be placed to the glass vessel containing the silk or other material, it will be noticed that the colored lights of certain parts of the spectrum will make sounds, and those of other parts will not. For example, if the glass vessel contains red worsted and the green light is flashed upon it, there will be comparatively loud sounds, and when the red and blue parts of the rainbow fall upon the vessel there will be faint sounds; but other colors will produce no sounds at all.

CIVILIZATION PROVES FATAL

South Sea Islanders Are Rapidly Passing Away as Result of White Man's Coming.

There are today but 2,500 persons in the So. Paumotu Islands, separated from each other by about 40 miles of water in the South seas, where 15 years ago there were more than 4,000. If equally distributed there would be but 30 persons to each island, but on more than half of them no person lives. Epidemics have cut the people down in throngs, and it is the belief of Frederick O'Brien, writing in the Century Magazine, that the time is not far off when the last Paumotu will curse the white man for the gifts he may have brought. When Captain Cook made his survey of the Tahiti islands there were 70,000 happy healthy people, and today there survive scarcely 2,000. They were not slain, but perished by diseases concomitant with intercourse with civilized men.

The Tahitians and the Paumotuans understand each other easily, though many words are different. The former lived with Europeans for 100 years, and they soon became the most cultivated race of the South seas, while the Paumotuans remained the coarse, primitive savages that they have for centuries. The Paumotuans are a quiet people, serious and contemplative, while the Tahitians are laughter-loving, light-hearted, frenzied dancers, orators, music worshippers and feasters.

Ghost for Fish Bait.

Slamless fishermen do most of their fishing by means of what is known as a ghost boat. This consists of a long board, painted white, and arranged in position in the water. The top must not be too high above the surface of the water for the fish it is desired to capture to leap over. When in position the ghost resembles very much the white side of a boat or punt. The fish, seeing this white board, become frightened, and in fear they leap over the board. At the back of the board, however, nets are arranged in such a position that those fish that succeed in leaping the board land in the nets and are caught. The amount of fish caught by the employment of ghost boats is very large indeed, and the method has the advantage of preventing the smaller fish from getting into the nets, as they are unable to leap over the board.

Horse's Decorations.

The brass decorations frequently seen on the harness of a work horse are a direct survival of the amulets which bedecked the horses of the time of Julius Caesar and the ancient Egyptians.

TO THIS THE EDITOR WOULD NOT OBJECT

(Ambridge, Pa., News-Herald)

Here comes an Eastern man advocating the licensing of editors, just as lawyers, or doctors, or ministers are licensed. And yet we doubt if he realizes that the average editor will not object to be licensed. He is the best-natured soul on earth and does not kick at any precautionary measure. You can license him, vaccinate him, baptize him, deodorize or disinfect him, and it's all the same. He stands for anything. But licensing editors will not make good editors out of bad ones, any more than licensing lawyers will make them all good lawyers. The Eastern man says:

"At present the profession of journalism is open to anyone who can hire a press and borrow a lead pencil and a paste pot."

He doesn't know, and there are people right around Ambridge who do not know that at this time it requires something more. It requires capital, and brains, and energy, and if the paper does not find a field or make one at once, it perishes from the earth, for there are none so rich at this time they can afford to run a losing newspaper. Anybody may start a newspaper, but it will stop itself in a very short time, if it is not the right kind of paper and unless it caters to the right kind of people. In fact, the length of life of a newspaper depends upon its ability to do good.

An editor, running around with a license in his hip pocket would not always mean an editor with the best interests of his community at heart. And, license or no license, that's the only kind of editor who is going to succeed.

NATIONAL COLONIAL ASSOCIATION

The Massachusetts Branch of the National Colonial Association, Incorporated, which was organized in June, at the Twentieth Century Club House, for the purpose of creating a Tercentenary Memorial Organization dedicated to the Pilgrims who were steadfast to the principles of truth and democracy and to emphasize anew the principles which actuated the men and women who laid the foundation of this free Commonwealth establishing an association with county centers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the promotion of protective, educational and remedial agencies to the end that the posterity of the Pilgrims shall be a greater moral force, held a meeting recently to make plans for the coming season to include regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays from October to May with headquarters at the Twentieth Century Club House. Membership is open to men and women of Massachusetts Colonial ancestry and all who become members preceding the celebration at Plymouth on Dec. 21, 1920, will be enrolled as charter members.

THE DIGNITY OF THE OFFICE

By Richard Hatton

There is a spirit of wholesomeness within the people of the United States which demands that their Chief Executive be a man whom they may look up to as a MAN as well as because of his position as the representative of one hundred million clean-bred Americans. This demand outrides political parties, it is far-flung beyond the flanks of partisan issues, it skirmishes well in advance of voluminous propaganda.

In the hearts of the American people there is a belief that the dignity of the office of President must be upheld, and the people judge of a man's worthiness by his record.

Candidate Cox, gyrating around the country parrotlike repeating his one campaign argument, "I accuse," has passed far from the realm of dignified campaigning. He has so far missed the spirit of the people that each day he is increasing the odds against his election. The American people are not a mob, they are not swayed by ill-considered verbal denunciations uttered in the hope that they will not be challenged. The undignified campaign methods of the Democratic candidate are casting an ever-darkening shadow over the chances of his party in the November election. Dancing in the midst of this shadow with semaphores arms is the man who Boss Murphy, Boss Taggart and Boss Brennan would place at the head of this nation. It is an undignified picture. It is not the presentation of a Presidential candidate which appeals to the American people. It bodes ill for Candidate Cox. The American people care little for acrobatics, either words or of policies when performed by one who aspires to the dignified position of President. The American people are selecting a President, not a vaudeville team composed of an acrobat and a trick donkey.

BIBLE SCHOOL PLATTSBURG

Norumbega District of the Massachusetts Sunday School Association has been fortunate in securing leaders of state-wide and nation-wide reputation in the field of religious education, as speakers and instructors, for the "Bible School Plattsburg," which comes November 10, 11, 12, and 15, 16. Every person who attends will have an opportunity to hear two or three of these speakers each evening, and there will be institute periods each evening. In addition to this, a supper will be served and there will be an assembly period.

Rev. E. Morris Ferguson, now state secretary of the Massachusetts Sunday School Association, will give two courses, "Church School Administration," for pastors, superintendents and officers, and "Class Teaching for boys and girls from 12 to 17," for teachers in the church schools. Dr. Ferguson has been a most successful leader of Sunday school work in the State of New Jersey and elsewhere, and has always been in the forefront of progress in this field. He came to Massachusetts in January, 1920.

Mr. H. C. Mayer, who will teach a course entitled, "Organized Classes and Departments," is a young man who has already held a responsible position as State Young People's Secretary in the Ohio State Sunday School Association. He has recently become Assistant Professor of Religious Education in Boston University.

Miss Alberta Munkres, also of Boston University, will give two courses of interest to Children's Division teachers and superintendents, one on "Expressional Work," and the other on "How to conduct the Primary and Junior Departments of the Church School." Students from all parts of the United States come to Boston University to have the privilege of attending Miss Munkres' courses there.

An entirely new feature this year, of interest to the general public as well as to Sunday School workers, will be two Bible Courses, one on "The Life of Christ," by Prof. Henry K. Rowe, a resident of Newton Centre and professor in the Newton Theological Institution, and another on "Social Backgrounds and teachings of the Old Testament," taught by Dr. Arthur E. Holt, a resident of Newton, and Social Service Secretary of the Congregational Education Society. Dr. Holt will be remembered by many as the interesting speaker who addressed the Norumbega District Convention at Watertown last May.

You Can't Help Liking This Range

The GOLD MEDAL GLENWOOD is in reality a combination range consisting of two complete ranges using different fuels, with neither one interfering in any manner with the other.

Coal supplies the fuel for one, and gas for the other. So far as the use of these two fuels is concerned, it is exactly as though you had a coal range and a gas range. The difference is that they occupy the same floor space instead of being two separate ranges in two different parts of the kitchen.

You may use the coal and the gas at the same time, or either one without the other. You have gas in warm weather and coal in cold weather. But at any time you wish to do more baking or more cooking, you have the advantage of using both fuels and both ovens at the same time.

It responds to your cooking art so quickly and efficiently, you will find that cooking is one of the greatest pleasures in your home.

NO INCREASE IN SUNDAY POST PRICES

The three other Boston Sunday newspapers, the Sunday Globe, the Sunday Herald and the Sunday Advertiser, all publicly announce that their retail price will be advanced everywhere in city and country to ten (10) cents per copy, beginning next Sunday, Oct. 10, 1920.

The Boston Post has no disposition to criticise its esteemed contemporaries for taking this step. But, for itself, it does not feel justified in taking such action at the present time. There will be no change in the retail price of the Boston Sunday Post, which remains at six (6) cents per copy in Boston and vicinity and seven (7) cents per copy in the country.

It is true that there have been very large increases in the cost of producing newspapers. Prices of newspapers have already been advanced considerably to meet these conditions. The Post management does not deem a further advance necessary at the present time.

The Post does not like to contribute to increasing the High Cost of Living to its multitude of readers. It believes that at present the tendency is in the other direction. The recent big reduction in the price of various motor cars, silks, wheat, cottons, woolens, sugar and many other commodities indicates the trend of the times. It is very important for the welfare of people generally to get back to a more moderate basis of prices. If necessary, the Post is prepared to operate at a loss for a while rather than to increase the burdens on the public.

From a circulation point of view a ten-cent price for a Sunday newspaper naturally and almost invariably involves loss of readers. This means that the newspaper's influence is restricted, and that there is a decreased response to advertising in its columns. It is distinctly to the disadvantage of the advertisers to have Sunday newspapers advanced to ten cents per copy. It would be much more to their advantage to pay a little more, if necessary, for increased circulation and increased productiveness of their announcements.

The Boston Sunday Post has always allowed a liberal margin of profit to the newsdealers and newsboys, who distribute it to the public. Beginning next Sunday, Oct. 10, it will somewhat increase this margin, and at the same time it will allow a maximum of five per cent returns of unsold copies, thus dividing in an equitable manner the inevitable loss in the fluctuation of newspaper sales, due to news and weather conditions. The Post appreciates the difficulties which newsdealers and newsboys, as everybody else in business, have had to meet of late. It will treat them as liberally as possible, and in return asks that they maintain in good faith the established price of the Sunday Post. Their increase of sales will afford them more profit than if they should try to secure an undue profit on the sale of fewer copies.

The Post urges its readers not to pay over the established prices of the Daily and Sunday Posts i. e., two cents per copy for the daily edition and six cents per copy for the Sunday edition in Boston and vicinity and seven cents per copy for the Sunday edition in the country—unless in exceptional cases the delivery is unusually difficult and expensive. In cases of unjustifiable overcharges Post readers are requested to notify Mr. E. J. Maguire, Circulation Manager of the Post, who will endeavor to rectify the matter.

THE BOSTON POST.

No Increase in the Prices of the Boston Sunday Post

All Hands Together to Keep Down the High Cost of Living

Rev. J. Edgar Park made a brief address, altogether too short, and filled with wit and wisdom. He spoke on the Irish question, being himself a native of Ireland. He said that we in this country had no idea of the value of freedom and what it means to the people of a small country like Ireland. As far as dollars and cents go, it is far better of Ireland to be controlled by England, but sentiment cannot be capitalized and it is wrong to belittle the desire of the Irish for freedom. On the other hand, Mr. Park was strongly of the opinion that it was wholly outside of practical politics for England to grant Ireland complete freedom and it would be folly for England to set up a place for a hostile force at her very door. Mr. Park also said it was outside the sphere of the United States to butt into the internal affairs of the British empire. The solution, he believed, had been nearly hit by Asquith in his suggestion for a Dominion form of government with the maximum amount of home rule. America should keep its hands off of English policy but endeavor to create a sentiment for the Asquith plan. When we have, he said, a really workable League of Nations it may be possible for England to grant entire independence to Ireland.

Mayor Childs said it was the purpose of anniversaries to rejoice over the past and to take courage for the future. He eulogized the veterans as good citizens, filled with public spirit and patriotism, setting a good example to the youth of the city, whom he declared to be the most important asset we have. He believed that what was needed was conviction, courage and a hopeful outlook.

At the business meeting these officers were elected: President, Martin C. Laffie; Vice President, Walter H. Stearns; Junior Vice President, Wendell W. Patten; Secretary, Fred P. Barnes; Treasurer, F. G. L. Henderson. Those present included active members Hon. Henry E. Bothfeld, Martin C. Laffie, Walter H. Stearns, F. G. L. Henderson, Fred P. Barnes, Wm. E. Glover, R. C. Bridgman, John L. Farwell, Frank O. Locke, Robert W. Daley, Geo. H. Wascott, Clarence A. Wiswall, Wm. Warren, Hiram G. Tucker, Frederick W. Turner, S. Warren Davis, C. F. Barrows, Wendell W. Patten, Richard Cunningham, H. C. Stearns, J. H. McCammon, Herbert M. Warren, Major Ernest R. Springer.

Associate Members: Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Wm. O. Wales, George C. Warren, Ralph T. Laffie, Hon. Thomas Weston, Jr., Col. Wm. N. Dudley, Frederic M. Mitchell, Frank L. Nagle, Capt. Henry W. Crowell, Harry L. Cook, Chester A. Adams, Hon. Walter C. Wardwell, Hubert L. Carter, Thos. E. Stutson, Andreas Hartel, Jr., Francis H. Williams, John C. Brimblecom, Bernard Early, Edwin M. JOHNSON—BRADBURY

Miss Alice Louise Bradbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bradbury, of Parker street, Newton Centre, became the bride, last Saturday, of Mr. Charles Ernest Johnson, son of Charles A. Johnson, of Bradford terrace, Everett. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. M. Noyes of the First Church, Newton Centre, and took place in a bower of palms and hydrangeas. The bride stood beneath a huge white bell. At the conclusion of the ceremony two children, Glenn Keirstead and Lewis S. Williams, cousins of the bride, pulled the white ribbon streamers, showering the bridal couple with confetti. The wedding march was played by Mr. Raymond Hammell of Newton Centre.

The maid of honor, Miss Annie M. Bradbury, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink georgette crepe with French embroidery and carried pink roses.

The best man was Mr. Harry Johnson, brother of the groom.

A reception at the house followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for New York State. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will live in New York City.

30TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John Rollins Stuart, of Newton Centre, celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding by a dinner dance at the Brae Burn Country Club Thursday evening.

About fifty guests sat down to table, Cole's orchestra furnished the music for dances between the courses. The decorations were yellow chrysanthemums.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Seifert Smith, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, Mr. J. R. Stuart, 3d, and Mr. Ralph Stuart. Other guests from Newton Centre were Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Capron, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Hill.

Among those from Newtonville were Mr. and Mrs. George B. H. Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. H. Newton Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert W. Ripley, and from Brookline, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grafton and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Came.

There were many other guests from Chestnut Hill, Allston, and Boston.

Seeing Him Home.

I was coming home from a dance, and I didn't want my escort, whom I had just met that evening, to know where I resided. We were walking down the street and I saw a pretty house. I stopped in front of this house and told my escort that I lived there and was obliged for his attention and kindness in taking me home. A look of bewilderment broke out on his face as he said, "Holy smoke, how do you live there when I live there?"—Exchange.

son under favorable auspices. Mr. Henry W. Ball in a brief talk gave the members instructions in the matter of voting, not as to candidates, but as to the technique.

Miss Mary Irving Husted told in a most entertaining way of the work of the "Tide Over League and the School of Applied Art." The League aims to assist invalids to become in part self-supporting by teaching them to make articles for which there is a demand. The School of Applied Art, which is on Boylston street in Boston, is an outgrowth of the work of the League.

Two students from the West Newton Music School added to the pleasure of the afternoon by their violin and piano duets. Tea was served during the social hour.

POLITICAL NOTES
Mr. Reuben Forknall, a recent candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative has filed a supplementary report of his expenses, which reads as follows: "It has come to my notice that money has been collected and paid out by Henry W. Jarvis. Whether I should, under the law, report as to such money as is in dispute I do not know, but so that there shall be no misunderstanding about it, I do report that I have received no money and no report from Mr. Jarvis of his collections and disbursements, but I understand he has received contributions and pledges, that is from Henry L. Jones $175, with a pledge of $50; from Allen C. Emery $35; from William T. Rich $50 and from Fred S. Retan $15, which last amount was returned to Mr. Retan. Also, I understand that Miss Ridell has been paid $175 for printing, postage, etc."

Residents Oppose Enlargement of a Commonwealth Avenue Garage

Aside from a lively hearing in regard to extension of a public garage in Auburndale the meeting of the aldermen on Monday night was a prosaic affair. President Harriman was in the chair and the absentees were Aldermen Blake, Nichols, Phipps and Whidden.

George S. Haddock asked permission to enlarge his public garage on Commonwealth avenue to hold 40 cars and the entire neighborhood were present to enter a vigorous protest. Mr. Haddock said he had owned the property for 15 years and 7 years ago he had been allowed to build a public garage. He now wants to extend the building to within 15 feet of Woodbine street, covering over the rear of the present structure. He also intended to improve the rest of the property by erecting 5 or 6 stucco houses.

Mr. H. B. Ross for 7 property owners entered a vigorous protest and filed a petition signed by 21 residents against the extension. He said that Mr. Haddock lives in Roxbury and has no direct interest in the neighborhood. The back yard of the present garage is used for burning refuse and is a nuisance.

Mr. Will C. Eddy was very emphatic in his objections, complaining of boiler factory noises as late as 3 A.M. He also said that Mr. Haddock made some specific promises 7 years ago in regard to improving the property which had not been kept. The aldermen erred, he declared, in ever granting the permit in the first place. He also believed that the proposed extension would add very much to the auto traffic in Woodbine street.

Objections were also entered by Mrs.

Anna Moir, Mrs. Annette Howe, Miss Helen Moir, and Mr. Scott Ryder.

Daniel S. Shea and Mr. Sullivan objected to the petition of Cashman Ginsberg to sell gasoline at 204 Elliot street.

There were other hearings on petition E. E. Ferson to sell gasoline at 981 Watertown street, F. D. Kirby for a private garage on Hammond street, F. C. Donahue to keep 1000 gallons fuel oil at 29 Vernon street, for sidewalks on Algonquin road, and sewers in Prospect place and Raeburn terrace.

Mayor Childs sent in requests for more money for the Forestry Dept., Fire Dept., for coal for schools, for election expenses, maintenance of public buildings, power house and care of city hall. He also appointed C. J. Vachon a public weigher and asked for money to pay the city laborers for the remaining holidays of the year.

The City Engineer recommending the widening of a small part of Charlesbank road and the School Committee asked for portable school house at the Davis school.

Petitions of W. A. Swett for an auctioneer license of the Tel. Co. for attachments on Turner street, and of Edward Desmond, Wildwood avenue, Adolph Ogorzki, Grove street and T. W. Dearborn, Wolcott street for private garages were granted. There were other petitions for private garages from S. T. Fogwill, 1473 Washington street and Angus MacDonald, Warren street, for a sewer in Harold terrace, and Virginia road, and communications withdrawing names from petitions for laying out of Royce road.

FATAL ACCIDENT

Woman Killed at Newton Centre in Automobile Collision

Mrs. Mary A. Sargent, aged 67, of 4 Monadnock road, Chestnut Hill, was instantly killed, her son, William M. Sargent, aged 35, was badly injured, and five other persons, three of them women, were severely hurt in an automobile collision Saturday afternoon at Beacon street and Grant avenue, Newton Centre.

The other victims are Frederick E. Prior, 54, also a son of Mrs. Sargent by an earlier marriage, a Boston leather merchant; her daughter, Mrs. Ida M. Packard, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Lowenstein of 15 Kimball road, Lynn, and their daughter, Eleanor, a student at Simmons College.

Mrs. Sargent, with her younger son, and her daughter, had driven to the Newton Centre railroad station to meet Mr. Prior, and were returning home with him when the accident occurred.

The police say that the Sargent machine was ahead of the Lowenstein car and that the former made a sharp turn from Beacon street toward Grant avenue. The Lowenstein machine, proceeding westerly at a good rate of speed, crashed into the Sargent machine as the latter turned out. Both cars were large touring models, and were badly damaged.

When the machines met the impact hurled Mrs. Sargent through the windshield. Her younger son suffered a fracture of the skull and was removed to the hospital. The other occupants of the sedan were cut by the shattered glass. One of Mr. Prior's fingers was amputated and he sustained other injuries.

Mrs. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Lowenstein and their daughter were all cut, bruised and shaken up, but their injuries are regarded as less serious than those of the other victims. Mrs. Sargent, with her sons and daughter, came to Newton recently from the west.

Mr. Lowenstein is head of the turbine department of the Lynn plant of the General Electric Company, with which he has been connected 15 years. He was born in Arizona and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Before coming to Lynn he had been a professor of science at Lehigh University. He is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and is president of the Lynn section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB

The second lecture of the series by Mrs. Lewis J. Johnson of Cambridge, under the auspices of the Community Service Club will be held in the Parish House of the Congregational Church, West Newton, next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The subject will be, "Why Join a Party? The Present Political Party Platform."

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Eliot Church Planning to Observe Its Birthday Next Week

Eliot Church will observe the seventy-fifth anniversary of its organization a week hence. Several committees have been working on the matter for some time and have an attractive program to offer. Friday, Oct. 22, at 7:45 P.M., the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the auditorium with full vested choir. Rev. Wolcott Calkins, D.D., who was pastor of the church from 1880 to 1895 and is the only living former pastor, will preach the sermon. Members will be received at this service. At the close of the Communion, a war memorial will be unveiled. Sunday morning, Oct. 24, the anniversary sermon will be preached by the pastor. The music at this service will be from Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise with Handel's Hallelujah Chorus from the Messiah for the closing number. At noon the Sunday School will celebrate with eight of the former superintendents taking some part, interspersed with special music by the school. A paper will be read on The Earliest Days of Eliot Sunday School, written by Miss Abbie Spear, who is the only person who has been a member of the school continuously, either as a scholar or teacher for the entire seventy-five years. Sunday evening, at 7:30, there will be An Evening With the Sons of Former Pastors. Hon. Arthur H. Wellman, son of Rev. Joshua W. Wellman, D.D., who was pastor from 1856 to 1873, will speak on "Changes." Rev. Raymond Calkins, D.D., son of Dr. Wolcott Calkins, and himself pastor of the First Church in Cambridge, will speak on "The Christian Church in the Modern World." Rev. Robert Davis of New York, son of Rev. William H. Davis, D.D., who was pastor from 1896 to 1905, will speak on "The Church and the World War." Maj. Davis has been connected with the Red Cross during the war and since is and is now returning from an extended tour of Turkey and Russia. It is hoped that he will reach home in time for this meeting but there is some uncertainty. Mr. Georges Marier, Boston Symphony Trumpeter, will assist the choir and among the numbers will be "Unfold Ye Portals" from Gounod's Redemption, with trumpet obligato. Monday eve., Oct. 25 the anniversary dinner will be served in the chapel with after-dinner speaking by Rev. Edward M. Noyes, of the Mother Church in Newton Centre speaking for the old First Church and Congregationalism and Rev. Lauren MacLure, S. T. D., Rector of Grace Church, who as the clergyman longest in residence except the pastor of Eliot Church, will speak for the neighboring churches of all denominations. At the dinner, Mr. Horton S. Allen will present a relic from the old wooden church that burned in 1887 to be preserved in the archives of the church. At eight o'clock there will be an organ recital for twenty minutes by Mr. Everett E. Truette, organist and choir director, after which Dean Chas. R. Brown, LL.D., of Yale Divinity School will give the closing address on "The Place of the Church in Social Rebuilding." The public is invited to all these services.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Lasell

John Mills Wilson, Unitarian pastor from Lexington is to be the speaker at vespers on next Sunday evening.

The appreciation of opera is to be the subject of a lecture to be given Saturday afternoon and Monday by Mrs. Caroline Kahari of Boston.

On Monday the annual trip to Lexington and Concord will be taken, the girls going in large barges.

Dr. Leon Vincent was the lecturer last Saturday, his subject being "Lowell, his life and works," this being the first of a series of lectures to be delivered by Dr. Vincent.

Two new athletic societies have been organized in the school this year, the entire body having been divided into two parts, the Blues, captained by Miss Ruth Rawlings of El Paso, Texas, and the Whites, captained by Miss Lillian Doane of Montreal, Canada. A strong feeling of rivalry is already in evidence.

More than 40 girls went on an all day picnic last Monday to Nantasket

Beach, it especially being enjoyed by those who were given their first sight of the ocean.

The Senior Class has elected the following officers: President, Miss Dorothy Shove, Marshalltown, Iowa; vice-president, Miss Harriet Hawkes, Greenfield, Mass.; secretary, Miss Mary King, Haverhill, Mass.; song leader, Miss Julia Russell, Dallas, Texas; cheer leader, Miss Ruth Rawlings, El Paso, Texas.

Stearns School

The members of the eighth grade enjoyed the first industrial trip of the year, Friday afternoon to The Edison Light Company at South Boston. This large plant was thoroughly inspected by the pupils who were amazed at its magnitude. Some of the most modern boilers in action; the boilers which have transformed the steam power industry were observed, and details of their performance carefully explained by the very courteous guides of the company. The guide said that over a thousand tons of coal are used every day by the plant. Although the Edison Co. is one of the most powerful of its kind in the U. S. it employs only 200 men. Intricate machinery has displaced thousands of men in the last ten years. The class appreciated the kindnesses shown by every guide and official of the company.

The highest per cent of attendance in the grammar grades for the first monthly attendance report was 98.3 per cent, Miss Stoddard's room, grade seven. The highest for the primary grades was 97.9 per cent, Miss Stearns' room, grade two.

The prize winners of the composition contest Barbara Ryan, Emma Boisclair and Dorothy Connolly given last spring by the Daughters of the Revolution, are to be their guests at their first fall meeting at the Newton Club.

A business meeting of the Mothers' Club of Stearns School Centre will be held on Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock. A musical program is being arranged for this meeting.

Burr School

The newly elected editorial staff of the Burr School is as follows: editors in-chief, Mary Warren, Winifred Scott; assistant editors, Doris Henrick, Joel Nichols; local editor, James Armitage; assistant local editor, Royden Johansson; prose editor, Gertrude Locke; poetry editor, Mary Palmer; fun editors, Virginia Russell, George O'Sullivan; athletic editors, Fred Bowler, Edgar Alexander.

Classical High School

The results of the sub-senior elections are as follows: Alfred Stafford, president; Madelon Bartlett, vice president; Allen Kawel, secretary; Frances Hatch, treasurer. The class has arranged to hold a dance in the gymnasium on Friday afternoon, Oct. 22. The juniors elected the following officers: Edwin Loughrey, president; Katherine Bingham, vice president; Mary Richards, secretary; Louise Lovejoy, treasurer.

The results of the two lower classes are:

The trip to Lexington on last Friday, under the auspices of the English Club was a total success. The day was most ideal. Twenty-six automobiles took the pupils to the town where they were met by Miss Caroline Batchelor, who conducted them to the Monroe Tavern. She told many interesting facts and stories of the various historic articles in this house. Later she pointed out the historic landmarks of the famous Lexington Green. The trip was enjoyed by all, and in appreciation, the English Club donated ten dollars for the upkeep of the historic house.

On Monday afternoon the Review Staff was entertained with motion pictures in the lecture hall. The staff is planning to present motion pictures in order to raise money. The staff also announces that the first edition of the Review will be ready by the first week in November.

A new State law says that every pupil in high school must take American History before graduating. A large number of the senior class have not had American History and Mr. Adams is busy arranging for new classes in the subject.

A new study has been introduced into the school for the boys of the senior and sub-senior classes. It is the study of Hygiene and it is under the direction of Mr. Altman. Instructions will be given every Monday in the lecture hall during the half-hour before lunch. Two tests will be given, one in January and one in June. Credits will be awarded to all those who pass these tests.

Mr. Walton, director of the school orchestra, is trying out the new candidates, and intends to begin rehearsals this Friday.

FAVOR TWO-PLATOON SYSTEM

On the coming election day a most important subject will come before the voters for their consideration. It will be as follows: Shall the Newton firemen be granted the two-platoon system; or in other words, shall they work twelve hours a day three hundred and sixty-five days a year, with the exception of fourteen days' vacation? This plan will do away with the present twenty-four hour continuous duty.

The two-platoon system has been adopted by most of the cities throughout the country, and in thirty-six Massachusetts cities and towns. It has the endorsement of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, and in no city where this plan has been in operation have they ever returned to the old continuous duty system.

As to the matter of expense, if this plan should mean increase in maintenance, it would be more than offset by increased efficiency. For example, if one shift has been working at some large fire, they would be replaced at the end of their tour of duty by a fresh crew of men, and, furthermore, the men on the off shift would constitute a reserve force that would be available at all times in case of necessity.

I would like to suggest that between now and election day the voters inquire as fully as possible into the merits of the two-platoon system, and go to the polls firmly resolved to do justice to the firemen. I trust the voters will give this matter their earnest consideration.

TAX PAYER'S LAMENT

To the Editor of The Graphic:
I have just received my Newton tax bill, a fact which will be self-evident to those who read this, because those who read will understand what impels me to write what I intend to write.

Tax bills are never causes for rejoicing, but my present one from Newton is a shock and a sadden. I wonder whether I can longer afford to live in the city where I was born, whether it is right to my family for me to pay the price of living among those with whom I went to school, with whom I was brought up. Newton always was a luxury, it is more so than ever at present, and the present is a time when it is almost a duty to cut out luxuries and to come down to hard pan.

I wonder as I study the figures of the tax whether I and the other taxpayers are getting the worth of our money, whether we are not, like Franklin, paying "dear for our like."

And if we are paying too high I wonder how much I and others like me are responsible for conditions by the not much more than half-hearted interest taken in the elections which have resulted in the present administration we have at City Hall. That other cities are in the same box is no answer to the proposition, perhaps the citizens of them too have been too willing to let those who seek office have it instead of seeking to induce able men to serve. No great corporation, spending each year as much as Newton, puts men in charge simply because the men ask for the jobs. With them it is fitness or no job. And as I have mentioned other cities, it is fair to say that in the matter of tax burden Newton ranks high among the cities of the whole country.

What do I get in return for the tax I pay? My family is one of three; my wife and I and a nineteen-year-old daughter. We get our share of police and fire protection, and the cost of fire protection I see may be increased by from $45,000 to $65,000 a year. And the main reason for advocating this proposed increase is not that it will be worth it to the city but that as other cities have assumed the two-platoon burden, Newton, in fairness to its firemen, ought to assume it too. There we have the reason for one cause of growth in city taxes. If men in one city are able to force the city to take on another burden then all other cities ought to take it on, and once a city salary goes up, once the number of men on the pay roll is increased the increase is for all time, regardless of what conditions are in general business. As cities are run-to-day men get votes for office by promising to assuage the hunger for more, more, more, never by promising to conduct an efficient, economic, administration with a dollar of value in return for every dollar paid in taxes. We get our share of the streets, the parks and the city lights. Our principal use of the streets is to use the one from our home to the railroad station, our use of the parks is nothing, the lights enable us to find our way home after the theatre. From the schools we get nothing and have not for half a dozen years. And I wonder how many families whose children are in the schools pay into the city taxes a sum equivalent to the amount spent for the expenditure for teaching and maintenance of buildings. It will be seen from this that for the nearly three hundred dollars I pay to the city I am getting little in return. It may be my fault I do not get more, but as I do not it is easy to see that it is a serious question with me whether I can longer afford to live in Newton or whether it is not my duty to sell out and join those of my friends who, fronted with the same condition, are moving to another place where for very much less they can receive as much, have more land, have more money to spend, and a congenial neighborhood in which to live and yet be only a little further away from Boston.

Fifty years ago, as I remember it, Newton got along very well. We had good roads, good schools, pleasant neighbors, and lived a simple life. About twenty-five years ago we "began to grow." We widened Washington street, we built the boulevard, and we did a lot of other things. We were told, and we believed it, that these expenditures would be a benefit to the city, that they would develop it so that there would be more taxpayers to share the taxes and that once we paid for the improvements, taxes would go down, that the proportionate share of each taxpayer would be less. We have seen what we have seen. We have more people, but the influx has so raised the number of those who derive more benefit than they pay for that in the item of school expenditure alone the cost of paying for the schools has added to the taxes of those who make no use of them.

One word more in the matter of school and I am done. I know it is the general theory that all citizens received a benefit from the schools because they are supposed to give us an educated and enlightened citizenship. It may be this theory is correct; it is to be hoped devoutly that it is. But there is one thing in which our children could be better educated and that is in the sense of responsibility and self-dependence. As it is we accustom them from their earliest years to the idea of getting something for nothing, of looking on the city, or the State, or the nation, as a something which can always be depended upon to pay for anything. They grow up with the idea that if a sufficient number want anything paid for from the public treasury all that is needed is to vote for it. I find that the average young man and woman of high-school age has the idea that a fundamental of economics is that the well off and the efficient exist principally to pay bills for those who vote that the bills shall be incurred. The colleges complain that it is a waste of money to send to college many of the boys who now apply for admission. The trouble is that college to many boys is nothing but a place at which to continue to have the good time and athletic sports which they enjoyed without cost in the public schools. If there were a purely nominal charge for sending a child to public school it would go a long way to inculcate the idea of the value of an education, to make both parents and children realize that the ability to stand on one's own feet is a lesson worth many of those taught from the books. Nor have the children a very clear idea of the rights of others. They steal fruit and flowers, destroy trees and shrubs and go free because of our juvenile laws. My friends sometimes ask if I never stole fruit. I did and was caught and punished. But because I stole and my friends stole does not seem to me to establish the right to steal as one of the unalienable rights of youth which those of us of older years have no right to attempt to eradicate. Is it the duty of those of us who are old to encourage in the young of to-day the practise of the sins of our youth? As I said, I have received my tax bill. I am sure, know I am stung. Shall I have the courage to sell out and move as I ought to do or shall I be content with following the good American fashion of making a fuss and doing nothing?

Every motor highway and byway throughout picturesque New England and New York is a part of the long "Socony Trail".

The sign of a reliable dealer and the world's best Gasoline

MOTORISTS, commercial truck-men and farmers—from Salem, Mass., to Oswego, N. Y.—have come to depend upon Socony products. Thus, ordinary demand has become a responsibility which the Standard Oil Company of New York is constantly striving to fulfil. This is the reason for the steady growth of Socony service.

Refining processes, like motor construction methods, are always being improved. Socony gasoline is made and tested in accordance with the most recent standards of accuracy—insuring uniform cleanliness, constant mileage to every gallon and absolute dependability. There is a difference in gasoline—just as there is in coal. It will pay you to discriminate.

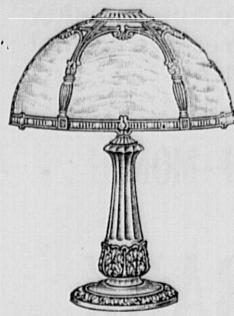

Socony is a straight-refinery gasoline. It vaporizes quickly, but it is more than a mere easy-starting fuel. Owners of large motor truck fleets use Socony regularly because it is uniformly high-powered and clean-burning.

Look for the red, white and blue Socony sign.

HAD TO HAVE AN ARGUMENT

Old Yankee Was Sick to Death of Atmosphere of Peacefulness Which Surrounded Him.

An old Yankee was station master, telegraph operator, ticket agent and baggageman at a small town in Maine. A passenger bought a ticket to New York. Then he walked round to the baggage room to have his trunk checked. The whiskered little ticket agent met him in his new character as baggageman. "Wun't check it!" he said.

"Why not? That's a perfectly good ticket. You just sold it to me. The ticket permits me to check baggage on it."

"Said I wouldn't check it an' I wun't check it."

"But you have to check it. I—"

"Don't talk big to me, young man. I'm boss here. Said I wouldn't check it, an' I wun't."

Then followed 15 minutes of heated dispute. Then the distant whistle of the approaching train was heard. The old man peered down the track and then returned to the passenger. "Changed my mind," said he. "I'll check it."

"But why all this row? Why wouldn't you check it in the first place and save all this argument?"

"Young feller," responded the railroad functionary, without even a twinkle in his eye, "I'll tell you how 'tis. For a spell, nobuddy's been a-comin' down here like they used to. Hang 'round th' puffy places drivelin' taout peace an' politics 'nich. Been lonesum. 'Hain't had enny argymint with nobuddy in three months, an' b'gun! I wuz go'n' he one or bu'st!"—New York correspondent in Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

FORCED REMOVAL OF EDICT

Londoners in Riotous Mood When Monarch Threatened to Close City's Coffee Houses.

All England was up in riotous defense of the right to pursue happiness and coffee when, in 1675, Charles tried to close the coffee-houses as "the great resort of idle and disaffected persons," hot beds of political intrigue. So loud were the protests against the prohibition that the king was forced to revoke his proclamation. To save his dignity, he said that "out of his princely consideration and royal compassion all and every retailer of the liquor aforesaid shall be allowed to keep open until the four and twentieth day of June next." The arid date came and went—and the lid didn't go on. The London coffee houses still flourished, champions of free speech when the press was controlled and parliament unreliable.

Of all the literary and political meeting places, the most influential was one popularized by the patronage of the poet Dryden. Literary aspirants of the day paid dearly merely for the privilege of entering the room the great man usually occupied. There it was that Pepys saw him, center of an admiring throng, having "very witty and pleasant discourse." Dryden's chair always was placed by the fire in the winter and on the balcony in summer.

Lucky Even to Get That

"The president of the stone bank was kidnapped by a robber," relates the landlord of Petunia tavern. "He was in his own yard, in his shirt sleeves, mowing the lawn, when the villain driv'd up in a snorting car and compelled him, at the point of a pistol to get in and then went roaring off with him in a southeasterly direction. The suspect was that the scoundrel expected to hold him for ransom. Just at dusk last night the bank president came back in the car. He was wearing a vest and a pensive smile, and also pants and coat. In a pocket of the coat was a pistol, and there was a bundle of clothes in the bottom of the car. When asked about the fate of the bandit he sort of yawned and said he presumed likely the villain had a barrel somewhere.—Kansas City Star.

Tying the Knot.

The performance of the marriage ceremony is often spoken of as "tying the knot." The expression may be of comparatively recent origin, a figurative phrase referring to the fact that the contracting parties are united or bound together in wedlock. Quite as reasonable a supposition is that it has come down from the ancient Babylonians.

At any rate it was the custom in old Babylon for the priest who officiated at the wedding to take a thread from the garment of the bride and one from a garment of the groom. He would then knot the two together and present them to the bride, a symbol of the matrimonial tie joining her and her husband.

Weighing a Perfume.

It was the Italian physicist Salvioni who devised a microbalance of such extreme delicacy that it clearly demonstrates the loss of weight of musk by volatilization. Thus the invisible perfume floating off in the air is indirectly weighed. The essential part of the apparatus is a very thin thread of glass fixed at one end and extended horizontally. The microscopic objects to be weighed are placed upon the glass thread near its free end and the amount of flexure produced is observed with a microscope magnifying 100 diameters. A mote weighing one-thousandth of a milligram perceptibly bends the thread.

EDITORIAL

One of the Republican speakers in the recent political campaign states that he found the people far more interested in the cause of good government and a proper administration of our own affairs than they were in the much-touted League of Nations. The explanation is plain. The people know what 25-cent sugar means. They know that millions and billions of dollars cannot be wasted, as the Democratic Administration at Washington has wasted it during the past two years and is wasting at the present time. They know that change cannot but be for the better, and they are going to vote next month for Harding and Coolidge, not so much on account of the League of Nations, as for an economical and efficient administration at home. In addition they also realize that Senator Harding will go to the limit of safety to America in any league, association, or alliance with other powers to prevent future wars.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Newton Girl Scouts are looking forward to a busy and happy year. Each week sees the opening of one or more of the Troops. All of the girls are coming back with enthusiasm and a keen interest in the winter's program. Troop 5 was the first to hold a meeting—on Sept. 28. Troop 2 came next, meeting for the first time on Oct. 5. Troop 3 started that same week, Oct. 7. Three troops have held first meetings this week—Troop 6 on Monday the 11th, Troop 4 on Wednesday the 13th, and Troop 2 on Thursday the 14th. Troop 7 will start in on its winter's work next Tuesday. There are only 7 troops in the city, and there should be more. We hope that before the year is out there will be an organized Troop of Girl Scouts in every one of the nine villages into which the city is divided. But before new troops can be started, new leaders must be secured, and with this end in view, a leaders' class will be started early in November. A most interesting course is being planned. One lesson a week for six weeks. Further information about this course may be had from the Local Director, Miss Caroline L. Freeman, West Newton.

After a picnic lunch, the men's York Round, 72 arrows at 100 yds., 48 arrows at 80 yds., and 34 arrows at 60 yds. were played. In the carrying out of this, a mile and three-quarters was covered. The Women's National Round was also played in the afternoon. This consisted of 8 ends at 60 yds. and 4 ends at 50 yds. targets. There were also special novelty targets—running rabbits in black on targets. For these both men and women contended, the winners winning the rabbits.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

As announced in another column, the Christian Science Church of Newton has arranged for a lecture by Judge Samuel W. Green, C. S. of Louisville, Ky., to be given at Player's Hall, West Newton, Monday evening, Oct. 25th. The subject is "Christian Science. The Religion of Fulfillment," and will be treated by one who has not only had a full experience of its benefits but has also brought to bear on its teachings the searching scrutiny of a fine legal mind. That Christian Science has appealed to Bench and Bar in the case of so many of their prominent representatives is evidence perhaps of the soundness of its premises and their logical development into a world-wide religion.

The lecture promises to be a popular exposition of the teachings of Christian Science from the standpoint of one who has subjected it to the test of legal analysis.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURR, Editor.

Let any who may think that the women's clubs movement is a comparatively new thing take note of the fact that already one of the Newton clubs, the West Newton Women's Educational Club, has observed its fortieth anniversary, and that another, the C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands, also dates back to the same year, 1880, for its beginning. Two organizations of women dating back to the middle of the 19th century, although they are to-day practically women's clubs, did not originate as such; so it was not until 1868 that the first real woman's club, the New England Woman's Club, came into being. This was followed closely by the Wednesday Morning Club in 1869. Four more sprung up in the 1870's, but those of the early '80's were also truly pioneers, for it was not until the '90's that there were any considerable number of clubs.

The origin of that at West Newton, as brought out in the historical sketch read last Friday at the fortieth anniversary, has an interesting significance in view of present-day events. That group of five or six forward-looking women, some of them, at least, members of the New England Woman's Club, came together soon after municipal suffrage had been granted women in Massachusetts to see what they could do toward interesting the other women of their village in exercising the newly gained privilege. Out of this small beginning there arose a club which was always in the forefront of every movement that spelled progress, particularly of those matters relating to women and children. All honor to the memory of Electa N. Walton and those other West Newton women associated with her for paving the way by their example for their club sisters of later years within our beloved city of Newton. Little did they realize that it would take forty years, or nearly two generations, before any of them would be able to exercise full suffrage. Yet what would their rejoicing could they see how the clubs to-day are taking hold in assisting all the women of the city to learn how to cast their ballots properly!

Local Happenings

Mrs. Hiram A. Miller, of Erie avenue, was hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. on Monday afternoon of this week. After the usual half-hour of current events by members, Miss Anna S. Thompson had charge of program and presented a very clever paper entitled, "The Man of the Hour." That man, it seems, proved to be the movie-man. There was the customary social hour with light refreshments.

Fortieth Anniversary

On Friday, Oct. 8, the West Newton Women's Educational Club observed very pleasantly its fortieth birthday. Mrs. Bernard Early, the president, was in the chair during the business meeting and greeted the guests in the name of the club. Letters of regret were read from Mrs. George Minot Baker, from Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, and from several of the early members of the club, who were unable to be present. Mrs. George W. St. Amant, a former president of the club, presided through the rest of the afternoon. An historical sketch, prepared by Mrs. Early, the club historian, brought out some of the "high lights" of the earlier years. This was read by the first vice president, Mrs. Olin Dickerman. The reading of "Truth," a five-act comedy, by Rose Walsh and groups of songs interspersed between the acts by Mrs. Clara W. Jackson, accompanied by Miss Martina L. Bancroft, completed a delightful program. Miss Walsh held the attention of her audience throughout her able portrayal of a group of widely differing characters. The music was an exceedingly enjoyable feature, there being rendered a number of Miss Bancroft's own compositions.

At the close of the program, the members and their guests adjourned to the tea room, each receiving as they entered a slice of the birthday cake, which had been cut by Mrs. George G. Phipps, one of the oldest members of the club. The presidents of the other Newton clubs and a number of the former members of the club enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the club on this occasion.

HUNTING FOR DREAM HATS

Every Woman Feels That Some Day
It Will Be Her Fortune to Discover One.

In the spring a woman's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of hats. Every woman feels that one day she will find the dream hat, a writer in the London Daily Mail states. It may be waiting just around the corner in some shop yet undiscovered. Or it may be that the quest will go on for weeks or months or years.

But one day she will find the hat which will make her life a roseate thing until it wears out or becomes old-fashioned. Under the brim of it her eyes will shine like stars. Her whole being will irradiate charm.

A decent balance at the bank gives a comfortable air of assurance to many men. Silk stockings—not the half-and-half sort—bring a blissful sense of well being to most women. But nothing can give the same poise as the dream hat. To wear it is to be a success.

"How well you are looking today!" your friends say.

You know that it is the hat.

All the same, you are well. No one could be ill in the dream hat.

It conjures up thoughts of soft music, scents of flowers, shaded lights and the spring. What may not one accomplish in such a hat? What adventures may not happen!

The hat must be subtle in its conception. It must have enough color to bring out the light in your eyes, but not too much to deaden the color of your hair. The line must be good and accord with the contour of your face. Light and fanciful, there must be in it a hint of something a little provocative, a fantasy one could never associate with jet and bangles.

But where is the dream hat to be found? Ah! if one only knew! Somehow, it still eludes one's search. Time is getting on. A hat you must have, and so you must be content with the second best.

ARCHERY HELD IN HONOR

Skill in Use of the Bow Was Fostered in Every Way in the Twelfth Century.

Archery in Scotland is as old as the day of William the Lion. The first mention of bows in the Statute book occurred in the latter part of the twelfth century. On skill in use of the bow the safety of Scotland had for so long rested, that in the reign of William the Lion an act was passed making it compulsory for every man between the ages of sixteen and sixty to have weapons of this description. In war each Bowman carried 16 heavy and eight light shafts. The principal weapon of offense of those bygone days has long since degenerated into a plaything.

The origin of the Royal Company of Archers, the king's bodyguard, is somewhat obscure, the first unassailable record dating back no further than 1676. Some authorities claim the company was formed by James the First of Scotland, who chose a bodyguard for himself. The organization was permitted in 1676 to call itself "His Majesty's Company of Archers," and the first parade in full uniform was held on Leith Links on June 11, 1677. Queen Anne in 1704 granted the company a royal charter. Sir Walter Scott was a member of the organization.

Coal From Leaves, Bark and Fruits.

After an exhaustive study of a large number of coal seams, James Lomax, an English mineralogist, says he has come to the conclusion that almost all had their origin in vegetable matter grown and deposited on the spot where it now rests, the coal substance being formed chiefly by the droppings of leaves, twigs, bark and fruits, in the shape of seeds and fruitiferous cones mainly from large trees. There had also been, especially in the lower parts of coal beds, the remains of plants much smaller in size and lower in the scale of organization, various kinds of mosslike plants, all of which combined to form a humus in which the plants much more highly organized could exist and develop.—Indianapolis News.

Overcrowding the Earth.

According to the statistician, the population of the world cannot go on indefinitely at the present rate. It has been estimated that if it does, then we are near the end of our tether. In about 170 years from now the maximum population that the earth can support will be reached! The only country at the present time that is reasonably living within its assets of land is France, for to double her population requires 433 years. If the present rate of increase of the population of the world is maintained (supposing such a thing possible), then in 2,000 years from now the population would be 25 times greater than it is now.

Have Long and Short Lives.

Sparrows can live to be forty years old. A horse does not live much more than twenty-seven years. Cats get to be about thirteen years old. The tortoise is supposed to live to be between 300 and 400 years old. Some persons say toads can live forever, but, of course, that has not been proved, though certainly they live to an exceedingly great age. Both an eagle and a crow have been known to live to be 100, but the wren lives only about three years. An elephant's lifetime is about 100 years, but he is not regarded as grown up until he is about twenty-five years old.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

Mr. Joseph L. Colby, a resident of this city for many years, died last Friday at his home on Centre street, Newton, from heart disease from which he has suffered for several years.

Mr. Colby was born in Boston on February 24, 1846, and was the youngest son of the late Gardner Colby, a former well known Boston merchant and railroad financier. Mr. Colby was educated in Newton and at the Lawrence Scientific School at Harvard.

His active business life was spent in the Northwest, where, associated with his brother, Charles L. Colby, he engaged in the operation and extension of the Wisconsin Central Railroad, and in other enterprises in the region between Chicago and St. Paul, and especially in iron mining on the southern shore of Lake Superior. During these years he resided in Milwaukee, Wis., and gave his services to the religious and cultural progress of the community.

Upon retirement from active business he came east to reside in the family homestead in Newton, where he gave his time to further the study of music and art, becoming an accepted authority on church music and architecture, and he added to his knowledge of these subjects by frequent travels in Europe. He rather recently returned from one of these trips.

Mr. Colby contributed articles of economic interest to current periodicals, and received from Colby College the honorary degrees of LL. D. He has served as a trustee of Colby College, of the Newton Theological Institution and of Wellesley College. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Newton Centre, fellow of the British Royal Geographical Society, a member of the American Geographical Society and of the Union League Club of New York city and was also a member of the Neighbors' Club in Newton Centre.

Mr. Colby is survived by his wife, Mary Colby, and by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Edward Bischoff of London, England; Mrs. Yandell Henderson of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Norman McLeod of Birkhamstead, England.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Charles N. Arkubick, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church in Newton Centre, whose prayers and selections from the Scriptures were supplemented by eulogistic remarks by Rev. George E. Horr, D. D., of the Newton Theological Institution.

The hymns, "O could I speak the matchless worth," and "In the Cross of Christ I glory," were sung by A. R. Frank, bass, accompanied by D. Ralph MacLean, and the closing prayer and benediction were given by Rev. Edward M. Noyes of the First Congregational Church in Newton. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor of The Graphic:—

In view of the extreme seriousness for all the world of the vote to be taken at our November election, and in view of the plea for America first and for withdrawal from world affairs, permit me, through your columns, to ask questions of a voter:

Did you, during the war, publicly and actively oppose the entry of the United States into the war?

Did you, during the war, publicly and actively use your influence to discredit the war policy of the Wilson administration?

Did you, during the Liberty loan drives, refuse to subscribe and use your influence to persuade others not to subscribe?

Did you, during the appeals of the Red Cross, refuse to give anything to alleviate the horrors of war?

Did you, during the nation-wide efforts for the relief of Belgium, Poland, Serbia and Armenia, refuse to give to any of those peoples?

If you opposed the entry of the United States into the war and refused to give any money, clothing or comforts to its fighting and suffering victims, were you regarded by your neighbors and friends as pro-German and a traitor or as a superior type of American patriot?

If you did not oppose the entry of the United States into the war, but supported it, and if you opened purse and heartstrings for its miserable victims, what has happened to change your mind and to prove that our national policy was a mistake and a blunder? Do you believe that our fifty thousand dead soldiers in France were heroes and martyrs for world democracy and world brotherhood, or were they deluded cranks who died as the fool died?

R. L. BRIDGMAN.

LITERAL TRUTH.

On a crowded transport going to France, the men had to sleep where they could find room. One of them, lying on the deck, said to his buddy: "Talk about your hardships! This is the hardest ship I was ever on."

BOY SCOUTS

Leaders Wanted for Boys

At no other time in the history of the Republic has there been such a demand for LEADERSHIP. This is true not only in the industrial world, in the religious realm, and in the field of government, but also in those fields of service which have for their aim the building of CHARACTER, and the correct estimation of CITIZENSHIP. The Boy Scout Movement of America exists fundamentally for these two purposes. Nothing is more essential to the nation's welfare than that the boys of to-day should secure from qualified leaders the true ideals of Citizenship and Character. The lack of this early training by word and example has been the cause of truancy, vagrancy, and finally, criminality. The records of our many institutions for the correction of "bad boys" will show, and show with accuracy, that the reason for these boys being within such places is nothing more nor less than the proper supervision at the most crucial period of their lives.

When a boy reaches the age of 12 years, feelings and emotions begin to stir within him of which he knows nothing. He begins to feel that his feet are too big, that his hands should always be in his pockets out of sight, that his very existence is a national calamity, and that he is in the way, both to his friends and his enemies. These feelings and emotions which hold him in their grip are nothing but natural. Nature is changing the child into a boy, the boy into a youth. While this change continues, and it lasts for some time, the boy is under a nervous strain. He cannot understand everything that happens. He does not know why it is he falls over the carpet in the "Visitors special room." He wonders why it is that one foot continually kicks the other when he is walking. He used to play with his best friend, his girl neighbor, but now he never waits for her, never shares his lolly-pop. Girls look somewhat different to him. In fact, everything seems upside down. It is during this period, this change of nature, that he needs a friend. He needs a man other than his father (though some fathers make good chums for their boys), to be a chum to him. He needs him to talk to, to imitate, to associate with. Here, then, is the opportunity for the man who wishes to serve boys, and in serving them be serving their country in a real vital way.

For this opportunity, the Boy Scout Movement has the Scoutmaster. This officer is carefully chosen. He volunteers for active service. Usually he is very busy, but paradoxical as it may seem, the busy man is often the man with time to give for such work. He offers some of his time for the boys. What a privilege is this! Once or twice a week thirty-two boys gather around him for instruction. He leads them through the mysteries of their nature in a fatherly way. He points out to them the opportunities of SCOUTING. He has a busy time. The boys cheer him, look up to him as their chief and chum. What more could a busy man desire to make him forget his business worries for an hour and send him back home and to his business refreshed and invigorated with new life to battle with his everyday problems? It's more powerful than medicine. Here is an opportunity for any man that has sympathy for boys and has a willing mind to be of service.

There are thousands of boys in America waiting for such leaders. Several hundreds are in Newton, Wellesley, and Needham. Have we the leaders for them? If you are prepared to answer the BOYS' CALL, write the EXECUTIVE, Mr. William B. Sharratt, Box 103, Newton 58, Mass.

FIRST MEETING OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB

An interested and earnest group of women met at the second Church, West Newton, on Wednesday afternoon to hear Mrs. L. J. Johnson speak on "General Citizenship," before the Community Service Club. The speaker had a pleasing personality and spoke with clearness and force.

After a brief survey of the way in which Kings have gradually given over their sovereign power to the people, she went on to say that to prepare oneself for the sovereign vote was no mean task. "Men," she said, "can always be found ready to talk upon two subjects—baseball and politics." Women are not, naturally, absorbed in these subjects, but they must become well informed upon the latter subject. One way of doing this is to read the papers. In order to become more intelligent and more charitable, it is better to read two newspapers than one. To be hide-bound in one's thoughts and judgments is to be a real menace to good government.

In addition to the daily papers, women should seek original sources of information, and study them for themselves. They should consult books, and pamphlets such as "The Manual for Massachusetts' Voters," "The Citizen's Guide," and others, and know the possibilities of voting, which differ in different states, the status of women who are married to aliens, absentee voting, and other important subjects.

She explained the process of enrollment for voting, the regulations in regard to party ballots, and suggested some changes in political machinery for which women might work. "It is," she added, "a great asset for women that they have not so many political prejudices as men, and that they are more open to changes."

All the world is experimenting in government. Every state has its racial, occupational, and industrial problems, and governments are looking to women to help solve these perplexing problems. Every citizen should ask himself these questions: "Which party is dealing with party questions in a finer way?" "Which man will serve the people best?"

The speaker concluded by telling the story of the candle service at Engle, at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, in which each receives the sacred light and passes it on to others. "This," she said, "is what voting means to me. It is the handing on of the light handed down from England, and from Holland, a sacred duty, each seeing that her candle is lighted and shines undimmed through governmental ordeals to show the world that America stands for."

The enfranchisement of women is the greatest step in democracy which our government has made since 1776.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Last year the Newton Y. M. C. A. began a plan for extending its work into all parts of Newton. The first community which adopted this type of work, known as Community Work, was Newton Centre. Through the efforts of a group of Newton Centre business men, Mr. Leary, City Wide Community Secretary, was secured to develop work among the young people of that section. So much interest was shown that this year the work will be conducted on a full time basis.

From June 25 to August 20th the Community Secretary was in charge of Camp Frank A. Day at East Brookfield, Mass. During this period ninety-eight different boys enjoyed the pleasures which only a camp on the shores of a wooded lake can afford.

Because of the large number of applications more boys were cared for than the normal capacity of 48 could accommodate. This was done by using a half dozen army shelter tents and permitting some boys to sleep on the porch of the camp pavilion. Plans are now being developed for the accommodation of seventy-five boys at one time. With eleven acres of land there is ample room for expansion if funds for new tents and extra equipment can be secured.

The boys attending camp from Newton were as follows: Franco Montanari, Edmund I. Leeds, Jr., Sydney Ussher, Walter Stanley Kimball, Luther S. Moore, William B. Lodge, Harold Lodge, Gordon Stewart.

From West Newton: Phillips B. Hoyt, Franklin Hoyt, Wm. P. Carley, Marshall Glazier, Edward Stearns, Francis Tower.

From Auburndale, Newton Upper Falls, Newton Highlands and Newton Centre: Otis R. Heath, Ward Schenck, Gordon White, Franklin Cobleigh, Ezra Stevens, Lloyd Hazen, Kenneth Howe, Robert Savory, Richard Savory, Harland P. Sisk, William Harper, Frank Hinks, Wendell Walker.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

The boys are advancing all along the line. Two new Tenderfoot Scouts are reported as having passed their first test. Troop 2 is beginning to make itself a force in the community. Mr. E. C. Hilliard, 13 Weir street, is the Scoutmaster. Meetings are held in the M. E. Church, Auburndale, every Friday evening at 7:30.

There are hundreds of boys in Newton, Wellesley, and Needham, who should belong to the Scouts. Scout meetings are held in the Newtons, in Wellesley and Needham every week. If you wish to join, notify the Executive, Mr. Wm. B. Sharratt, Box 103, Newton 58, Mass.

SHOW LOCATION OF WATER

Signs on Painted Desert in the Southwest Guide Travelers to the Precious Liquid.

Travel off the beaten paths in the famous Painted Desert of the Southwest would be a dangerous matter were it not for the stone sentinels set up by the Navajo Indians to direct the stranger travelling through that country, where once there was water in plenty, but where now are only the dry beds of rivers.

These sentinels are piles of rocks, as high as a man, located on rises of ground where they may be readily seen. In the body of the monument is placed a projecting rock which is arranged to point the direction to the nearest spring or waterhole. If one follows the direction indicated, although he may have to proceed a considerable distance, the precious water will always be found.

Frequently it is only a very weak seep supplying no more than a few cups in an hour. Or it may be a pool located deep in the recesses of a rocky ledge and collected from the snows of the past winter. Sometimes it is situated in an out-of-the-way place, and then there may be two, or even three smaller monuments erected along the route designated.

Also along the way there may be arrows cut in the rocks or crooked grooves symbolizing the windings of a brook or signs of various kinds which will attract attention. These directions all help to make the way plainer and reduce the chance of the traveler becoming confused.

The world is experimenting in government. Every state has its racial, occupational, and industrial problems, and governments are looking to women to help solve these perplexing problems. Every citizen should ask himself these questions: "Which party is dealing with party questions in a finer way?" "Which man will serve the people best?"

The speaker concluded by telling the story of the candle service at Engle, at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, in which each receives the sacred light and passes it on to others. "This," she said, "is what voting means to me. It is the handing on of the light handed down from England, and from Holland, a sacred duty, each seeing that her candle is lighted and shines undimmed through governmental ordeals to show the world that America stands for."

The enfranchisement of women is the greatest step in democracy which our government has made since 1776.

It's great, the "Thank You" club. No initiation, no dues, no long-drawn-out meetings, and no reports. Anyone can make a quorum to do business. No stated meetings nor any stipulated place of meeting. Anybody can start a "Thank You" club. Beats Overall clubs all to pieces! Lasts longer, does more good, and spreads sunshine.

One carries the by-laws around in his head. The password is "Thank You." And that's all there is in the whole book of rules. That's all it means, the "Thank You" club—just a thank you for the little services performed daily as well as the big ones. A thank you is more appreciated by many people than a tip, which, by some, might be considered an insult.

Start a club some morning. Watch your club grow. Good ideas spread. Try the club for one day. It may make you a life member. And the "thank you" exchanges will increase and radiate like ripples from a stone thrown into the millpond.

There's a big field in this world for "Thank You" clubs. Their members take the edge off rough places. If "Thank You" is the password, the genuine smile of service is the open reward for its application.—Haverhill Gazette.

Fake "Josses" for Travelers.

Canton and Amoy supply travelers and curio dealers with quantities of hideous idols known in the trade as "Josses." They are fakes pure and simple, having no relation to any oriental religion. Ingenious designers have produced a great variety of hobgoblins—such, for example, as the "hunger god," with the face of a tiger and ferocious fangs.

Most of them are of clay, turned out from wooden or metal molds, dipped in molten glass and allowed to cool. A fairly expert Chinese workman can make 100 in a day at a cost of 3 cents apiece. The European or American tourist pays $5.

Real josses may be worth a lot of money, especially if carved out of jade. This is a material greatly prized in the orient, and a jade idol 15 inches high, and as many centuries old, has been known to sell for $10,000 in Canton.

White and Red Roses Blended.

The most interesting combination of roses is that of the union of the white rose of York with the red rose of Lancaster after the long struggle between those two factions when the red rose might have represented the blood that was shed and the other the condition of the people bled white by the wars. To cement the peace Henry of Lancaster wedded pretty Elizabeth of York and a clever gardener of old England blended the two roses and made a new one, striped red and white. We have it in this country where it is still called the York and Lancaster, though not every beholder realizes the story held in its fragrant petals.

The Cockade.

The cockade, an ornament or knot of ribbon or rosette of leather, was originally worn as a military or naval decoration or as the badge of a political party. Cockades made of ribbons of the national colors were worn by soldiers of the national wars of the eighteenth century. In England after the expulsion of the Stuart dynasty the white cockade became the badge of the adherents of the exiled house in opposition to the orange of Nassau and the black of Hanover. From the hats of the military it passed to those of the civil servants of the crown. Then as headgear changed the use of the distinction was confined to servants. The black cockade on the hats of officers' servants was introduced by George I.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Hyde School

"Thrift" continues to be one of our slogans and a very satisfactory number of Thrift Stamps have been purchased each week. Miss Marguerite Green's Fourth Grade led last week, while the Second Grade, Mrs. Benson's class, ranked next.

The mid-morning lunch of milk and crackers proved so beneficial last year, more than half the Hyde pupils are having the lunch this fall, and there is a promise of a larger per cent in the near future.

Two of our former teachers, Miss Mabel P. Whitman and Miss Stella Hawkins, renewed their associations at the Hyde recently. Miss Hawkins visited several days with Miss Sadie E. Hanscom, Oak terrace.

The Fourth Grade of the New Hyde, Miss Green's class, gave a play Monday afternoon, commemorating the discovery of America. Most of the pupils participating were in costume and all parts were well rendered. Several classes, guests of the Fourth Grade, had the pleasure of witnessing the play.

A Hyde football team played a game with a Roger Wolcott team recently. Hyde School winning.

Miss Ryder's class ranked 100 per cent in attendance last week.

Cladlin School Notes

The Four Weeks' Report shows the highest per cent of attendance to be in Grade IV. Grade IV and Grade VI, room 2, are the only rooms which have no tardy marks for the month.

Exercises for Columbus Day were held in the School Hall on Monday afternoon. The program was in charge of Miss Scheib.

The football team continues its enthusiastic practice under the leadership of Mr. Sheafe.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

Newton Troops Making Arrangements for Drive on November 6th

The Girl Scouts of All-Newton are to give an entertainment, "The Pioneers." It is to be given twice, once on the South side of the city and once on the North side.

The North Side performance will come first on Saturday afternoon, November 6th, in Players' Hall, West Newton, at 2.30 o'clock. The second performance will be on the following Saturday afternoon, the 13th, in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, at 2.30 o'clock. These two performances will give every one an opportunity to see the entertainment and it is an opportunity that no one should miss. Girls from each of the seven troops are to take part and the performance promises to be a splendid one. Tickets may be obtained from any Girl Scout or officer or from the Local Director.

Girl Scout Week, November 6th to 15th

Last November the Girl Scouts all over America had a Campaign for funds and Leaders. Because of the unsettled conditions in Boston at that time the Massachusetts State Council asked that they might postpone their Campaign. Their request was granted and it was postponed until January. Newton entered that drive and the citizens in Newton were so generous that the Local Council raised its budget and a little over. We do not want to ask for money again so soon and as our year is not up and we have enough money to last the year out—we have asked that we may postpone our Campaign here in Newton until next January. But although

JACKSON—COLLIESON

Miss Dorothy Sterling Collieson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward Collieson, of Lexington, and Mr. Hiram Warren Jackson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Warren Jackson, of Arlington street, Newton, were married at the home of the bride, 16 Berwick road, Tuesday evening, by the Rev. Christopher W. Collier, pastor of the Hancock Congregational Church, Lexington.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory white satin with court train, the waist and sleeves of old family lace. The tulle veil was fastened in place with orange blossoms, and the bride carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley, and bouvardia.

The maid of honor was Miss Katherine Collieson, sister of the bride, who wore flesh-colored tulle over satin of the same shade trimmed with silver, and she carried Russell roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Collieson, sister of the bride, Miss Edith Fenno, a classmate of the bride at Wheaton, Miss Ethel Wilson, and Miss Marion Jackson, sister of the bridegroom. They were dressed alike in jade green tulle over green satin with silver trimmings, and they carried Ophelia roses.

The best man was Mr. Richard Harkness. The ushers were Mr. Donald Chase, Mr. Harold Jackson, Mr. Gilman Jackson, and Mr. Richard Jackson, cousins of the bridegroom. The house was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums, pink Killarney, and Russell roses.

A reception followed the ceremony.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Automobile Crashes Through Railroad Fence at Auburndale

An automobile containing two men and two young women crashed through the fence enclosing the Boston & Albany tracks near the bridge on Hancock street, Auburndale, shortly after midnight Saturday night and the front of the car hung suspended over the tracks, 10 feet below. The occupants crawled uninjured from their perilous positions, but traffic on both tracks was discontinued until firemen and policemen dragged the automobile back to the thoroughfare.

The two men who narrowly escaped serious injury were Henry J. McAdam of Chestnut place, Needham, operator of the car, and John R. Gavigan, 35 Oakland road, Brookline. The police did not divulge the names of the girls.

The car came down the steep grade of Hancock street, and instead of taking the sharp turn to the left, just before arriving at the bridge, plunged through the fence. Lieut. Mullen of the Newton police, immediately on being informed the car was hanging in such a position over the inbound track that a passing train would hit it—and it seemed that the automobile would drop at any moment—telephoned to the railroad officials at Riverside and Boston. The railroad authorities to be on the safe side, ordered cessation of traffic on both tracks, and a wrecking train was sent out from Allston. Meanwhile, firemen of the Auburndale station, assisted by policemen and citizens, dragged the automobile back to firm ground.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

Every Saturday Club of Newtonville Soon to Celebrate

In this year of anniversaries, Newtonville is having a little pride in one of its own. During the past week all present and former members of the Every Saturday Club are receiving invitations to the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the club at the Newton Club House on the evening of Oct. 29.

On a happy coincidence the Club House is on the site of the Valentine House, where the Every Saturday Club was organized just 50 years ago. During this long unbroken period of activity the club has attracted to its membership many fine representatives of Newtonville's literary and social life, greatly stimulating the community interest in literary matters, as well as promoting that good fellowship which has been so characteristic of this club. A very fitting program has been arranged for the coming celebration, which will include a dinner, and after dinner features quite in keeping with the club's past successes on its 21st and 25th anniversaries.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Dr. Edward Payson Drew of Auburndale is to be the speaker at vesters on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the girls in Carpenter Hall are to have charge of the school entertainment, this week it will be in the form of a farce which they will present in the school gymnasium. The name of the play is not to be divulged until that night. These Saturday evening entertainments, which are a new feature this year are proving very popular, a different group of girls having charge each time giving these informal and surprise entertainments.

The annual trip to Concord and Lexington will be taken on Monday, large barges conveying the party. The school had a rare treat on Thursday morning having as the speaker in the chapel Miss Lytton, field secretary of the Methodist foreign missionary society who gave a most interesting talk.

Can You Afford to Take A Chance?

Nearly everybody who starts a Savings Account in a Bank does so with a definite object in view—to own a home, a competency, for old age, or for some equally necessary and laudable purpose.

During the past few years, most people have been enjoying greatly increased incomes. A great many of these fortunate people have very wisely put away a certain part of their incomes for safe keeping. But not all have chosen wisely the banks to which they have intrusted their hard-earned savings.

The safety of your principal is of far greater consequence to you than the largest possible interest return. Some banks in a mad scramble for new depositors, are offering increasingly larger dividend or interest rates. A Bank which recently failed in Boston, has been a conspicuous advertiser of high rates and so called "liberal" terms."

When you place your money in a bank, choose a high-class institution—one conducted by men who believe they are better serving the public by keeping their bank's assets in the form of high grade, quickly convertible loans and securities at a relatively low rate of interest, than to pay a higher rate and sacrifice the quality of investments accordingly.

The Newton Trust Company pays 4 1/2 per cent.

Place your savings where you know they are absolutely safe in any emergency. You cannot afford to take a chance.

Odd Things We Use In Our Business

There is a good deal more to providing telephone service than merely stringing a wire from pole to pole and connecting the instrument in a house or office.

We use a great variety of materials in vast quantities. A few of the odd things required in large amounts are:

Silk	Paper	Glass
Rubber	Wood	Beeswax
Cotton Yarn	Clay	Thread
Paraffin	Brass	Steel
Porcelain	Lead	Copper
Solder	Tape	Zinc
Acid	Webbing	Oakum
Plaster Paris	Linen	Vermilion

These materials are used in the manufacture of cables, switchboards and telephone instruments, and under present conditions are extremely hard to obtain. We ask your friendly co-operation until the materials required in rendering telephone service may be produced, transported and installed.

DAVIS-HARTEL

A wedding of much interest to Newton took place last Saturday evening at the Second Church when Miss Dorothy Hartel, daughter of Mr. Andreas Hartel, Jr., was united in marriage to Mr. Harcourt Winchester Davis, of Edy street, Newtonville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Edgar Park, and the music was played by Mr. William Lester Bates, organist of the Second Church.

The bride's gown was of beaded georgette over silver lace. The maid of honor, Miss Helen C. Hartel, sister of the bride, wore yellow changeable taffeta with chantilly lace, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Elsa G. Trowbridge, Elizabeth W. Hartel, and Amelia Hartel, of West Newton, and Mrs. Carol W. Hamilton, of Boston, wore gowns of lavender changeable taffeta with silver lace.

The best man was Mr. Edmund L. Rice, of Newton Centre, and the ushers were Messrs. Andreas Hartel, 3d, and George A. Haynes, of West Newton; J. Bradford Sargent, of Newtonville, Irving E. Heymer, of Auburndale, and John Mayo of Wellesley.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony, the mother of the groom and the parents of the bride, assisting the bride and groom. An orchestra furnished the music and palms, roses, and chrysanthemums formed the decorations.

POLICE NOTES

In the West Newton Court Saturday morning, Merton Preble, the self-confessed deserter from the army, was sent to the Concord Reformatory on a charge of stealing clothing from John Mason, a sailor in the United States Navy, who took Preble to his home last summer and befriended him. Preble has a record in the Police Department of several cities.

In connection with the disappearance of a new auto from the Woodland Golf Club Sept. 25, John F. Fahey of Auburndale and Charles S. Morse of Weston were in court Saturday morning charged with the theft. They were held in $1000 bonds, the case being continued. The car belonged to Edward J. St. Coeur of Newton. It was recovered several days afterward by Inspector O'Halloran of the Newton Police Department who found it abandoned in the woods on the Weston side of the Charles River.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake
 Burr School

The school paper of the 8th grade is to be issued the first week in November. It is to be called "The Echo." The price will be 5 cents, and the paper will contain besides news items, original stories, poems, acrostics, and editorials.

The Burr football team played a game with the Pierce School on Monday afternoon.

Williams School

The sixth grade girls are enjoying their sewing. They are making a new style of apron. Several Williams school boys have expressed a desire to join the Boy Scouts.

Mason School

The school team of the Mason school is made up as follows: Backs, Charles MacDonald, captain; quarterback, Lawrence Cameron; linemen and substitutes, Philip Rising, Carleton McCullough, Gardner Roberts, Albert Rochette, George Gerrie, Walter McManus, Carleton Bailey, Herman Buxbaum, Louis Beckerman, John McDonald. The captain of the junior team is Antonio Arduino.

Hyde School

Last Friday, Miss Cowen's eighth grade gave a dramatization of buying an orchard. Phyllis Logan was a shrewd buyer while Holmes Whittemore, the seller, couldn't be caught on any question.

On Monday Miss Hanscom's eighth grade had a similar dramatization with Stuart Hills as seller and Harold Carver as purchaser. Mr. Swett of the Vocational High School and Miss Thomas were guests.

The eighth grades held their first class meeting this week. They chose the following as officers for the year: President, Holmes Whittemore; vice-president, Mildred MacDonald; secretary, Madolin Powell; treasurer, Phyllis Logan.

The highest percentage of attendance for the first quarter of the school year was in Miss Ryder's fifth grade, 97.7 per cent.

Miss Smith's third grade led in the purchase of thrift stamps last week, the amount being $6.50.

Stearns School

The fourth grade teachers of all the schools went on an automobile trip Thursday afternoon through the Newtons with Miss Bragg. They visited all points of interest, such as Eliot Memorial and Echo Bridge. The fourth grade teachers are also taking a course at B. U. under Elizabeth Fisher on "The Geography of Boston. The course will cover a period of thirty weeks.

A straw vote was taken at the meeting of the Mothers' Club, Monday evening. Thirty votes were cast for the Harding-Coolidge ticket and nine for the Cox-Roosevelt.

Miss Lee, physical director of the Massachusetts League of Girls' Clubs, directed games and dances at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Girls' Club. At this meeting final arrangements were made for the Hallowe'en Dance to be given at Stearns School Centre on Friday evening, October 29.

The Stearns football team defeated the Bigelow eleven Thursday afternoon on the new Burr playground by a score of 79 to 0. The Stearns team outclassed Bigelow in every way. The large crowd witnessing the game was surprised at the football which Stearns played. The Stearns boys have been practicing for several weeks and several difficult formations were used against Bigelow. Lawler, halfback of Stearns, and Baccari, fullback, made several long runs during the game. J. Lyman at quarter and Eckstrom at half, also played brilliantly.

Classical High School

The drive for the Review is on. On Wednesday all the pupils of the school went to the assembly hall for this purpose. Editor Capon promised all a better and more interesting magazine, and he emphasized that in order to do this, the magazine will have to have the support of every pupil in the school. Manager Osborne announced that the price of the Review will be the same as last year, $1.25 for eight issues. Mr. Underwood and Mr. Lane also spoke, urging the pupils to support the staff.

By the process of elimination, the following pupils have been chosen from all the English classes of the school, to participate in an oratorical contest: Mary Berger, Florence Mordor, Roger Cummings, Caroline Cummings, Beatrice Smythe, Edwin Loughrey, E. Stimpson, Caroline McClellan, Robert Brown, Donald Martin. This contest will take place during the first week in November. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

The first dance of the year, under the direction of the sub-senior class, will take place in the gymnasium on Friday, Oct. 22.

Mr. Underwood has written words to be sung to the tune of the Yale "Bull Dog" song. The pupils have been provided with printed copies of the words and they will sing the song for the first time at the game with Somerville on Saturday, Oct. 23.

Pictures taken at the football games are being posted on the bulletin boards, and they are attracting a great deal of attention.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Recent Address by Deputy Commissioner Small at Newton High School

I am going to speak to you on the subject of the way in which the Vocational school particularly affords opportunity for making and developing all-around citizens. The type of citizen who is most helpful to a city or nation is the happy and contented citizen. That is a point which I wish to make at this time because of the wave of discontent and upheaval which is present. You probably know very little about this, yet you do not have to look far to see that there is much disturbance and discontent. Anything which makes for the contentment and happiness of individuals is likely to make for their stability.

What are the elements that enter into happiness? I want to pick out three elements which I believe constitute fundamental elements making for happiness.

1. Having something to do. Just think how contented everyone of you is when engaged in work in which he is interested, and how uncomfortable he is when he has nothing to do. Fortunately most of us are not in that condition much of the time. One of the essential factors of happiness is having something worth while to do to occupy your time and attention.

2. The next thing to which I wish to call your attention is having something to care for—someone to love. The necessity of having something which stands as a practical outlet for the affections—for the human feeling that is tied up in every one of us—is absolutely essential to happiness.

3. Having something to look forward to, prospects of promotion, personal gain, etc., is a fundamental necessity if we are going to be happy.

Let me put these three elements in a concrete way—something to do, something to love and something to look forward to. Given these three factors and we shall find happiness and contentment. If each and every one of us has that, the state and nation will have it.

Let us approach this subject from the point of fitting ourselves for securing these elements. More and more society is coming to depend upon the educational institutions to fit the youth of the community for citizenship. There is little opportunity for organized development of the individual in any other way than through the educational institutions. The schools and other agencies must work together. The people of a city or State may properly turn to the school as the agency to fit the individual for specific employment, or for worthy service in the world. Few of us are not going to earn our livelihood. If we are going to have something worth while to do, it follows as an axiom in Geometry that it is important to be trained for that something. So we can turn to the Vocational School as one of the agencies, the specific aim of which is training for placement in life's affairs.

The opportunities offered in vocational schools are as varied as it is possible for municipalities to offer. Some offer larger opportunities than others. The defense is the necessity.

Schools must train for citizenship. This is much more important now for the girls than it was a short time ago because of the extension of the franchise and suffrage privileges. Now girls have the same responsibility and duties as boys. One of the fundamental factors which make for happiness, namely having something to love and care for, has an important bearing on good citizenship. The proper attitude towards the home, and love for one's country. You remember that question asked in the first chapter of Genesis? "Am I my brother's keeper?" The answer is eternally "yes."

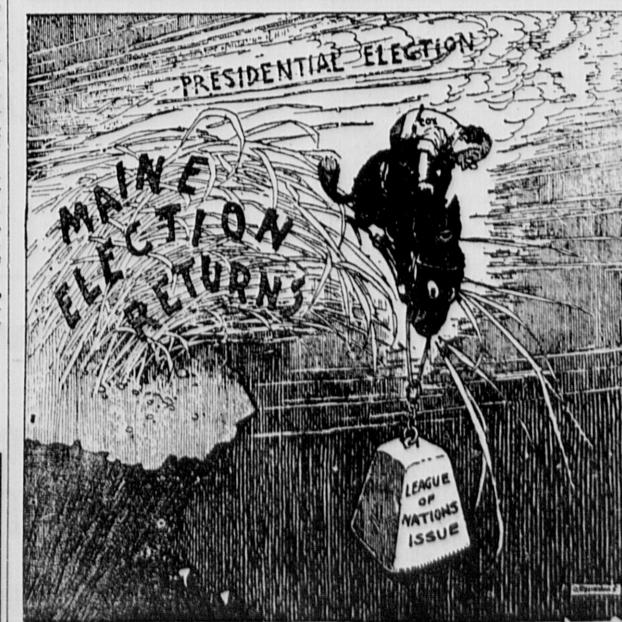

Another matter for which society will depend more and more upon the schools is the matter of training for an appreciation of life's finer purposes and aims. We call it culture. There is a good deal of misunderstanding, it seems to me, regarding that term "culture."

There has been altogether too much notion that a training in a vocational school was somewhat lacking in training and development for cultural purposes. I want to point out that this is not necessarily so, and to no large extent is so. I want to take square issue with those who say that culture consists in the subject matter that you are going to celebrate Columbus Day tomorrow. I could not pick any better illustration than Columbus as an individual who had determination. He was face to face with a notion in the world that made it a greater handicap for him to have the determination which he had which resulted in the discovery of this country.

To point this more definitely—every one of you wears shoes made of a certain type of leather. In the tanneries it was discovered that a certain type of goat skin gave a most beautiful leather, but would not stand up under the process of tanning, destroying the leather so that it would not wear. Four different times the individual who had been trying to perfect the process went bankrupt. He went out and succeeded in getting still more capital. This time he was successful and "Vic" kid was the result. "Vic", "I have conquered" is the translation of that term. Culture is related to the industries.

One other element, I wish to speak to you about. That is willingness to make some personal sacrifice. We are called upon individually to make some personal sacrifices in order to make a thing succeed. That element of personal sacrifice is one which may be more requisite in your success than any other one thing.

These elements are taught you in the Vocational School. You are in the shops. You know you must hold on to your purpose in order to succeed. You know that there is an opportunity every time you put a piece of work in your lathe to use your imagination, and you will find very many opportunities in your school work to make personal sacrifices in order to secure better team work, and for the good of the school. You will be called upon to sacrifice your personal desires.

I find that when I get to talking on the subject of vocational education, I am situated very much as Boston is—lacking in terminal facilities, but for fear that I shall not be asked to come again, I am going to stop now. There should be added to the list of Beatitudes, another reading like this: "Blessed is the man who has something to say and says it and sits down."

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION WORK

Twenty Newton janitors completed a course of instruction in heating and lighting for janitors given at the Vocational School by the division of university extension this year. The class was a co-operative class under the instruction of Mr. Patrick J. Downey of the Boston Trade School. Mr. Murray of the Vocational School was the secretary of the class which met on Wednesday evenings. This particular class was only one of some 286 classes established by the division of university extension.

The division of university extension was established by the legislature in order to bring opportunities for further education within the reach of all ambitious men and women. As the division offers one hundred and thirty courses by class and correspondence there is a wide range of subjects from which the person seeking to improve himself may choose a course. The division is ready to establish a class and send an instructor to conduct the work when there is sufficient number of enrollments to assure an average attendance of twenty persons who wish to study the same subject. All residents of Massachusetts may take class or correspondence work with the division. Instruction is free; a small charge is made to cover the cost of lesson material and textbooks used in class and course work.

The following class students have recently received certificates upon satisfactorily completing a Course of Heating and Lighting for Janitors in which they were enrolled:—John J. Cronin, 230 Adams street; John Dorney, 21 Claffin place; Richard Jennings, 234 Church street; Thomas Klockner, 1425 Beacon street; John M. Lane, 312 Centre street; James Maguire, 10 Maguire court; James L. Fitzsimmons, 25 Morse street, elementary applied arithmetic; Caroline I. Martens, 62 Playstead road, elementary Spanish; Frank D. Mazzola, 181 Adams street, show card writing 1 and show card writing 2; Emma E. Walker, 638 Centre street, foods and nutrition.

WHY A HALF HOLIDAY FOR THE CLERKS?

Dear Editor:

Your readers have no doubt, heard something about this subject during the last few weeks, and no doubt, some of them have asked the above question. In brief, it could be answered in two words. Why not?

But, there are more important reasons, which, if you can spare us the space, I would like to mention.

First, we may say, because other places are now observing a year round half holiday, Lynn for over twenty-five years, and is now also closing at 6 P. M. Saturdays. Some one will say, but Lynn is a large place, which can be answered by naming our neighbor town of Needham.

But, let us take up our own city for an example. Many of us work in villages where we cannot buy many of the necessary things of life. Under present working hours, when and where, then, can we buy them? Most of us like to pick out our own neckties, etc., unless it is at Christmas.

It is next to impossible for the chain store man to get a day off, and he is now working over six and a half days per week; not 8 hours days, but 10 hours. He will sell more goods in a week than the old fashioned grocer with a clerk, horse and wagon, and driver would do in like time. Of course the people do not get the same service, but as they save from 10 to 20 per cent on their goods, they do not mind.

Here in the Highlands, during August, all the stores agreed to continue closing Wednesday afternoons during the Winter season. Later, one of the chain stores (a foreign to New England concern) withdrew from the agreement, and three others claimed they could not close if the other remained open.

This would remind one of the days of twenty-five years ago when one dealer used to watch the other man's lights to see if they were still burning, and the other man watching his, consequence, a very late closing.

This question is like all questions, and simply means, is the cause just or not, and if the stores who claim to believe in giving their help reasonable hours (and most of them are doing so in some towns), let them close all together with this one possible exception, and let public sentiment take its due course.

At least two of the chain stores are willing to do this, and all of the local stores here in the Highlands.

True democracy lies in the will of majorities, not in minorities.

THE Socony gasoline sign is more than a symbol of service—it is a pledge of quality. On the island of Nantucket or in the rural towns of northern Vermont, standard quality Socony gasoline is always obtainable—and always satisfactory.

There are different grades of crude petroleum, different methods of refining it and consequently different qualities of the finished gasoline. Socony is refined from selected crude stock, by the most up-to-date and efficient methods known, under standard conditions. It is a fuel of known excellence—clean, uniform, powerful.

For year-round economy and greatest satisfaction, use the same gasoline regularly. With Socony in your tank and the proper carburetor adjustment, you will notice an increase in your monthly mileage average.

Socony quality and service have made motoring a pleasure and gasoline satisfaction a certainty.

Look for the red, white and blue Socony sign.

CHANNING ALLIANCE

Plans for the coming season and the report of the Rummage sale were the outstanding features of the business meeting of Channing Alliance on Tuesday afternoon. That about $700 had been realized from the Rummage sale was a matter of great satisfaction to those who were most closely identified with it. After a report of the Annual meeting of the National Alliance and items of Religious News covering some of the summer conferences, Rev. Minot Simons, of Boston, spoke of the significance of the Unitarian Campaign, which he said had adopted the slogan "Money for a Campaign, not a Campaign for Money." The fact that more than half of the population of this country is out of touch with organized religion is ample justification for the Unitarian church to set about this constructive policy of spreading throughout the country the ideas of liberal religion. Mr. Oliver M. Fisher, a member of the central committee and chairman of the Channing church committee, emphasized points made by Mr. Simons and outlined plans by which Channing church shall raise its quota of $10,000.

Tea was served during the social hour under the direction of Mrs. Harry C. Wiggin, chairman of the Social committee, with Miss Jessie M. Fisher and Miss Maud B. Henry, at the tea table.

TWO PLATOONS

The permanent firemen of this city are placing the matter of the installation of the two-platoon system in this city before the voters at the State Election.

The new system provides for a division of the now continuous duty force, into a day and night force so that the firemen may share more time in their homes. It gives a more efficient fire fighting force as one platoon is on duty at all times, never being shortened as during the present system at meal hours and in the event of an emergency or extra alarm fire the "off" platoon is in reserve ready to respond when needed.

The system was installed in 36 Massachusetts cities and towns early this year and everywhere it is working in a satisfactory and efficient manner as letters from Chiefs of Departments attest. Among our neighboring cities and towns sharing this system are Watertown, Brookline, Cambridge, Brookton, Framingham, Lynn, Quincy, Revere and many others.

The firemen earnestly urge the citizens of this city to consider this matter carefully and do everything possible they can to aid in installing this humane measure in this city.

EDITORIAL

We trust that those who intend to vote for Mr. Cox for president merely as a declaration of their belief in the principle at the base of the League of Nations, will give the matter the most serious consideration. A vote for principle where opposing candidates are equal is one thing, but when the candidates are clearly unequal, as at present, other things have a bearing on the decision to be made. No one, however, pronounced on the principle of civil service or of good government, for instance, would even dream of casting a vote for a Tammany candidate for office. No one, however strong on the subject of prohibition would think for one moment of voting for a liquor dealer to carry out that principle in legislation. And yet, everyone knows, or should know, that Mr. Cox is not sincere in his advocacy of the Wilson League of Nations and is using it merely as a stepping stone to get the votes he badly needs as the candidate of Messrs. Murphy, Taggart, etc. We hope that Newton voters will not fall for such a palpable political gold brick.

—o—

The proposition to require the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company to move its tracks on Walnut street, Newtonville, into the center of the recently widened part of that street, should be promptly negatived by the aldermen. If the entire length of Walnut street was widened, it might be worth considering, but as the widened portion is less than 1000 feet and as the tracks, if re-located on this part, would have to return to the present location further down the street, it would seem to be a needless waste of money. While we hold no brief for the street railway company, we have an impression that the company hasn't any money to throw away on matters of as little value to the public as this seems to be.

City Clerk Grant and the other members of the board of registrars are to be commended for the excellent manner in which the registration of voters was handled the past few weeks. Between 9000 and 10,000 new voters have been made this fall and we have yet to hear of any complaint or of any friction in accomplishing this result.

—o—

The agitation of the police for a day off in eight and of the firemen for the two-platoon system are merely legitimate attempts to have these two classes of municipal work placed more nearly on the same footing as other kinds of labor.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. POOLE, Editor.

If you have never been to a meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, plan to go next week. There is no better way to realize that your club is merely a part of a big movement than to be in one of those conventions yourself. That the Federation is not something intangible and far off and of little consequence to you is an idea which must be put away, for the Federation is you and you and your club and your club and your club until it comprises all the clubs and club women of the state. It is easy and natural to send the willing ones as delegates, for those who have been a few times feel that they cannot miss a meeting, particularly when it is as easily accessible as Dorchester. But it will be better for the club to urge some new delegate to go. She will bring a fresh point of view. She will be more critical, perhaps, than some of those who are in so full accord with the Federation's way of doing things, as not to be wholly impartial; she will not be quite so willing to say, "What's the constitution among friends?" The president of the club should always go if it is a possible thing, but when a club is entitled to other delegates as well, let one, at least, be someone who has never been before.

State Federation

Friday, October 29. Autumn Meeting, Second Church, Dorchester. Morning session at ten o'clock. At this session there will be reports of the Biennial, the vital business being given by Mrs. Grace M. In the afternoon the chief address will be given by President Henry MacCracken of Vassar College on "National Traits in Education." The hostess club is arranging an attractive musical program.

Oct. 26th is the latest time to order luncheon tickets. Send addressed stamped envelopes and check, sixty cents, to Mrs. Mary E. Daly, 1119 Adams street, Dorchester. "Norfolk street" cars from Dudley street station pass the door; also "Milton via Washington" from Broadway Terminal, South Boston.

MODERN MAN OF BUSINESS

Wins Success With Ideas That Would Shock the Very Soul of His Grandfather.

A business man tells, in People's Magazine how he commits suicide at stated intervals.

"I die every little while, he says. 'I pretend that the end has come and I ask myself what I am doing that some one else could not do just as well—or better. Since I contracted the habit of killing myself off, I have dropped one kind of work after another. Keeping in mind that I may drop off any minute, I have understudies ready not only for myself but for the other important men. We are all unnecessary. The result is our business never was better. We are all principals. Every one of our men carries a marshal's boston in his haversack. The men under me seem to keep on saying every little while, 'Here, you, get out of the way!' And, in self-protection, I scramble up to a higher place and all the rest of the men move forward at the same time.

"Not only do I share authority, but I share profits. The 'T' idea of business went out of our place years ago. Now it is always 'We.' It hurts me every time I hear one of our men say 'I will do this or that' when speaking with a customer. He is supposed to say 'We will do that.' The 'We' split it is what we have cultivated because we have realized that 'T' is a pretty small individual.

"So, my advice to my fellow business man is to commit suicide every little while. If they do the job honestly and in a workmanlike manner, they will find themselves constructing the ladder that will land them in heaven, not after they are in the grave, but right here on this good old earth of ours."

IS WORLD'S LARGEST ISLAND

Distinction Undoubtedly Belongs to New Guinea, If Australia Is to Be Excluded.

New Guinea, also called Papua, is the largest island in the world, excluding Australia. It lies north of Australia and south of the equator, and has an area of about 215,000 square miles, with an estimated native population of about 1,000,000. Of the total area in 1914, the southeast portion, 90,000 square miles, with a population of 200,000, was a territory of the Commonwealth of Australia; the northeast portion, 70,000 square miles, with a population of 120,000, was the German colony of Kaiser Wilhelm's land, and the west portion, 152,000 square miles, with a population of 600,000 was part of the Netherlands, East Indies. An expedition of Imperial Australian troops took possession of the German territory on September 24, 1914, and the former German possessions in New Guinea have been allocated to the Australian Commonwealth. The area of the territory under British control has thus been increased to about 160,000 square miles, with an estimated native population of 320,000.

Real Test of Friendship.

The loftiest test of friendship—understood as companionship—is the power to do without it. And in this world of external confusions and separations, there is often such need. We do not yield the friendship, but must forego the companionship. Then comes the proof of our capacity for sacrifice, our loyalty to the highest of all. We turn our faces from each other, but never our hearts, and walk our opposite ways. Gradually the heavens widen and deepen above us; we find ourselves breathing new, yet strangely familiar atmospheres, sweet with the breath of the old affection; we see ourselves—each sees the other—met once more in a Presence which has never forsaken us—the presence of one who puts his cross into the hands of all holiest friendship, saying "Conquer by this!" There is no danger of losing love, here or hereafter, if it is only real; for love is the one indestructible element in the universe. —Lucy Larcom.

Velocity of Light.

Physicists never tire of efforts to increase the accuracy of their knowledge of the fundamental facts of science. A redetermination of the velocity of light by the Fitzhenry toothed wheel method was made at Nise. These experiments were remarkable on account of the great distance over which the beam of light employed was transmitted. Previously such a beam had been caused to travel about fifteen miles but on this occasion the reflecting mirror was so placed that the total distance traversed by the beam, going and returning, was fifty-seven miles. The mean of 1,109 observations gave for the velocity of light 180,254 miles a second.

Patch Your Linoleum.

When linoleum wears out in any spot mark out with chalk on the linoleum the piece you wish to repair. The shape of this piece should be square, circular or triangular. Cut it out with a sharp, short-bladed knife and place it as a pattern on a new piece of linoleum and cut out carefully. Put hot glue around the edge and a little underneath and fit it into the empty space. The glue will secure it firmly, filling up the crack all around, and so prevent dust from entering the joint. No nails are required. If the linoleum has a design and the new piece is matched the joint will scarcely be noticed.

WHY WE FOUGHT

To the Editor of The Graphic:—If you have the space to permit me to do it I should like to answer the question which Mr. R. L. Bridgeman asks in the Graphic for October 15.

"If," writes Mr. Bridgeman, "you did not oppose the entry of the United States into the war, but supported it, and if you opened purse and heartstrings for its miserable victims, what has happened to change your mind and to prove that our national policy was a mistake and a blunder? Do you believe that our fifty thousand dead soldiers in France were heroes and martyrs for world democracy and world brotherhood, or were they deluded cranks who died as the fool died?"

I take it that Mr. Bridgeman addresses his question to those who oppose the United States joining the League of Nations. I am opposed, have been opposed from the beginning, to the league, or a league, and was opposed to the pre-war organization called a League to Enforce Peace. I believe all the leagues so far proposed are humbugs and more apt to prove agents for mischief than agents for good or for peace. I hold that the boys who fought and the boys who died, and the boys who were wounded, are entitled to the gratitude and the respect of all Americans. I deny the right of Mr. Bridgeman, or any other man, to say that they were sent to Europe to fight "for world democracy and world brotherhood." They fought and died for their own country because their country called them to the colors and they answered.

The United States went into the war because it could not do otherwise and preserve its self respect as a Nation.

I have at hand a leaflet issued by the Liberty Loan Committee during the campaign to raise the Fifth, or Victory Liberty Loan.

On its first page under the heading, "Why We Went To War," it says:—"Pray do not forget this. The United States entered the war because we had to. The drowning of 114 of our own men, women and children when the boche, crazed with lust for power, sank the Lusitania, compelled us to enter the war. From that hour nothing could have kept us out of it. These, our own flesh and blood, had a perfect right to be where they were. Later the miserably misled boche (the Hunns hate that name; so let us call them boches) sank ships sailing under the flag of the United States and of neutral nations, 20 of them, drowning by those acts of piracy 226 persons. Those persons, let us never forget, had a right to be where they were."

Because of the man who "kept us out of war" we did wait a disgracefully long time after the sinking of the Lusitania before we went into the war but when we did go in we went to avenge wrongs and insults to our own country, to preserve our country from the tread of the German soldier and to prevent on this side of the ocean a repetition of the scenes enacted in the war afflicted territory of Europe.

In my turn I would like to ask Mr. Bridgeman a question. Can he find in the declaration of war made by the United States, in the draft law, in the earlier call for volunteers, in any speech or writing by any one having the right to speak for the people of the United States, at the time we went into the war, the statement that we were entering the war to fight for "World democracy and world brotherhood?" Can he find anywhere at any time before our entering the war, or during the time our men were in Europe in active service, a declaration that one reason for our sending our forces across the seas was that we might have the right to bind ourselves by treaty or covenant to take a hand in all future European wars?

JOHN CUTLER.

THE WOMEN ARE OUT

Not vainly we waited and counted the hours. The buds of our hopes have all burst into flowers. No room for misgiving—no loopholes of doubt. We've heard from the Pine-tree—the women are out.

The plot has exploded—we've found out the trick. The bribe goes a-begging—the slander won't stick.

When the suffrage lanterns are shining about The rogues stay at home, and the women are out.

The good state has broken the cords for her spun. Her good men and women have voted as one.

The Yankee has given the schemers his knout. And slow, late, but certain the women are out.

Give the flags to the wind! Set the hills all afame!

Away with misgiving—away with all doubt.

For Harding goes in when the women are out.

ST. PAUL'S FAIR

Plans for the St. Paul's Fair are going on apace and if the women workers put half the vim that the Men's Club are putting into the formation of a grocery store with everything in packages from soup to nuts, at seemingly mythical prices, similar to those of 1912, the first shot fired as an opening to a season of unusual activities will successfully pave the way to coming events. The fair will be held at Lincoln Hall, Newton Highlands, from 2 to 12, Oct. 29.

Mrs. Albert H. Norton, of Delmore road, chairman of the General Committee has named the following as chairmen of the various booths: Doll shop, Mrs. R. C. McCabe, Lake avenue; Grocery, James E. Rayner, Bowdoin street; Bags, Mrs. Robert Smith, Ash-

Any room a cozy corner— in a few minutes

IT isn't necessary to "rush" the heater a half hour just to make the one room you want to use comfortable. Drafts will seep in through window sashes and door jams. But you needn't heat up the whole house just to keep your favorite corner safe and cozy.

A Perfection Oil Heater between you and the window or door will make drafts warm and healthful.

Thousands of families find "Perfection" heating most economical

It is an expensive luxury to keep seldom-used rooms and hallways heated all the time. Keep the house warm all over with your furnace or steam heater, and then bring the room you're going to use up to 70° or 72° with a Perfection Oil Heater.

The Perfection is so convenient that it has a score of practical uses—drying clothes on rainy days; heating water for shaving; getting up in the morning; in the sewing room.

Progressive hardware, housefurnishing and department stores sell Perfection Oil Heaters—blue or black finish, with or without nickelized trimmings. Burns about 10 hours on a gallon of kerosene. Let your dealer show you one.

TAX PAYER ANSWERED

To the Editor of the Graphic: In your issue of October 15th "Tax Payer" has much to say about the 1920 taxes. He admits he's "sore," he claims he's "stung." And then he asks a question, "Shall I move or be content with making a fuss and doing nothing?" Surely such a query deserves an answer. Mr. Tax Payer, do not desert us. Continue to abide in the Garden City but instead of "doing nothing" do something. Try this plan:

Run for the Board of Aldermen at the election in December. If in 1921 as a member of the Board you are unable to accomplish all you desire you will have an opportunity to run for Mayor at the election in December, 1921.

Let your campaign slogan be "Lower Taxes" and put the following plans in your platform:

1. No more free schools.
2. No new schoolhouses.
3. Cut down teachers' salaries.
4. No new sidewalks.
5. No new sewers.
6. Abolish playgrounds.
7. Abolish parks.
8. No lights except on your own street.
9. Reduce number of policemen and firemen.
10. No more street repairs.

And after you have been elected on the above-outlined platform you will undoubtedly be able to restore to us some of the other blessings of 25 or 50 years ago, such as Five-Cent trolley fares.

Five-Cent soda water.
Four-Cent sugar.
Thirty-Cent butter.
Twenty-Five Dollar suits of clothes.
Six-Dollar coal.
$3.50 shoes

and many other desirable things so common in those good old days of hoop-skirts and horse cars.

The Women's Association of the Eliot Church met on Tuesday under the auspices of the Social Welfare Department, Mrs. Harry W. Flits spoke on "The Children of Our Sunday School." Supt. Nathan Heard read a paper on "Religious Education." Mrs. Earl F. Gates sang contralto solos accompanied by Mrs. Dana Hadden.

Tonight is the beginning of the Celebration of the 75th Anniversary at Eliot Church. There will be a sermon by Dr. Calkins and music by the Chorus. This will be followed by the Lord's Supper and Reception of Members, and the unveiling of war memorial.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The American Red Cross is in the midst of preparations for its Fourth Roll Call. Through its 3,620 Chapters and their Branches in the United States, in our island possessions, and in other countries, it will appeal to its ten millions of adult members to renew their memberships, and will urge those who are not members to enter the ranks during the two weeks from November 11, Armistice Day, to November 25, Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Arthur G. Rotch, Division Manager, gives a very brief, constructive reason as to why the Red Cross must go on: "The Red Cross is going on, first, because of its duty to the sick and disabled service men and former service men. It must continue this work just as long as there is a service man who is sick or disabled. There are approximately 26,000 of them today in United States Public Health Service Hospitals. Our Home Service Section estimates that it will be 1925 before the 'peak of the load' is reached. The second important reason why the Red Cross is going on, is its duty to the active Army and Navy of the United States, the present fighting forces. The Red Cross has been asked by the War and Navy Departments to render to the Army and Navy, in peace, the same service it rendered during the war. This means Home Service for the men and their families, medical social service, entertainment. The Red Cross is an auxiliary of the Army and Navy in war and in peace. Its charter obligates it to give the service requested, just so long as there is an Army and a Navy. The Red Cross is going on, in the third place, because of its moral duty to the suffering people overseas. It should lead the way for our people to aid those in other countries. And, fourth, it is going on because of an opportunity—the greatest opportunity any organization has ever had—that of giving service to the communities of this country to promote within them better conditions of living."

Mr. Leon B. Rogers, who conducted the Third Roll Call last year so successfully, for the Newton Chapter, has accepted the Roll Call Chairmanship again this year and expects to have the same efficient organization of helpers.

Remember the date: November 11 to 25th.

ALL-NEWTON RUMMAGE SALE

Everybody in Newton is to have the opportunity to help the Newton Hospital by doing what they can to make a success of the All-Newton Rummage Sale which the women of the Newton Hospital Aid Association are to hold for the benefit of the hospital at the old Congregational Church in West Newton on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, October 28, 29, and 30.

The women have been hard at work on the sale for some weeks and they have already progressed far enough to feel sure of its being a success, but they wish to make it a great success and so they hope that every family in Newton will contribute at least one article for the sale and that everybody will turn out and attend the sale on the three days during which it is to be held. They particularly ask for contributions in the way of food, vegetables, and millinery, and contributions of pickles, preserves, jellies, and cakes will be most welcome.

Then there are the people who know what the hospital is because they have been treated there and it is hoped that all the grateful patients, or "G. P.'s" as they are called for short, will prove that they are truly grateful by each one of them contributing some article to the sale.

The women who are directing the arrangements for the sale are the officers of the Aid Association, Mrs. Geo. H. Talbot, president; Mrs. W. M. Flanders, Mrs. G. W. St. Amant, and Mrs. J. N. Lovell, the vice presidents; Mrs. F. E. Anderson, secretary; and Miss Rose Loring, the treasurer. The committee in general charge of the sale has for its general chairman, Mrs. J. N. Lovell and anyone who wishes to make inquiries about the sale or who wishes to know how to get to it any article as a contribution can get any information desired by calling her at Newton West 520. The chairmen for the different villages of the city are: For Newton, Miss Rose Loring; for Newtonville, Mrs. W. H. Allen; for West Newton, Mrs. H. M. Cole; for Auburndale, Miss Florence Tower; for Newton Highlands, Mrs. F. W. Johnson; for Newton Lower Falls, Mrs. Bernard Early; for Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. C. F. Rogers; for Newton Centre, Miss Constantine Smith; for Waban, Mrs. H. M. North; for Wellesley, Miss Sawyer; and for Chestnut Hill, Mrs. H. T. Baldwin.

Practically everyone in Newton knows something about the Newton Hospital and is proud of it and this sale offers the opportunity to help the hospital to secure some of the things which it ought to have but which it cannot afford to get from its regular funds. It is to get these things, some of them almost necessities, as the Hospital Aid Association is going to hold its rummage sale, and the Association asks the people of Newton to give expression of their pride in the hospital and their gratitude for what it has done in good hard dollars. Most people do contribute to the Hospital on Hospital Sunday and what is then contributed is used to help meet the absolutely necessary expenses of the hospital. All the civic pride in Newton, all the kind words that can be spoken for the hospital won't help the hospital nor do a bit of practical good unless they are expressed in money that can be used to buy for the hospital what it ought to have. This is the reason the Aid Association is to hold the All-Newton Rummage Sale, and the people of Newton are asked to contribute articles which can be sold, and to attend the sale and make purchases just as freely and generously as they can afford to.

taking further financial aid, as those who knew most about it felt that it must have a fair trial and that can hardly be expected to be wholly self-supporting until it has been established a year.

Mrs. F. H. Tucker, the newly appointed chairman of Conservation of Natural Resources, reported that her committee would doubtless take up for study those phases of the subject that are likely to be legislated upon the coming year. Mrs. A. B. Rice, chairman of Legislative committee, outlined the progress of the bills taken up last year and the measures which will probably be presented again this year. She made a strong plea for good delegations to attend the hearings in order to show that the women are in earnest in these matters. She also urged the women to vote NO on the 2.75 per cent beer referendum.

The sum of $250 was voted for the Welfare Bureau.

Mrs. F. E. Stanley reported the annual meeting of the State Federation and also the Biennial of the General Federation.

The new Year Book of the Newtonville Woman's Club has just been received and it offers a most attractive list of speakers for the coming year, which opens on Tuesday of next week with a reception at the home of Mrs. Eugene and Mrs. Fred Rust, 98 Kirkstall road, when Mrs. George Minot Baker, president of the State Federation, and Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell, president of the Newton Federation, are expected as the guests of honor.

Among the speakers engaged may be mentioned Ernest Harold Baynes, Dr. George H. Blakeslee, Dr. Abraham Ribbany, Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, Mrs. James D. Tillington, Miss Heloise Hersey and Mr. Loring Underwood, who will show his wonderfully beautiful slides of Old New England Gardens. A novel feature of the program is a Pop Concert on the election night when the only guests admitted will be men. There will also be one dramatic and one musical afternoon.

Mount Holyoke's Founder's Day

Mrs. Herbert S. Kimball, of Waban, president of the Boston Mount Holyoke Alumnae Association, and Miss Margaret McGill, of the Newton High school and a member of the Mount Holyoke College board of trustees, attended the Founder's Day exercises at the college today. A characteristic feature of the celebration is the procession to the grave of Mary Lyon at the rear of the campus, where seniors in cap and gown, the faculty and trustees in full academic costume, and a vested choir of 200 students join in paying homage to the founder by placing a wreath upon her monument. Anna M. Henry, of Newton Centre, was in the procession of seniors, and two other Newton girls, Elinor S. Pedley, 23, of Auburndale, and Katherine Ayransen, 23, of Newtonville, were in the choir.

Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, of New York, was the speaker of the day, his subject being, "The New Citizenship." Alumnae interests in the occasion center in the reports of the $3,000 Endowment Fund, for which the college is still working.

Newton won a close decision last Saturday afternoon with Medford High, the score being 7 to 6.

—There was little doubt about the power of Newton High in this contest, but its scoring punch appeared only in the third period. Newton could gain outside the 30-yard mark, but Medford against its goal line was a wall and the Newton offence was buried.

—Medford's defence was its only card. It never showed any offensive power, failing to make a first down. The big excitement was packed into the third quarter. Both teams registered a touchdown. Medford got the first by way of a blocked kick, but Quarterback Morrissey holding the ball for the free try after the touchdown, placed it on the ground and the vital point was lost. Newton got the ball at midfield shortly after Medford had tallied, set Bob Garrity and Leonard hanging off the tackles and with the former doing the real work, marched straight to the final mark. Herbert Garrity collected the marginal point in the free try.

—Forced to kick from behind his goal line earlier in the same quarter Bob Garrity's boot was blocked by Freeman and big John Prior fell on the ball rolling in the end zone. Morrissey's alleged slip-up has been recorded and Newton won the game.

—Rumor has it that Medford High School will protest the decision of Referee Newell Babcock in this game, Medford, it is understood, claims that the referee erred when he did not permit John Prior to kick a goal following a touchdown.

—The referee stated, after the Newton team charged out, when he blew his whistle, and at the close of the game, that the ball touched the ground and was dead. It is customary for the referee to raise his right hand when the ball is touched to the ground by the holder, then he lowers his hand and blows his whistle.

—Medford High contends that although the whistle was sounded, the official did not hold his hand up, as the rules specify. Billy Morrissey of

Eliot Church has a Three Day Celebration on its Diamond Birthday

The initial meeting of the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Eliot Church was held on Friday evening, Oct. 22, and took the form of a communion service, the present pastor, Dr. H. G. Person being assisted by Rev. Robert L. Rae of the North Village Church, Rev. C. H. Patton, and Rev. Woleot Calkins, pastor from 1880-1895.

The latter delivered the sermon which was an interesting blending of history and admonition, pathos and humor. Solomon's words, "He brought me to the banqueting house, and the banner over me was love" served as text; the sermon closing with the entreaty for church service and church membership. "Be willing to be led into the banqueting house where the banner over us is love."

In speaking of the generous response for sufficient funds for erecting the present building he referred to the most grotesque figure on most new church edifices as being a debt! The forbidding enclosure about the former church he termed "a picket fence of spiny ferocity."

While praising the spirit and ability of our church fathers he urged us to begin work where they left off. "Tremendous things need to be begun and finished. Never so many swords needed to be turned into ploughshares." Co-operation and mutual beneficence must take the place of competition and strikes."

MRS. IDA PORTER BOYER ADDRESSES THE COMMUNITY CLUB

Under the auspices of the Civics Department of the Newton Community Club, Miss Edith Jamieson, chairman, Mrs. Ida Porter Boyer addressed the Community Club last night on the subject of voting.

The meeting took place at the Y. M. C. A. hall, and was preceded by the stirring notes of the bugles blown by Miss Marion Maxim of Newtonville, and Miss Elizabeth Plimpton of Newton Centre, members of the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Boyer began by reference to conditions for voting in early times, and followed this by the history of the origin and growth of political parties, together with the significance of party names. The fundamental differences between the political parties especially on the tariff and states' rights question were made clear.

With the aid of map, the speaker traced the political parties from the beginning to the present time, touching upon the fundamental issues of each campaign.

She then showed a sample ballot and explained in detail the method of voting for president, and for state officials. At the conclusion of the lecture there was an opportunity for asking questions.

HOW TO VOTE

Suggestions and Explanations for the Benefit of New Voters

The election held Tuesday, November 2nd includes presidential electors, for whom you wish to vote.

The "X" is what counts. Do not mark your ballot in any other manner, unless you wish to write in the name of candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot.

How to Vote
After entering the polling place and BEFORE you pass inside the rail, take time to look at the voting list of that precinct and the sample ballots which will be found posted on the wall; the voting list to see that your name is on it and the sample ballot in order that you may decide definitely just how you will vote BEFORE you mark your ballot. You may take as much time as you please OUTSIDE the rail.

Having made up your mind how you will vote, step up to the tally clerk and give him the name of your street, the number of your house and your own name, in this order and like this—"Washington street, No. 900, Mary Brown" (Do not say "Mrs. John Brown").

Receiving your ballot go to one of the booths and mark an "X" in the square at the right of the group of presidential electors you favor and passing over to the third fold of the ballot, you come to the state and county officials. These names are arranged alphabetically in groups for each office, each name being followed by the name of the party to which the candidate belongs. To vote for these officers mark an "X" in the (Continued on Page 6) by a service on Sunday morning at which there was special music by the choir and an Historical address by the present pastor, Rev. H. Grant Person.

After speaking of the changes in the method of travel which have occurred in the last seventy-five years, and of the development of electricity, and machinery etc., the speaker told of the changes in the character of the questions before the people.

In the earlier days, slavery was a pressing question. In this, Eliot Church played a glorious role. The Temperance question was another burning topic, and the question of Masonic Orders a third much discussed question. There were many, in those days, who regarded such orders as of the Evil One.

There were two reasons, he said, why Eliot Church was organized: the increase in the population owing to the coming in of the railroad, and the increased distance to the Mother Church in Newton Centre. Formerly this church was nearer to Newton Corner than the present church. The splendid spirit between the two churches was also touched upon. Reviewing the earlier pastorages he spoke of the average length of time as being 11 years.

Of the spiritual life of the church, Mr. Person said that it had always been of the steady type rather than of the explosive type, an addition of 33 members yearly being a fair average. In giving, the church has always had a high record, contributions averaging as high as $60 per member. Eliot Church has from the beginning given to outside causes much more than it has spent on itself.

He paid a high tribute to the work of the Sunday School and to the work of the women of the church, and also to the work of the choir. In concluding, there were two characteristics which, Mr. Person, said, have always been marked during the last seventy-five years of Eliot Church—Conviction and Loyalty.

Following the morning service, there was a service by the Eliot Sunday School with addresses by Past Supt. Thomas Weston, Jr., Past Supt. Franklin W. Ganse, and Past Supt. Richard O. Walter, and a paper "Memories of Earliest Days of Eliot Sunday School" written by Miss Elizabeth Spear was read by Supt. D. B. O. Bourdon.

The evening service at Eliot Church opened with special music by trumpet and organ. This was followed by prayer by Rev. Newton A. Merritt, Jr.

Immanuel Church, and the reading of the scripture by the Rev. Harry Lutz of Channing Church.

The special feature of the evening was the addresses by sons of former pastors of the church. The first of these was given by Mr. Edward A. Davis, of New York, son of Rev. William H. Davis, D. D., pastor of Eliot Church from 1896-1905. Mr. Davis spoke of what Eliot Church had meant to him as a boy, and of his love for it.

The second address of the evening was given by the Hon. Arthur Holbrook Wellman, of Boston, son of the Rev. Joshua W. Wellman, D. D., pastor of Eliot Church from 1856-1873. Mr. Wellman spoke of the sense of their high calling which the early preachers possessed, and of their influence in national decisions. He also contrasted the reverence for law of earlier times with the lawlessness of today. In matters of righteousness, justice, and truth, he doubted whether we, of today, are better than our predecessors.

The third speaker was the Rev. Raymond Calkins, D. D., of Cambridge, son of Rev. Wolcott Calkins, D. D., pastor from 1880-1885. Mr. Calkins gave a very keen analysis of the reasons why certain classes of people do not ally themselves with the church, and suggested several ways in which the religion of the church might be more vital. Among these, he spoke of the worship of the church which he said, should convey a truly religious impression, the preaching should be both prophetic and intelligent, and the moral conscience of the church should be directed to fundamental issues.

More than 400 guests sat down to the banquet on Monday evening which with the addresses which followed, concluded the celebration.

Mayor Edwin O. Childs in a few well-chosen words welcomed the friends and guests present. He gave an impressive list of the men whom he had known in the church as teachers and leaders, and paid a fitting tribute to their sterling character. He then introduced the first speaker, Rev. Edward M. Noyes.

Mr. Noyes spoke of the pleasant relations which had always existed between the First Church and Eliot Church.

He said that the best thing that Eliot Church had done in these 75 years was the inspiration which she had given to many lives.

The next speaker was the Rev. Laurens MacLure of Grace Church, who spoke particularly of the harmony which exists between the churches in this part of Newton, a harmony extending even to the chimes. "We are now," he added, "striving to get to heaven, not by competition, but by co-operation."

Following him, Dr. Person exhibited certain relics which had been presented to the church. Among these was the key of the First Church, the key and parts of the mantel of the Second Church, a hand grenade, and a scrap book containing extracts from early sermons. Mr. Horton S. Allen then gave a most vivid account of the fire of 1887 which he saw as a boy. At the conclusion of his thrilling narrative, he showed the old maltese cross which formerly crowned the spire of the church and rose 200 feet in the air. The cross was of copper and on one side bore the name of the maker, Charles E. Carter, 1860, and on the other, the words, "Praise to God." This cross, rescued by him from the fire, he presented to Eliot Church.

The guests then adjourned to the auditorium where they listened to an organ recital followed by the address by Rev. Charles Reynolds Brown, D.D., L.L.D., Dean of Yale University.

At the Congregational Church next Sunday the preacher will be the Rev. Cornelius H. Patton, D.D., of the American Board, who will speak on "The Present Situation in China."

—At the Congregational Church

In a masterly way, he showed what Nehemiah did for Israel, especially along the lines of inspiration and organization. He noted, too, that Nehemiah was able to accomplish what he did because the people had a mind to work, and he contrasted this "mind to work" with the lack of joy and interest in work too often found to-day.

Nehemiah also built certain ideals and principles into the lives of his people. This also is the mission of the church to-day.

Again, Nehemiah recognized the significance of humble tasks. In organizing his people for work, he combined self interest and public spirit, recognizing that the greatest enemies of a country are not without but within.

Christ concerned Himself first of all with the founding of a church, a church built upon character. Character is to-day the greatest need of the world. In 1914 there was enough material resources, and enough intelligence in the world to bring about peace and prosperity, but there was not enough of good will, of character. The fate of a nation in the last analysis is a moral one. Final forces are always spiritual.

We have great need to-day of the inspiration and organization of the church. The work of the free lance is not enduring; the only enduring life is one that has built itself into an institution.

BETTER SPEECH WEEK—NEWTON HIGH SCHOOL

At Newton High School during the week beginning Monday, November 1 is to be devoted to the promotion of all that is implied in the slogan, "Better English." This has really come to be a nation-wide movement in our public and private schools. It does not mean that such an aim is not constantly before teachers and students in the schools; the idea, however, is to signalize the importance of better oral English by emphasizing not only correct expression, but also the value of good enunciation, proper pronunciation, and various essentials of technique. Under the direction of the English Department at the Newton High School many ingenious and impressive methods are being worked out for enforcing the caution of "Watch your speech." Last year the students designed clever cartoons and posters to illustrate the canons of good taste. Interesting programs were also offered in the various classes. This year the idea will be rather to demonstrate the value of good English which must at the same time be well spoken.

Every student in the school has recited a selection in prose or verse before his English section and the class has by vote chosen the best speaker. These thirty-odd "best speakers" were again heard in an elimination contest to determine who were the ten best in the group. On next Wednesday morning the plan will culminate in two contests before the entire school. Five young ladies will be heard in one contest and five young men in another. Friends of the school who are interested in the promotion of public speaking have donated prizes for the winners. The contest has already aroused considerable interest among the students, sufficient, it seems, to warrant the continuance of such a feature from year to year. The students who have shown special ability in oral English, and have been chosen to participate in the public contest are the following: Carolyn McClellan, Newtonville; Mary Berger, Auburndale; Florence Morford, Newton; Caroline Cummings, Newton Centre; Beatrice Smythe, Newtonville; Robert Brown, Newtonville; Roger Cummings, Newton Centre; Edwin Loughrey, Newton Highlands; Donald Martin, Waban; Edward Stimpson, Chestnut Hill.

CHILD HURT

Mr. Guy Keith of Bradford court, Newton Centre, on Saturday afternoon reported to the West Newton police that while riding with his wife in his automobile the car struck Howard Brightman, 6, son of Prof. Edgar L. Brightman of Boston University, who lives at 42 Braeland avenue, Newton Centre.

He said that his automobile was on Centre street and that the boy suddenly ran from the sidewalk in front of the machine. He was rendered unconscious. Mr. Keith rushed the child to the Newton Hospital, where he regained consciousness after an hour. The doctors fear a slight fracture of the skull.

The police do not hold Mr. Keith responsible for the accident, which was apparently unavoidable.

THE CASE OF MR. FULLER

[From the New Bedford Standard, Rep.]

Two of Mr. Charles Sumner Bird's grounds for opposing Mr. Fuller for lieutenant governor relate to questions of party policy and regularity. The non-partisan, or the mild partisan, may consider them inconclusive. The third ground, however, is different. It involves a question of honor, of morals, of decency upon which all fair-minded men, regardless of party, think alike.

In the primary campaign Mr. Fuller accused an opponent, Mr. Warner, of conduct which, had he been guilty of it, ought to have forever disqualified him from public office in this Commonwealth. The closeness of the vote warrants the statement that Mr. Fuller's charges turned votes enough to win him the nomination.

Six weeks ago the accusation was proved groundless and false. Mr. Fuller, invited after the primaries to present evidence, in support of it, ignored the invitation. He had no proof. Having served their purpose at the primary election, the charges no longer interested him. Nor has he ever withdrawn them, or confessed his error, or in any way shown that he has the slightest concern over the possible effect of his false accusation upon a young man of highest integrity and a clean record in political life.

Assassination of character is one means of gaining political preferment, Mr. Fuller's primary victory proves that, more's the pity. It is not the Republican way, nor the American way; not the way that decent fair-minded people will approve. Of far worse consequence in its influence on the well-springs of politics than his stand on the league or his opposition to Senator Lodge, is Mr. Fuller's dis-honorable performance of blackening the character of one who happened to stand in his way. The voters should think about this when they go to the polls, November 2.—Political Advt.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

In a letter from Senator Harding dated at Marion, O., October 20th, the Republican candidate states his position towards the League of Nations so clearly that we reproduce it below:

"I do not know what words I could use to make more clear the statement which I have made repeatedly that it is our open purpose that America shall do her part for an association with other nations to bring about understandings and agreements in the interest of the preservation of peace and in the just and peaceful settlement of questions which might otherwise involve and resort to war in their adjustment. I have made my own purpose in this connection plain in every speech which I have made in the campaign.

"It seems that some of the people of whom you speak are more wedded to the name of the League of Nations than to the purpose it was falsely proclaimed to foster; more interested in the ideal proclaimed than in the plan promoting; more interested, perhaps in certain obligations depending for their security upon America's subscribing to a compact of force and a guarantee in which she would be the only solvent and responsible partner in protecting the institutions of America upon which the perpetuity of our government and the liberty and prosperity of our people are based.

"America should, of course, be a part in every worthy movement for the peace and the fraternization and well-being and progress of all the peoples of the world, but we, ourselves, should decide the character and extent of our contribution, and we should not surrender our own peace, our control of our own destinies and the guardianship of either our liberty or our conscience to any other nation or combination of nations. Our platform expresses this idea, wholly and clearly, the candidates have reiterated it in every public utterance, and the one who questions either our purpose or our sincerity does so not because he is a believer in the world association for peace, but in the League of Nations, with its implication of a super-world government and a surrender of American rights and safeguards, forced upon the Peace Commission by the President of the United States.

Very Sincerely,
(Signed) Warren G. Harding."

think about this when they go to the polls, November 2.—Political Advt.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

It has been estimated that the number of pupils in the school this year exceeds one thousand. This is an increase of about one hundred since last year. Due to this increase it was necessary to have two separate lunch periods which have relieved all congestion in the lunch room.

The report cards for the first five weeks are being distributed this week, owing to the delay in the printing of these cards it was necessary to issue them a week later than usual.

The candidates for the class football teams are practising Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons at Clafin Field. They are being coached by Doctor Martin and Mr. Altman, and within a few weeks will be ready for their annual games.

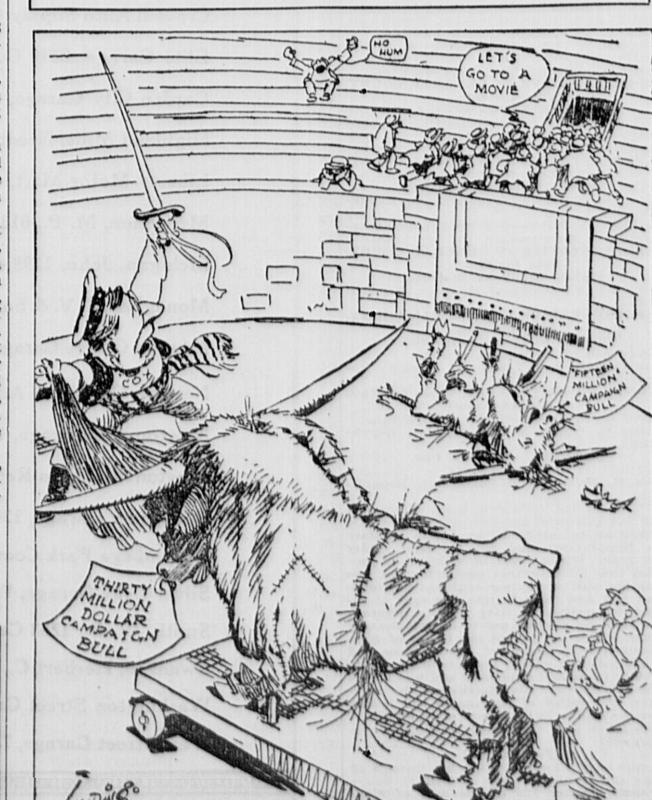

School will not keep on Friday, Oct. 29, owing to the fact that the teachers are to attend a convention which is to be held in Boston.

Coch Dickinson has requested that all those students, who are planning to go out for the team next year, come out afternoons and watch the team practise.

The winner of the boys golf tournament will be announced next week.

Mr. Walton is thoroughly disappointed in the way in which the students are treating the school orchestra. At the last rehearsal, there were only two pupils present. It has been estimated that at least four hundred of the students of the school play some kind of an instrument. Why is it then, so difficult to secure eight or ten pupils to form a school orchestra? The trouble probably lies in the fact, the pupils do not realize the benefits, which they will secure in joining this organization.

WHAT TWO PLATOONS MEAN TO NEWTON FIREMEN

As Election Day approaches the issue regarding the installation of the two-platoon system in our Fire Department seems to gain greater interest from every viewpoint.

Everywhere throughout the city we see signs and appeals to "Vote Yes On Two Platoons For Newton Firemen." And just what does it all mean to the average citizen?

How few of our citizens realize that our firemen are now on duty continuously for four days and nights, a period of 96 hours except for 3 hours allowed each day for meal periods. At the end of the fourth day the day of liberty comes to the firemen and never in the ranks of workers comes a more welcome respite when he can be at his home with his family. Working hours of labor has engaged the deep thought of enlightened men for many years and all over this country to-day the demand that our firemen be placed on the same basis with his fellow workers is being recognized in a sane and humane adjustment of working hours.

The Two-Platoon system simply divides the now continuous duty force into a day and night force so that our firemen may share more time in their homes. As a measure of progress, of humane legislation and of some advance in the welfare of our firemen it is as deserving of adoption by the people of Newton as it has been in any of the 36 cities and towns of Massachusetts who installed this system early this year.

Wherever the two-platoon system is in force come the endorsements of municipal authorities, property owners and of all citizens alike as to its merits and as to its undoubted effect on the increased efficiency of the fire department. Fire Chiefs all over the country testify to the merits of the new system and no man knows better than the trained Fire Chief what is best for the city and its security against the dreaded enemy—Fire! Our own Chief Randalton endorses the new system from every viewpoint.

The question of the granting of the Two Platoon system in this city should have a successful appeal to the women voters of our city who are leaving their homes for the first time to voice their wishes in governmental affairs, and none know better than they how homes are made brighter and happier by the presence of Father.

Nothing can destroy their conviction that men who work must have proper time to devote to the home and that is what the Two Platoon system will give to our firemen.

The Newton Fire Department is rated as a highly efficient one by Chiefs of departments throughout eastern United States. Will the citizens of this city support the firemen in their endeavor to install the most humane measure of modern times, the Two Platoon system in our Fire Department? Their efforts will be greatly appreciated by Newton Firemen.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Burr School

Last Thursday the Hyde School football team was beaten by the Burr School team, the score being 43 to 0. All the substitutes had a chance to play.

On Tuesday the Burr School football team played the Peirce School. It was an interesting game. Edward Wyeth hurt his knee while playing halfback. He then took William Hall's place on the line. William Hall caught a forward throw by the Peirce team and ran twenty yards for a touchdown. Dick Halewood kicked the goal which made the score 12 to 7 in favor of the Peirce team.

Stearns School

The sixty-sixth annual meeting of the Middlesex County Teachers' Association will be held in Boston on Friday, October 29. The Newton teachers will attend the same.

The Mothers' Club held a Hallowe'en party on Monday evening. Candy, peanuts, and apples were brought. Fancy novelties were given as prizes.

The Fourth Graders will take a trip by automobile to places of interest in Newton in connection with their geography work. The automobiles are provided by members of the Stearns Centre Association. The children look forward to the trip with great pleasure.

The football team decisively defeated the eleven of the Horace Mann-Claffin district Tuesday afternoon on Cabot Park Playground by the score of 38 to 0. The Stearns backfield again played brilliantly, each member excelling with many spectacular runs. Bacci, at fullback, scored three touchdowns, Eckstrom, at right half, one; Lawler, at left half, one; and Bernie Lyman, at left end, one. Lyman's touchdown was scored from a beautiful forward pass which netted 60 yards. Miller at left tackle showed fine defensive play.

The gratifying sum of $7.17 was donated to the "Belgium Orphan Fund" by the members of the eighth grade this past week. Paper and magazines were collected and sold and the results are surely much beyond expectations.

The teachers of this school have arranged for a dinner party at the Adams House for Friday in connection with the Convention which is being held in that day in Boston.

Newton Vocational School

Free Extension Courses are offered for women over 18 years of age.

The following units will begin November 5 and 11. Registration for same may be made at office of the Newton Vocational School, Elm road, Newtonville.

Dressmaking: 5 lessons for mothers. Thursday morning. Class opens Nov. 11. Dresses for high school and upper grammar school girls.

Cooking: 6 lessons. Friday morning. Class opens Nov. 5. Food preparation and serving in relation to health.

In the belief that Mr. Cox is honest in his stand for the league rests the hope of us Republicans who, by the anti-league stand of Mr. Harding, are forced to vote for Mr. Cox. If Mr. Editor, you have inside information proving or strongly supporting your direct statement above referred to, or if you will point out the information by which we "all know or should know" of Mr. Cox's insincerity, it would be greatly in the interest of Mr. Harding's election not only to place it before your local readers but still more to bring it forcibly to the attention of the reading public throughout the country.

There have been made in this campaign, as is too often the case in heated controversies, far too many positive and sweeping editorial statements, libelous if unsupported, and the writer sincerely hopes that you will either convincingly justify or suitably and conspicuously qualify the statement of your editorial above referred to.

Respectfully yours,
ARTHUR KENDRICK.

TAXPAYER REPLIES

To the Editor of The Graphic:

"Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth." Sore, blue, and aggrieved at my tax bill from the city of Newton, I sat down and wrote a letter of lamentation and The Graphic printed it. I read it in type with appreciation and comforted myself with the reflection that it had at least one reader. A week later with my wife and daughter I spent a weekend looking over a property where the taxes are not so onerous and where life seems as happy as it is in Newton, and where for one thing I found that milk as good as I am paying twenty-five cents a quart for can be had morning and night delivered at the door for fourteen cents and butter had fresh from the churn, not oversalted, for less than I can get it in Newton. I returned to Newton resolved to make a change and picked up the last number of the Graphic and found a letter from "Another Native" in which I am nominated for the aldermanic board in 1920 and for mayor in 1921. My vanity is touched and I am a bit surprised as I had thought that no one was ever nominated unless he had some reputation as a joiner and a mixer and one who would stand in with the boys. It may be I'll change my mind and continue to live in Newton even at the risk of being stung so long as I stay.

Frankness compels me to say that I do not altogether approve of the platform laid down by "Another Native."

It seems to me a bit drastic, a bit Utopian. If I decide to run I should do so on the platform of "A dollar in return for every dollar spent." I believe that the taxpayer has as much right to the worth of his money as anyone spending a dollar in any other way. I should try to encourage a greater interest in city affairs on the part of those paying the bills. I should admit their right to know what they were getting for their money. One trouble with city, State, and national affairs, as I see it, is that the money paid in taxes is freely spent by those who are expert in spending but who pay in comparatively little, men who are skilled in spending the money of others for their own benefit and who resent the desire of those who pay to know what they get for their money.

In my first letter I told what I paid and summarized briefly what I received and stated I thought I was paying dear for my whistle. Will "Another Native" tell what he pays and what he receives?

TAXPAYER

RENT LAWS

By G. M. Heathcote, Chairman Rent Profiteering Committee

So many questions have come in, relative to the rent laws, that I am giving an interpretation which I trust will make clear the meaning and force of the above laws.

To get a tenant out, a landlord must first give a thirty days' written notice to the tenant to quit the premises. At the expiration of the thirty days, the landlord may then bring an ejectment writ to evict the tenant.

The tenant can come into Court and bring a petition for a stay of judgment or execution. If the Court is satisfied that the tenant has made a reasonable effort to find a house of about the same number of rooms, at about the same rent, and in the same location, then the Court may grant a stay of proceedings for a period not exceeding six months.

Most people have erroneously got the idea that the Court will at all times, where it is difficult to find another place, give them six months within which to move. The Court in its discretion may not grant any time, and again it may grant two weeks, or a month, or even six months, as the circumstances seem to warrant, but in no case can the court grant a stay of proceedings for over six months. Moreover, the Court may, where a stay of judgment or execution is granted, make such terms in regard to the payment of the rent as it deems best. In other words, the Court may order the rent to be paid in advance, or a certain deposit to be made in Court to make certain that the rent will be paid when due.

Many people also have interpreted the rent laws to mean that not more than an increase of 25 per cent can be made in one calendar year. If the rent is raised more than 25 per cent in one calendar year, and the landlord tries to recover that amount, then the tenant can come into Court and when he has proved that the rent has been raised more than 25 per cent in one year, then there is a presumption that the landlord is profiteering.

If the landlord can prove that the rent charged, even if it is over 25 per cent, only gives him a fair and reasonable return on the principal invested in the property, then he may be entitled to charge over 25 per cent.

SHALL WE VOTE "YES" FOR THE TWO-PLATOON SYSTEM?

Again we are confronted with problems for the unnecessary increase of the City's expenses by the proposed two-platoon system?

If the placing of firemen on day and night shifts has not decreased fire losses or insurance rates in the cities that have already tried it, surely it will not in this city. Spokane, Wash., has abandoned the plan after giving it a fair trial as has Youngstown, Ohio.

The City of Lynn found the men using the time off in other employment, which does away with the argument for a rest period.

The hardships and dangers of the firemen are few.

I have often heard my father and one of my brothers, who at one time were members of Newton's Fire Department, say there was little danger to life at a fire in our city if the men used caution. Besides the 14 days annual vacation, they have one day off in 5. A total of 84 days off in a year. That is many more days off with pay than the majority of men get.

Could not our city money be employed for necessary improvements that would benefit a greater number?

EDIT
We trust that every Republican voter in this city will go to the polls next Tuesday and help to give Harding and Coolidge and the entire Republican ticket a majority which will make it clear even to President Wilson's obtuse mind, that this state is for America first and that our own problems demand attention before we attempt to meddle with affairs across the water. But the League of Nations issue ought not to be the sole reason for the faith which is in us. A vote for the Democratic candidates is a vote of confidence in the high handed, inefficient and wasteful manner in which the Washington administration has conducted affairs for the past seven years and more particularly in the past three years. It would be a vote of exoneration for the purchase of 945,000 saddles and 195,000 branding irons for 391,000 horses and mules, for the purchase of 32,227,450 pairs of shoes for 3,315,837 soldiers, and for many similar cases of extravagance and graft. It would be a vote of approval of the ward politician tactics of Mr. Cox, whose campaign has been on a lower level than that of any previous candidate for the high office of president of this great country.

On the other hand we know how seriously Senator Harding views the great office of president and we know how well fitted our own Governor Coolidge is for his running mate.

A vote for Harding and Coolidge therefore, appeals to one's patriotism, Americanism and sense of fitness in the greatest degree.

One of our good friends takes exception to the editorial statement made last week to the effect that "everyone knows or should know that Mr. Cox is not sincere in his advocacy of the Wilson League of Nations." We are frank to admit that the term "everyone knows" can be construed to be somewhat broader than the situation we intended to outline and it was used in the editorial sense that it was the prevalent opinion of the so called "man on the street." The sincerity of Mr. Cox is certainly open to question, not only on the issue of the Wilson League of Nations but on his charge concerning the Republican "slush fund" to "buy the presidency" as well as on his offer to bring the Irish question before the League of Nations, if elected president. The slush fund and Irish matters being clearly put forth to fool the voters. Possibly the word "sincerity" is not exactly the right term to use in this connection, but the idea we are trying to convey is, that Mr. Cox is making every possible argument to advance his campaign for the presidency and making it in such a fashion as to raise grave doubts as to his honesty of purpose. We repeat that it is the opinion of the average man that Mr. Cox is not "sincere."

While we do not like to see financial questions submitted to a popular referendum, and should much prefer that the establishment of the two platoon system for the Newton Fire Dept. and the granting of one day off in eight for the Police Dept. be settled by the aldermen of the city, we heartily approve of the fundamental idea of both these measures, notwithstanding the heavy cost to our tax payers thereby involved.

We believe that the chief reason for approving both of these measures is one that has not been given wide publicity, viz., that it places these two important departments on a level with the hours of labor of most of our industries, and that this fact, together with the possibility of a pension, certainty of pay and security in office will lead a better class of men to seek the office. The future of these departments therefore requires that the job be made attractive, and while the immediate expense seems heavy (it is estimated at 40 to 50 cents on the tax rate) it should be approved.

There should be an overwhelming "NO" vote in this city on the approval of the question of 2.75 per cent liquor at the election next Tuesday. Besides the temperance side of the matter, in itself a sufficient argument for a negative vote, there is the fundamental issue of clash with the Federal constitution and laws made thereunder.

The Federal constitution explicitly states that "this constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof:*" shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding."

Under the 18th amendment, Congress has passed the Volstead act, establishing the alcoholic content of intoxicating liquors at 1/2 of 1 per cent. Enuf said.

Don't forget that the Wilson, Cecil, Smuts, pro-English League of Nations is not the sole hope of the world for peace. Why not let some one else other than Wilson try his hand at a League more acceptable to America.

A vote for Cox is a vote to abandon the solid ground of American independence, to follow a Wilsonian mirage into a quagmire of unknown trouble.

Vote for the right Jackson—James Jackson—Republican candidate for treasurer.

BOY SCOUTS RALLY

The Boy Scouts of Newton, Needham, and Wellesley, will hold an Annual Field Meet on Clifton Field, Newtonville, Saturday, Oct. 30, at 2:15 P.M. This Rally will be competitive in nature, most of the time being occupied with contests. The troop gaining the highest number of points will be awarded the Irwin Silver Cup, presented to the Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts of America for this purpose. The Honorary Commissioner, and Mrs. Irwin who for many years have had the interests of the Boy Scout Movement at heart, presented this Cup with the hope "that the cup may prove to be an incentive to the Scouts of all Troops to attain proficiency in the Scout Requirements."

Although this Meet will not have the formality that has usually been the case, an interesting program of events is assured. Visitors will receive a cordial welcome, and it is hoped that a large body of citizens including His Honor the Mayor, and other city officials, who are interested in the welfare of boys in the community will be present to lend support to the occasion.

THE FIRST AND BIGGEST ISSUE FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

No matter what anybody thinks or tries to think about the League of Nations, he knows that the Wilson Administration's management of the business affairs of the American people has been incompetent, extravagant and ruinous.

No matter what anybody thinks or tries to think about dry laws or wet laws, he knows that continued war squander in peace times and continued stuffing of the banks with Treasury I O U's have deprived legitimate industry and business of the necessary funds for production on an efficient basis, jacked up the cost of living when it should have been going down and emptied the public's pockets of billions of dollars.

No matter what anybody thinks or tries to think about the attempts of Government officials to regulate supply and demand by legal process, everybody knows that discriminating and sectional taxes imposed by vengeful Kitchen revenue raisers upon certain parts of the country and certain lines of business and industry have put millions of dollars more into the prices which the American consumer has been compelled to pay.

No matter what anybody thinks or tries to think about voices in the air and visions on the horizon, he knows that what has damned Mr. Wilson's party in the eyes of straight-thinking Americans has been its disregard of plain arithmetic, its scorn of American horse sense, its sacrifice of American interests and its defiance of American opinion.

If the League of Nations had never been heard of, if prohibition were still an open question, if official mauldin sentimentalism had never made up the laughing stock of the world, the American who wants to earn a living for his family, the American who wants to see his country maintain its industrial and commercial power, the American who wants to see his Government conducted on sound business principles instead of driven on the rocks of squander, loss and bankruptcy, would still want to put Mr. Wilson's Administration and Mr. Wilson's party out of the management of the United States Government, bag and baggage.

This issue of common sense is always the first and the biggest issue for the common sense American people to settle.—New York Herald.

Beginning Nov. 3 Dr. Cutler is to give a course of lectures on "The Making of the New Testament." The lectures are to be on Wednesday evenings at 7:45 in the Union Church and will extend through the months of November, December, January, and February. In the first lecture, Dr. Cutler will extend through the months of November.

There is certain to be a serious congestion at times at the polling place next Tuesday. The men can help by allowing themselves plenty of time in which to vote and the women can help by voting in the early afternoon, instead of in the morning. Both men and women can help by taking as little time as possible to mark the ballot. Know what you intend to do BEFORE you enter the polling place.

Much interest is being shown in Miss Dorothy Friend Robinson's recital in the Waban Club House on November eighth. More than 50 performers from all parts of Newton, Brookline, Wellesley, and Boston are working to make the evening one of great social and artistic importance. One of Miss Robinson's selections will be an act from Shakespeare's play, "The Taming of the Shrew." In recent concert work Miss Robinson received high commendation from noted critics.

—There will be three referenda at the end of the ballot—probably in this order.—Increasing the standard of intoxicating liquors to 2.75%—granting policemen one day off in eight—establishing the two platoon system in the fire department. To vote on these you make an "X" in the square marked "Yes" or "No", at the right of each question.

—Things to Remember
Vote for but ONE group of Presidential electors.

The name of "Cox" will appear three times on the ballot—twice for president and once (Channing H. Cox) as the Republican candidate for governor.

The name of "Coolidge" will appear twice on the ballot—once for vice-president and once (Marcus Coolidge) as the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

The name of "Jackson" will appear twice on the ballot, both for the office of state treasurer. JAMES Jackson is the regular Republican candidate for that office and his name follows that of GEORGE H. Jackson, who runs as an independent candidate.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

The eyes of the world are on the United States watching with the keenest interest and concern the outcome of the election next Tuesday. Terrible disappointments are bound to follow the result whoever wins. The issues are so interwoven that thoughtful, conscientious persons are greatly puzzled as to which way to cast their votes. There are those who seem to recognize the League of Nations as the moral issue of the campaign and will, therefore, vote for Cox. Then there are those who, like Johnson and Borah, would have no League whatever, these together with the "straight party" men will vote for Harding. But what are those who shade in between, who are anxious for world organization in some form and at the same time feel that a change of party is absolutely necessary in order to stabilize and unify the country—what are these going to do? What remains for them but to vote for Harding even though they may not be personal admirers of the Senator?

Harding supporters are prophesying a great Republican landslide, the Democrats likewise are claiming victory. But with the greatly enlarged electorate and the resulting uncertainty as to which way they will turn and with the large number of League supporters who usually vote Republican, but this year are going over to the other camp, it seems well-nigh impossible to give any certain forecast.

With the situation as it is, it is, therefore the solemn duty of every voter whether man or woman, Republican or Democrat, to turn out next Tuesday that the choice may be in reality a government chosen by the people. Then after the tumult and the shouting have died away—and we know they will—it remains for the people to uphold the hands of the government and see to it that the solemn pre-election pledges are made good. It is easy to be aroused when all are aroused, but it is easier to drop back after the die is cast and let things go on as they will. Are the women going to do the same? Heaven help us if they do!

Newton Federation

Friday afternoon at the same hour occurs the third in the course in "Citizenship."

Saturday, November 6, Mrs. W. M. Mick will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club.

Local Happenings

Mrs. Martha Elliott in her talk upon Citizenship before the class of the Newton Community Club last Friday afternoon told of the political parties, showed a specimen ballot and explained some of the technique of voting.

The Auburndale Woman's Club listened with great pleasure to Mrs. Grace M. Poole's lecture on Tuesday, October 26th. The speaker gave a most informal resume of present world conditions and also definite, unbiased information regarding the tangled issues which surround the coming national election. The lecture was preceded by a farce written and coached by Mrs. Charles F. Towne, "A Woman's Committee for Clean Politics." Several well-known types of women were cleverly satirized and local hits added zest to the fun. The cast was as follows: Miss Learned, the school-marm, Mrs. J. W. Bucknam; Sarah, the maid, Mrs. Ashley Wright; Mrs. Fox, the ambitious hostess, Mrs. C. F. Towne; Mrs. Green, interested in the men, Mrs. W. A. Stiles; Mrs. Young, interested in her husband, Mrs. G. G. Goldie; Mrs. House, interested in domestic affairs, Mrs. H. H. Longfellow; Mrs. Snow, interested in the hostess, Mrs. J. M. Barris.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Newton Local Council Girl Scouts is not entering the campaign which the National Organization is to have November 6 to 15. The reason for this was explained in last week's Graphic. But through some mistake the heading to the article was misleading and we wish to correct any wrong impression which it may have made. The Newton Council held a campaign last January, and money enough was raised to carry on the organization for a year. The Council does not need more money now, and will not ask for it until January. But as a Council we do want to do our share towards maintaining the National and State organizations and we want to give towards this the same amount of money that we gave last year, $600. The proceeds of the entertainment which is to be given by the Girl Scouts on November 6 and Nov. 13 will be used for this purpose.

"The Pioneers" is progressing finely. Don't forget the first performance at Players Hall, Saturday afternoon, November 6 at 2:30 o'clock. This entertainment has been written especially for us by one of our Newton Captains, Miss Ethel Freeman, Troop 6. The scene is Camp Newton, the time—1620 and 1920. Members of each of the seven troops are in the play and over 150 Girl Scouts will take part.

The Captains Association met at the home of the Local Director on Wednesday, October 27. They planned the final details for the entertainment and discussed the Leaders' Class. This Class will be held in the parlors of the Emerson school hall. The scene is Camp Newton, the time—1620 and 1920. Members of each of the seven troops are in the play and over 150 Girl Scouts will take part.

QUAINT OLD-WORLD CUSTOMS

Whitsuntide Superstition in Parts of England—Annual "Cheese Rolling" in Small Village.

An old superstition still lingers in some parts of England, notably Derbyshire, and induces people to rise unusually early on Whitsuntide morning in order that they may see the sun rise, for they frankly believe that whatsoever request is proffered the Almighty at that particular moment is certain to be granted.

The county of Northampton celebrates an old custom, dating from the time of Queen Elizabeth, once in 20 years. The scene of it is the village of Carby.

Very early on White Monday, bands of men are stationed at the by-ways of the parish, who demand toll of all pedestrians. Should they refuse, they are seized, hoisted on a stout pole, and carried to the village amidst the cheers and jeers of the spectators.

The origin of the "cheese rolling" which takes place yearly in the quiet little village of Birdlip, in the Cheltenham district, is lost, like many more, in the mists of antiquity, but local sentiment forbids it dying out. A substantial round cheese is set rolling down a steep hill with all the young and active members of the population in hot pursuit. Before it can be captured many of the men are rolling after, but the cheese evades the majority of them, and usually falls to the lot of one of the company who has managed to keep his feet.

BEAR MOST POWERFUL BEAST

Easily King of Them All, as Far as His Physical Strength Can Be Estimated.

A man rowing does one-third as much work as an ox plowing.

An ox plowing does a little more than half the work of an average cart-horse hauling a ton of coal.

A camel carrying 500 pounds on its back is nearly equal to two average horses, while an elephant, which will bear a load of half a ton or lift a log of teak of the same weight, is worth in muscular power rather more than three good camels.

The lion, usually known as the king of beasts, is by no means the strongest. Its strength is estimated as that of six men only, while that of a full-grown Indian tiger is a third greater.

Neither of these animals is equal in muscular power to the bear tribe, of which the polar and the grizzly are the strongest. A grizzly weighing about 1,000 pounds has been seen to carry a steer weighing 800 pounds up a steep mountain-side for over half a mile. Its strength is at least twice that of a lion.

A gorilla four feet six inches in height has the strength of four strong men. It can bend double a pair of 12-bore gun barrels in its paw.

The African buffalo and the Indian gaur—or wild ox—are the two largest and most powerful of the buffalo tribe. It is doubtful if 12 men could hold a gaur, which stands as much as six feet high, and is over eight feet in length.

Isinglass.

Isinglass is the dried swimming bladders of several varieties of fish. The amount of gelatin in isinglass is from 86 to 93 per cent and even more. It is prepared by tearing the air bladder or sound from the back of the fish, from which it has been loosened by striking several blows with wooden club, then washing in cold water. The black outer skin is removed with a knife, again washed and spread on a board to dry in the open air, with the white shiny skin turned outward.

To prevent shriveling or shrinking the bladders must be fastened to a drying board. The best quality of isinglass comes from sounds that are dried in the sun. After drying the sound is again moistened with warm water and the interior shiny skin is removed by hammering or rubbing. Finally it is rolled between two polished iron rollers.

Clerical Expedient.

The English preacher, Stephen Jenkins, was not a highly educated man, but he had a native wit which often helped him out of difficulties. One Sunday while reading as the Scripture lesson the third chapter of Daniel, he came to a batch of words that gave him trouble. "At what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer," etc. Now this list of instruments is repeated several times in the chapter, and the second time he stumbled through it with even greater difficulty than the first.

Before he reached it again, however, he had discovered a way of escape. So the third time he relieved both himself and his listeners by reading with the utmost gravity, "And the band played as before."—Boston Transcript.

Tower of the Winds.

There was a water clock erected at Athens, Greece, in the second year of the first century before Christ. It is octagonal in plan, 42 feet high and 28 feet in diameter. Toward the top of each side it is sculptured with various symbols of the wind. Originally the structure was surmounted with a bronze Triton which served as a weather vane.

Heredity.

"So that clever woman player's father was a dentist? That accounts for it."

"Accounts for what?"

"Her good bridge work."

ALDERMEN MEET

The chief interest in a rather routine meeting of the aldermen on Monday night was the debate on the proposed removal of the iron drinking fountain at the junction of Walnut and Forest streets, Newton Highlands. The Public Works Committee after weeks of travail and following a rather lively public hearing of a few weeks ago, reported in favor of removing the fountain. Alderman Clement of Newton Highlands, chairman of that committee said that the fountain had been there for about 30 years and that traffic conditions had changed considerably within that time. The fountain was too small he said when the water was turned on sufficiently to make it attractive, and made the vicinity muddy. Children played around it and with the increasing numbers of automobiles it was a dangerous spot. While the fountain was not within the line of Walnut street, it was somewhat of an obstruction to Forest street. Alderman Cook opposed the removal, saying that none of the abutters in that vicinity favored that action. Alderman Whidden supported the action of the committee. Alderman Blake quoted numerous court decisions to the effect that all obstructions in the street were illegal. Alderman Hollis brought out the fact that Commissioner Stuart had said it would cost $150 to remove the fountain and believed that there was some better place to start removing street obstructions than here. It was not vital matter and might well be left until Walnut street was widened.

Alderman Forkall took the floor to oppose the action of the committee, stating that there was no danger in his opinion. The order asking the mayor to remove the fountain was then rejected by a vote of 5 to 10.

In the absence of President Harriman, Vice President Forkall was the chair and Alderman Nichols and McAuslan were also absent.

Hearings were held on Edison conduits in Church st., and Edison Telephone locations for poles on Police road and Exeter st. and the order subsequently passed. A hearing also held on the laying out of Elmourne road.

Alderman Phipps was designated to draw six jurors for the November term of the Superior court and the names of Lewis M. Bailey, Webster st., Joseph B. Robson, Crafts st., William Hahn, Langley road, Orren Pool, Owatonna st., James S. Farquhar, California st. and A. Farwell, Bem Old Orchard road.

Mayor Childs recommendation for $8000 additional for repairs to school buildings was approved, as was the recommendation of the City Clerk that election officers be paid $2 additional on Nov. 2. The Mayor also sent in request of the Health Dept. for $250 additional for Care of Disease.

Capt. H. D. Cormerals, Heywood S. French, Leverett Saltonstall, William M. Noone, Jos. H. Cunningham, Thomas W. Quinn, Sinclair Weeks, James A. Waters, Chas. H. Beckwith, Edward Edmunds Jr., Frank P. Hurley and Thomas F. Hickey were approved by the board as worthy to be incorporated as Newton Post 48 of the American Legion.

Mayor Childs sent in the following names of additional inspectors for duty at the coming election, ward 1, precinct 2, William D. Ward, Rep.; Charles A. Mahoney, Dem., ward 2, precinct 1, Chas. J. McCarthy, Dem.; Clarence A. Wentworth, Rep., ward 2, precinct 2; William H. Zoller, Rep.; Richard A. Murphy, Dem., ward 3, precinct 1; George A. Hains, Rep.; Edward H. Powers, Dem., ward 3, precinct 2; Thomas J. Bradley, Dem., James H. Sawyer, Rep., ward 4, precinct 1; Frank McGill, Rep., A. L. Moriarty, Dem., ward 5, precinct 2; Albert H. Mellin, Rep.; L. J. Mullin, Dem., ward 6, precinct 1; Frank J. Linehan, Dem.; Howard P. Fessenden, Rep., ward 6, precinct 2; E. D. Bartlett, Rep.; Walter E. Young, Dem., ward 7, Harold T. Dougherty, Dem., Burt M. Rich, Rep.

Petitions of Chas. A. Soden for bowling alleys, 865 Washington st., Aurelia Broady for Intelligence office license, George Peck and R. L. Hatton for express licenses, Telephone Co. for attachments on Chapel st., relocations on Centre st. and removals on Maple st., Edison Co. for attachments on Walnut st., D. A. Buchanan, 1191 Washington st., F. J. Morgan, Jerome D. Henry Eaton, Derby st. and Allan McKissock, Dudley road, for private garages, the Elite Garage and L. K. Sartwell for taxi cab licenses were severally granted. Numerous apportionments of betterment assessments were also allowed. John T. Burns filed a claim for land taken for the laying out of Pleasant road, and John T. Burns and R. H. James filed claims for damages to their automobiles.

On recommendation of committees, petitions of John E. Cormey, Mayflower road, Geo. Deverix, Dalby st. for private garages, P. L. Palmer, to sell gasoline on Winchester st., F. C. Donahue to keep 1000 gals, fuel oil at 29 Vernon st., were granted. Leave to withdraw was granted on petitions of C. A. Ginsberg to sell gasoline at 204 Elliot st., Geo. S. Haddock to enlarge his public garage in Auburndale, the Edison Co. for a pole on Winthrop st. and for a sewer in Brentwood av.

A hearing was ordered on a slight widening of Charlesbank road, and on the acquiring for public purposes of the land bounded by Commonwealth ave., Homer and Walnut sts., Brae Burn road was laid out as a public street with building line at a cost of $750, and a sidewalk was ordered laid on Algonquin road, Chestnut hill.

The Finance Committee reported that as there were sufficient appropriations and therefore the matter was wholly in the hands of the Mayor, no action should be taken by the aldermen on the matter of paying city laborers for holidays for the rest of the year.

An order was passed calling the city election for December 14 to elect 7 aldermen at large, one alderman at large from ward 4 to succeed Alderman Hollis, removed from the ward, school committee for three years from wards 1, 4, and 7, and one from ward 5 to succeed Edward H. Ruby, for 7 ward aldermen and to vote on the license question, Sunday Sports and legalized boxing.

On report of the Finance Committee the matter of laying a sewer and drain in Woodward street was referred to the next city government.

PRESIDENT EMERITUS ELIOT OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY ANALYZES THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

How are you going to vote next Tuesday?

The election hinges on the League of Nations, which have puzzled voters, are now explained clearly and concisely.

Whether for or against the league, voters may easily prepare themselves to decide intelligently on this, the greatest issue, when they cast their ballots.

Will the league really put a stop to war? Will it help lower taxes, by doing away with expensive armaments? How large and what kind of a military establishment will be required of the United States? What hope does the league hold for Ireland? What is the controversy over Article 10? Are the Republican reservations necessary?

These are only a few of the questions answered in the simplest language by Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard College.

Dr. Eliot's explanation makes everything clear, and his analysis of the covenant of the League of Nations, together with the full text of the covenant will be published exclusively in the next Boston Sunday Post.

The duty of understanding just what the league means, before deciding for or against it, is a serious one. It is a duty resting equally upon the shoulders of men and women voters in this critical transition period. Become familiar with the league before voting by ordering to-day your copy of next Sunday's Boston Post, which is still sold, outside of Boston at the same old price of seven cents.
